Mrs. Thomas Heavside Pearson

The death occurred at Highfield, Queens Co. on July 26, after an illness of ten weeks, of Mrs. Mary A. Pearson, widow of the late Thomas Heavside Pearson, aged 77 years. A loving mother, a kindly neighbor, always ready to help in sickness or trouble, she will be greatly missed, especially in St. John's Episcopal church, of which she was a faithful member. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Owen Cook, of Carsonville, who was with her mother during her illness; and five sons, William M. of Saint John; John F. of Moncton; Charles L. Walter H. and Hazen D. at home.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A short service was held at the house by Rev. C. A. S. Warneford and "No, Not One," a favorite hymn of the deceased, was softly sung. The remains were then carried to St. John's church, where the service for the dead was conducted by Rev. Mr. Warneford, who also preached an inspiring sermon, and the hymns Cast Thy Care on Jesus, Peace, Perfect Peace, and Now the Laborer's Task is O'er were sung. The pall bearers were four sons, and interment was in the cemetery adjoining. The profusion of beautiful flowers testified to the esteem in which she was held.

Those from outside places attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wallace, Mrs. Harry Wallace, Frank Wallace, Penobscis; Dr. L. R. Murray, Mrs. Margaret Gamblin, Miss Bessie Murray, Mr. McLeod, Sussex; George Hutchinson, Richibucto; Howard Pearson, Apohaqui; Mr. Vines, Mr. and Mrs. Hanford McEwen, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reidie, Carsonville, and many others.

Elmer J. Carr

The death of Elmer J. Carr, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carr, of O'Connell Avenue, occurred on Thursday last, July 29th, at the age of one year.

The funeral was held the following day, burial at Kirk Hill, Rev. D. J. McPherson officiating.

Medley Parlee

Medley Parlee passed away, after a number of months of declining health, at his home in Ipswich, Mass., where he has been a resident for thirty two years. He was born in Sussex eighty one years ago. He is survived by two daughters, Miss Alice Parlee and Miss Adelaide Parlee; one brother William Parlee, and one sister, Mrs. Emma Proctor.

Charles F. Brown

Charles F. Brown passed away at the residence of his sister, Mrs. D. Ludlow Campbell, Peter St., on Wednesday, July 28th, after an illness of three years. He leaves to mourn two brothers, Edward Brown, of Upham, N. B.; Harry Brown, of Hartford, Conn.; and four sisters, Mrs. D. Ludlow Campbell, Sussex; Mrs. Joseph Mitchell, Hartford, Conn.; Misses Angie and Alice, Hartford, Conn. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the F. W. Wallace funeral parlors, Rev. D. J. McPherson officiating. Interment at Kirk Hill.

Miss Sarah Doherty

On Wednesday last, July 28th, the death of Miss Sarah Doherty occurred at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Doherty, Apohaqui, with whom she had resided for many years. The late Miss Doherty was 88 years of age, and was the daughter of the late John Doherty and Anne Magee Doherty, of Shepody Road, Kings Co.

Miss Doherty was of Irish descent, and a highly respected lady. During her residence in Apohaqui she led rather a retired life owing to advanced age, but her many friends of other years will greatly regret her passing. The nearest of kin who survive are seven nephews viz, Kingston Doherty, George Doherty, Apohaqui; J. Burton Doherty, Riverside; John Lisson, W. P. Lisson, Samuel B. Lisson and Geo. Lisson, of Waterford; also four nieces Mrs. J. E. Jellison, Fairhaven, Mass.; Mrs. Charles Pollock, Newton, Mass.; Mrs. Charles Jackman, Newburyport, Mass.; Mrs. Samuel Lynch, Jeffries Corner; Mrs. W. A. McFarlane, Saint John.

The funeral was held on Friday with brief services at the home of Mrs. Doherty and in the church of the Ascension, Apohaqui. Interment was in the Anglican cemetery.

Wellesley Price

The body of Wellesley Price, who lost his life in a baseball game at Saint John, on Tuesday night, July 27, was brought to Havelock for interment. Representatives of Vassie & Co. Ltd., and of the South End Senior Baseball League, including the president, J. C. Chesley, accompanied the body.

The floral offerings included the following: Wreaths, Mrs. McCutcheon's class of the Main St. Baptist Sunday school, Royals Baseball Club, Martello Baseball Club, Mr. and Mrs. Petty, employees of Vassie & Co. Ltd.; Beaver Baseball Club, Nationals Baseball Club, J. C. Chesley, St. John the Baptist Baseball Club, Pioneer class of the Victoria St. Baptist Sunday school, Water Department Baseball Club, C. E. and Edward (Tack) Dalton; sprays, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Brown, Miss Marion Myles, Claude Perry and Ralph Atkinson, Roy Beckett, Saint Johns Baseball Club, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Keith (Sussex), W. McKenzie, Roy Shanklin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes, Victoria St. Baptist Boy Scouts; spray, Vassie & Co. Ltd.; stars, South End Improvement League and staff of Canadian Oil Co.; pillow, family; crescents, Crescent Baseball Club and G'ners' class of German St. Baptist Sunday school; cross, St. Rose's Baseball team; and basket of pansies from Miss G. Fitzgerald; array, umpires of the South End Baseball League; spray, Phil Dakin and Vincent Matthews.

Real economy is not saving money at all; real economy is spending money wisely.—Mr. Wardlaw Milne, M.P.
