WEDDING BELLS

Thomas-Sargeant

Sydney Record: At St. Andrew's Manse, Bentinck St., on Tuesday, Sept. 14, Miss Bertha Sargeant, this city, and Rev. Norman Thomas, New-town, N. B., were married by Rev. A. D. Reid. Owing to a recent bereavement in the bride's family, the wedding was a very quiet one, and only a few immediate friends were present.

Crabbe-Cochran

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, on Sept. 14th, when Nellie G., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cochran, Bloomfield Station, was united in marriage to J. William Crabbe, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Crabbe, of the same place. Rev. H. Stanley Young performed the ceremony, in the presence of immediate relatives and friends. The bride entered the room on the arm of her father and was becomingly attired in French blue satin backed crepe gown, and carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart and Columbia roses with maidenhair fern.

Lohengrin's bridal chorus was played by Mrs. Percy E. Saunders. The house was prettily decorated with autumn leaves, asters and sweet peas. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served, and the happy couple left by automobile for a trip through the province. On their return they will reside at Bloomfield.

The groom's gift to the bride was a wrist watch. She received many other beautiful presents, including cut glass, china, silver and substantial checks.

Milton-Dunfield

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday, Sept. 8, when Beatrice Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Dunfield, of Cornhill, and Guy Alfred Milton, of Hill Grove, were united in marriage by Rev. Abram Perry, Pettit-codiac, in the presence of about fifty invited guests and relatives. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and potted plants. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served. The bride received many gifts, showing the esteem in which she was held in the community. The happy couple will reside at Hill Grove, where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

King-Sharp

A wedding of widespread interest took place in the United church at Lower Millstream, on Wednesday, Sept. 15, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when Miss Agnes Northrop Sharp, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Sharp, of Lower Millstream, was united in marriage to James Hayes King, of Moncton, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. King, of Smith's Creek, Kings Co. Rev. Henry Harrison performed the ceremony in the presence of about 50 guests and a large assemblage of interested friends.

The church was beautifully decorated, the vows being taken beneath an arch of golden glow and autumn foliage; woodland ferns were banked about the altar. The guests' pews were marked by white ribbons and sweet peas.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a French gown of navy georgette over jalapa crepe de chene, the georgette being brightened by a touch of silver. With the costume she wore a becoming black Victor hat, and carried Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. Little Miss Anna Isabel Sharp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sharp, and niece of the bride, was ring-bearer, and looked winsome in a fairy-like French dress of ruffled white marquisette with rosebud trimmings, wearing a quaint poke hat of tulle and roses.

Ralph J. Coy presided at the organ, playing Lohengrin's bridal chorus as the bride entered, and Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party retired from the church. Mr. F. Sharpe, brother of the bride, ushered.

A reception was held at the family residence immediately following the ceremony, when Mr. and Mrs. Sharpe and Mr. and Mrs. King received their many guests. A profusion of sweet peas, pink and asters, were the decorations in the house, while roses adorned the bride's table, which was centred with the wedding cake, beautifully decorated and surrounded by rose tulle. A buffet luncheon was served when the Misses Kate Coy, Hazel Long, Marion Wiley, Laura Jones, Greta Robinson and Hattie Titus served. Many beautiful gifts were bestowed on the young couple, evidencing their popularity.

Mr. and Mrs. King left by motor and will tour the New England States to New York, and return via Montreal. Mrs. King's going away costume was a navy faille cape dress with a muskrat trimmed sport coat and a jalapa velvet sport hat.

The bride is a graduate in Household Science of Guelph College, Ontario, and has taught for a short time in Hamilton, Ontario. The groom also took a college course at Guelph, Ont., and is a graduate of McDonald College, Que. He is manager of the Co-operative Dairy in Moncton, where they will reside.

The guests from outside points were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. King, of Smith's Creek, parents of the groom; Mrs. Jane Rimmel, of Canon City, Colorado, aunt of the bride; Mrs. A. F. Robinson, Saint John; Mr. and Mrs. W. K. C. Parlee, Moncton; Mr. and Mrs. Harry King, Dartmouth, N. S.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Kenneth King, Moncton; Miss Emma Parlee, Moncton; Miss Dorothy King, New York; Mrs. John King and George King, Smith's Creek; Mr. and Mrs. H. Parlee, Hampton; Miss Grace Northrup, St. John; Mr. and Mrs. Sherrard and Miss George Sherrard, of Moncton; Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Roach and Mr. Beverley Roach, Sussex; Mrs. Augusta Stockton, Miss McLaughlin and Mr. West, of Moncton.

