HUMAN TRAITS

Even dictators of nations' destinies are human. Tyrannical though their political acts may be they have human weaknesses, and human virtues. A man said: "If I falter, kill me. If they who falter kill me, avenge my fate." The man was Mussolini who is making Italy into the semblance of a nation, whatever may be thought of his methods by believers in democracy.

Mussolini has been called the man of iron, standing the torture of incurable illness that he may lay out the nation's

DRAGGING-DOWN PAINS RELIEVED

Woman Suffered Nearly a Year.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Brought Her Health

Moose Jaw, Sask. — "I am going to try to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered very badly with dragging-down pains and inflammation, also pains in my right side over my hip and down my whole side into my leg. I had it nearly a year when I went to a doctor and he said I would have to have an operation. But my mother said to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as it saved her life years before. I took two bottles and I found I was better. Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I have had two more children since then and am perfectly well. I used to have to lie down two or three times a day, and now I do all my housework without trouble. I always keep the Vegetable Compound in the house as I find a dose now and then helps me. I am willing for you to use this letter any way you see fit and I will answer letters. If I can help any other woman I'd be only too glad to try." — Mrs. ESTHER HOUGHTON, 712 Athabasca W., Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan.

policy. Yesterday his favorite daughter was reported seriously ill with diphtheria and the nation's affairs are deserted while those common ones of the parent and his offspring are placed in the van.

Publicity of the carefully supervised sort had pictured this blacksmith's son a sort of demi-god, super-man, unbelievably hard and harsh in his methods. A little girl, granddaughter of that blacksmith, betrothed to a prince of royal blood, lying desperately ill, in a few minutes has destroyed the illusion, giving a glimpse of the human side of the man.

CORNELIUS VANDERBILT, JR., AND FAMILY SPLIT

New York—Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., has definitely "split" with his family, he disclosed a few days ago.

Although his father disapproves a newspaper career for him, he hopes to resume his newspaper operations shortly through a new scheme for earning a living, he said, upon his return from Europe.

"Yes, I've split with my family," he told fellow reporters. "I split with them two years ago. My people promised me a lot of support for my newspaper, but they didn't come through with it."

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Butland went to Havelock yesterday. They were accompanied by Miss Nan Kingston.

The trustees will receive tenders this week for the erection of a new school house. Plans and specifications of the same can be seen at H. P.

Keirstead's, secretary of trustee board. H. P. Keirstead is spending this week at Snider Mountain, helping to care for his aged father, who continues very ill.

Dr. John, Mrs. Cleveland and three children, of Beverly, Mass., who were here during the month of July, left on the 31st ult. for their home. They were accompanied as far as St. George by Mrs. Mary Cleveland, who will spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Rev. T. B. Wetmore. Mrs. Wetmore expects to leave in about ten days for Calgary, where Rev. Mr. Wetmore has been since last May, in charge of a prominent Baptist church.

School Inspector P. A. Dixon was here last week and approved of the site chosen by the Trustees for the new school building. He was accompanied by Dr. T. A. Wilson, Montreal.

R. H. Maxwell and L. C. Vallis, commercial men, of Saint John, were here last week.

C. W. McLatchy, highway engineer, of Sussex, accompanied by Hon. Lewis Smith, Minister of Agriculture, were here last week for a few days, looking over the road repairing being done by the road supervisors.

Among the visitors here last week were C. C. Carr, G. M. Thorne, Sussex; Mr. and Mrs. G. Edgett, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Shearer, Miss Agnes Shearer, Moncton; H. R. Murphy, Amherst; L. C. McFarlane, Saint John; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McLean, New Glasgow.

It was late in the evening and he was tired of being accosted by the many street hawkers. The last straw came when a flower-seller stopped him with: "Snowdrops, sir?" "I always knew it did," he snapped and strode on.
