McQUINN-THOMPSON

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at seven o'clock on Wednesday evening, September 29th, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Thompson, when her eldest daughter, Nettie Edris was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to George Warren McQuinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. John K. McQuinn, of Knightville. The rooms were artistically decorated for the occasion with autumn leaves and cut flowers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. V. Morash, pastor of the Chalmers United Church in the presence of the near relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride looked very pretty in a gown of Pekin blue flat crepe. After the ceremony a dainty lunch was served. The happy couple left by car on a honeymoon trip through Nova Scotia amid showers of good wishes and confetti. The bride's going away costume was a fawn coat with fur trimmings and black and gold silk Roger hat.

PRESENTATION TO LOWER MILL-STREAM YOUNG LADY ON EVE OF DEPARTURE FOR ROXBURY, MASS.

It is with much regret that we are losing another young lady from our midst in the person of Miss Greta Robinson, who has been keeping house for her brother, Bert Robinson, for the past year.

An enjoyable evening was spent on Wednesday last, when about 40 of her friends gathered to wish her farewell. Mrs. F. I. Fenwick, on behalf of the company present, presented her with a sum of money as a parting gift, to which she suitably replied. The evening was spent in games and music, and lunch was served as the evening drew to a close.

Miss Robinson leaves on Wednesday for Roxbury, where she goes into training at the Hart hospital.

REGINALD DENNY

You've had many a grand and glorious giggle with Reginald Denny in "What Happened to Jones," "California Straight Ahead," "Skinners Dress Suit" and many others. But you haven't ever experienced anything merrier or more mirth-provoking than Denny in his latest Joyland creation "Rolling Home." This magical story of a modern young business genius with nothing heavier than a dime to start with is the sort of thing that makes you roll over in your seats with the very joy of living.

And if there's a single laugh left to be laughed after seeing Denny in this sparkling comedy—but there isn't because "Rolling Home" is one long laugh from beginning to end. It's laughing lightning on a fast pair of wheels. And you'll say so!

If automobiles were selling for a nickel a dozen, he couldn't buy a spark-plug but—WATERFALLS! Oh, man! You'll get a thousand golden laughs watching Denny and his waterfall!