After running three miles, a man jumped from the cliffs near Calais and was picked up two miles out at sea. This we believe is the first attempt to jump the Channel—Punch.

PASSED AWAY

Charles Herbert Pollock

A gloom was cast over the entire community on Sunday, Sept. 12, when it became known that Charles Herbert Pollock had passed away at his home in Mt. Pisgah, after an illness of a few months duration. Deceased, who was fifty-one years of age, was a much respected citizen and his early passing was much regretted by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn, his wife and one daughter Mabel, at home, and a number of relatives and friends. The funeral was held on Monday and was one of the largest in history. Interment was made in the Gosseline cemetery. Rev. Mr. Shewen conducted the service at the house. The hymns sung were Rock of Ages and Safe in the Arms of Jesus. At the grave the oration, of which order the deceased was a valued member, took charge and performed the last sad rites of the order. Mr. W. H. Venning sang in his usual pleasing manner, Sonnet We'll Understand. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved ones in their sorrow.

Joseph Long

The following is from an exchange from Leger, Manitoba, and will be of interest to many of our readers:

The town of Leger and community was shocked and saddened by the sudden death of Joseph Long, on Wednesday, July 22. Mr. Long was in his having field with his grandson, Murray Lewis, and hired help, working fast and hard to escape the coming shower. It was one of those fiery days He finished the load, climbed up on to the cart, walked to the head end, picked up the reins to drive to the barn, when he suddenly pitched forward and fell unconscious. His grandson rushed to his aid, but he passed right away in Murray's arms.

Mr. Long was 68 years, six months and 22 days old. He was born in Sussex, N. B., in 1858. In 1885 he married Mary Shannon of Sussex, to whom were born three children: William, John and Hannah Long. Through careful management and constant diligence, Mr. and Mrs. Long have accumulated a handsome property and built up a creditable dairy business. Mrs. Long and her grandson Murray Lewis, who had always lived with them, are left with the care of this estate, aided by James Lewis and wife who live nearby.

Mr. Long had sustained several severe injuries during the spring which impaired his health to a great extent, but he bravely rallied and resumed his work, even before he was able. He was a hard working and highly respected citizen and his death has made a great vacancy in the family and community which will be hard to fill.

Funeral services were held at the home on Sunday at 10 a.m., and were attended by a large concourse of people. The Free Masons and Eastern Star were in attendance and a Masonic service was held at the grave.

Mrs. Long's two sisters were present Mrs. Margaret Moody, of Malden, Mass.; and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boomer, of Cumberland Mills. A profusion of beautiful flowers decorated the casket and room of the mourners.

Mr. Long's survivors are his wife, Mrs. Mary Long, three children, William and John Long, and Mrs. Hannah Lewis, all of Leger, and ten grandchildren, also two brothers, William Long, of New Brunswick, and Wick-liffe Long, of Leger.

Mrs. Mary Ellison

At the age of 89 years, Mrs. Mary Ellison, widow of the late Wm. Ellison, passed away at her home, Lower Millstream, on Wednesday. She had been more or less an invalid for upwards of 20 years. There are two survivors, a daughter, Carrie, Mrs. Joshua McKnight, and a son, Robert Ellison, both of Lower Millstream.

Mrs. Ellison was a daughter of Moses and Mary Jones, of Loyalist descent, and was born at Greenwich on the main river. In girlhood she married Wm. Ellison, a member of a well known family in Kings Co., who resided at Lower Cove, some two miles from Apohaqui. Mr. Ellison died 27 years ago.

The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon, with service at the home, conducted by Rev. W. J. Hamilton. Interment was made at Midland.

"OBSERVER" PRAISES LORD WILLINGDON

London—The Observer devotes a column today to a glowing appreciation of Viscount Willingdon, Canada's new Governor-General.

After paying tribute to Lady Willingdon and Lord Willingdon's work in India during the great war in promoting British and Indian co-operation and goodwill, the paper concludes: "The Canadian people as Lord Reading remarked the other day, will find in their new Governor-General and his wife, what is best in the English character. They cannot fail to be attracted as the people of Bombay and Madras were attracted by the frankness and sincerity of the King's representative, his staunchness in friendship, his wide and liberal sympathies and his breadth of outlook."

"The tact and understanding required for the high duties which fall to Lord and Lady Willingdon in Canada, will not be wanting and they have the single-minded purpose to serve the Dominion with a devotion equal to that with which they served India through 11 eventful years."
