—All roads lead to the Imperial New Year's day for the special matinee of "The Ten Commandments." The Imperial is making a special admission price for the children, to encourage their parents to send them to the matinee instead of the evening show.

—Rev. Dr. Stevenson, minister of Presbyterian church, Moncton, will deliver a lecture in Trinity Church hall, under auspices of Presbyterian Church in Sussex, some time about the middle of January, further notice will be given next week.

—The dance to be held in the Pythian Castle Hall on Thursday night (New Year's Eve) promises to be of more than usual interest. Round and square dances will both be indulged in and music is to be furnished by the K. of P. orchestra. No doubt many will take advantage of this pleasing function to dance the old year out and the new year in.

—In the last issue of the Royal Gazette a notice appeared stating that the Wallace Manufacturing Co., Ltd., had been incorporated with head office at Sussex, and capital stock of $40,000. Those incorporated are Harry W. Wallace, Charles W. Upham, and Wm. W. Kelso, all of Sussex. The company is authorized to manufacture and deal in all products of wood, iron and other material.

—The annual meeting of the Sussex Military Rifle Association will be held in the Armoury at 7.30 p.m., on Jan. 5th, 1926. All members or prospective members are requested to attend. The officers for 1926 will be elected and the regular yearly business of the Association will be arranged and teams for the monthly competitions on the miniature rifle range in the armoury will be selected. G. S. Kinnear, Lt. Col., is president.

—On Saturday, December 19th, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ramsay, of Belleisle Creek, entertained the choir of the United Church. After a pleasant social evening interspersed with music and games, Rev. P. W. Sawdon, on behalf of the choir, presented Mrs. J. E. Howe, the accomplished organist and choir leader, a pyrex pie plate in silver mount, in appreciation of her faithful services in the services of the church.

—The Smith's Creek branch of the Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. W. J. King on Saturday, Jan. 2, 1926. —Frank Brooks, 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brooks, met with a painful accident while coasting on O'Connell Hill on Christmas Day. He was thrown from a double-runner and had his head badly cut and bruised. At first it was thought that his skull was fractured, but fortunately he escaped with some severe bruises.

—John McCann, aged 25 years, died at Sussex after a short illness on Dec. 16, after a serious operation. Deceased was a son of Mrs. Elizabeth Allmon of Mount Plagah. The funeral was held from the F. W. Wallace Funeral Parlors, Dec. 18, to Gosline Cemetery, and was largely attended. Interment was in the family lot. Rev. D. J. McPherson officiated.

—Mary Pickford in "Little Annie Rooney" certainly must have pleased all who saw this picture at the Imperial, as it breaks the record for its longest run of any picture shown in Sussex, being five nights, 31 shows, making 110,000 feet of film, which passed through the Imperial's machines on this one picture alone. The Imperial management predict big business on their New Year's attraction, "The Ten Commandments."

—Large quantities of turkeys were in evidence on Christmas Eve and practically all the dealers had birds left on hand for the New Year's table. Quite a few farmers who brought their turkeys to market on Christmas Eve took them back home with them again not being willing to part with their roosters for the price offered. A number of lots were disposed of at as low a figure as 35 cents a pound. Some farmers, who were offered 50 cents a pound the week before Christmas for their turkeys by local buyers, took them to the St. John market on Christmas Eve and were compelled to sell at 40 and 45 cents, the ruling price, when the slump came on Thursday.

WEEK OF PRAYER

The annual week of prayer will be observed in Sussex by the United Congregations of the Baptist, Chalmers and Methodist churches and Salvation Army, as follows:

Monday, Jan. 4, Chalmers church, subject, The Church and the Young People.

1925 Imperial Theatre Schedule Book

As you gaze upon the last page of our schedule book for the past year and see we are finishing with the great film production, "Little Annie Rooney," we wish that our patrons could only turn over the preceding pages and review the great attractions that have been enjoyed during the past year.

As we view the past year in retrospect, and anticipate the future bright with promise, we wish to express our gratitude to our many friends and patrons and wish them a New Year full of renewed efforts, added inspiration and worthy incentives.

We wish to thank you for your generous patronage during the past year and we hope to merit a continuance of the same during the coming year.

We do not intend to close our Schedule Book, but to continue presenting the same great line of attractions as you have enjoyed during the past year.

We wish to call your attention to the fact that we are starting the New Year by presenting the Mightiest Dramatic Spectacle of all the Ages—"THE TEN COMMANDMENTS." There is no term in the English language that has not been showered down upon this production.

We have lost financially on some of the great productions that we presented during the past year, but we are determined to stand by our slogan—"The Small Town Theatre—With All the Big City Attractions," as we have done in the past.

We wish you could turn to the following pages and see what wonderful attractions we have booked for the coming year: "The Lost World," "The Gold Rush," "The Limited Mail," "Bobbed Hair," "The Iron Horse," "Lightnin'," "Havoc," "The Fool," "East Lynne," and a great many others, to be played immediately.

"If all our good wishes
Would come true
The New Year would be
The happiest year for you."

EYES EXAMINED, GLASSES GIVEN

How many times in a day do people rub their eyes and say: "Gracious! I've had kind of a headache all day," and then proceed to take a dose of something. They never think their eyes have anything to do with it.

If you have headaches, pains in or around your eyes, soreness, top or back of the head, etc., our Proper Fitting Glasses relieve these troubles.

Glasses sold on easy payments if preferred.
