WEDDING BELLS

Armstrong-Northrup

The United Church parsonage, Belleisle, was the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding on the afternoon of Wednesday, Dec. 23, when F. W. Sawdon united in marriage James Fred Armstrong, of Belleisle, and Janet May Northrup, of Scotch Settlement. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. The young couple are well known in the community and best wishes follow them. They left on the evening train for St. John.

Welton-Clark

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Foster, Hatfield's Point, Kings county, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Thursday afternoon, December 24, at 5 o'clock, when their adopted daughter, Miss Flossie Clark, was united in marriage to Arthur Welton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welton, St. John. Rev. Saunders Young, of Norton, performed the ceremony in the presence of near relatives and friends. The bride was very prettily dressed in white. After the ceremony a bountiful wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Welton will reside at Hatfield's Point.

Willigar VanWart

A quiet wedding took place at the United Baptist parsonage Wednesday afternoon, December 23rd, at 5:30 o'clock, when Rev. Saunders Young united in marriage Miss Mary Etta VanWart, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley VanWart, of Belleisle, Kings county, and John Henry Willigar, also of Kars, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Willigar. The bride wore a pretty dress of tomato colored georgette. A reception was held at the bride's home at Kars on the arrival of the wedding party. Mr. and Mrs. Willigar will reside in Kars.

PASSED AWAY

Andrew Miller

Andrew Miller, aged 60 years, one of Sussex most highly respected citizens, passed away on Tuesday evening at his home, Main street, after a lingering illness.

The deceased was born in Saint Martins, being a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Cudlip Miller. He came to Sussex 35 years ago and since that time has been engaged in the meat and provision business.

"Andy," as he was familiarly called by his host of friends, had a very charitable heart and many a poor family had their lives brightened through his generosity in keeping them supplied with the necessities of life.

He was widely known by the farmers of Kings and adjoining counties and his death will be learned of by all with the deepest sorrow and regret.

The deceased was a splendid citizen and always took a deep interest in everything pertaining to the welfare of the town, and at one time represented Ward 2 as alderman at the Council Board.

He leaves to mourn his wife who prior to marriage was Miss Carrie Drummond, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Drummond; two sons, Andrew, better known as "Zan," one of Canada's noted athletes, and William, of the staff of the Roosevelt Bank, Philadelphia, U.S.A.; also two daughters, Mrs. Charles Sullivan, of Saint John, and Miss Kathleen, a student at Dalhousie University, Halifax, N. S.

He is also survived by his brother, William, and five sisters, Mrs. Samuel Carson, Miss Charlotte Miller, Miss Ida Miller, of Winnipeg; Mrs. Wm. Donahue and Miss Elizabeth Miller, Saint John, and one grand-child, Robert Drummond Sullivan, of Saint John.

The funeral will be held from his late residence on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at which Rev. Canon Shewen, assisted by Rev. A. V. Morash, will officiate.

Interment will be made in Kirk Hill cemetery.

Ellis Bell

On Monday morning, Dec. 27th, at 11 o'clock, Ellis Bell passed away, at his late residence, 42 Vernon St., Somerville, Mass., after an illness of a few days. Mr. Bell, who was 56 years of age, for the past 26 years has been a resident of Somerville, and his many friends regret to hear of his sudden death. He is survived by a widow and a large circle of relatives and friends, both in Somerville and in New Brunswick.

The funeral service was held at his late residence, 42 Vernon St., Somerville, on Dec. 9, by Rev. Geo. Nicholson, rector of the Emmanuel church, Somerville, of which Mr. Bell was a member. The body was taken east, arriving in Sussex, N. B., on Dec. 10. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon, from Wallace's Undertaking Parlors, service conducted by Rev. M. C. Shewen. Interment was made in the Sussex Corner cemetery.

The pall bearers were Harvey Bell, Leonard Bell, Richard Bell, Murray Carr, W. J. Patterson and Geo. Monroe. The floral tributes were: Pillow, wife; wreaths, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bell, employees of the John Morrell Co.; sprays, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Whitfield family, Misses Ida Best, Mrs. Bryce, Mabel Bell and Bessie Monroe.

Harry Louis O'Dell

After an illness extending over two years Harry Louis O'Dell passed away in St. John on Tuesday-afternoon. He was born in Sussex but had lived in St. John for the last 15 years. He was employed as a brakeman on the C.N. R. and was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen as well as a member of the New Brunswick Lodge of the Knights of Pythias and the Dokys. He served overseas as a member of the 2nd Division Ammunition Column. Mr. O'Dell had a wide circle of friends and was very highly regarded by his associates. He is survived by his widowed mother, Mrs. Lydia O'Dell; three brothers and eight sisters. The brothers are John, Sus-

Tuesday night, Dec. 28, Norton boys played in Sussex, Norton winning by a score of 5-0, but on Saturday last in a match between the same teams Sussex won by a score of 1-0.

John D. Weidemeier, who came into public notice recently at Chicago, through his arrest in St. Louis with the wife of a Chicago furrier, has been termed a professional husband, who has been married at least 48 times, in testimony in an annulment suit that was brought by one of his wives, Mrs. Esther Wester Brooks, convert violinist, who said she had married Weidemeier, in 1924, when he was using the name Arthur Brooks, told Judge Lewis on Saturday that she was the 48th or 49th wife, she wasn't sure which, and the judge indicated the annulment would be granted. If a case like this was brought before the Canadian Senate it would make our Senators "sit up and take notice."
