"ROLLING HOME" IMPERIAL TO-NIGHT

THURS., FRI., SAT. REGINALD DENNY, THE MILLION DOLLAR STAR IN A ROLLICKING ROLLS-ROYCE STORY JAM-PACKED WITH LAUGHS

"Rolling Home" does the difficult trick of surpassing Denny's other screamingly funny farces, "Skinner's Dress Suit," "What Happened to Jones," and others, if such a thing is possible.

With an excellent farce plot, situation is piled on situation with a speed that is dazzling and the laughs come more furiously as each new incident involves the hero in another embarrassing position.

The story, in brief, is that of a young man, virtually penniless, who returns to his home town, where the villagers believe him to be a millionaire, and tries to live up to his reputation as a capitalist.

By using a borrowed automobile, and bluffing his was through every situation which arises, he almost gets away with it, and when he is found out has promoted his interests so well that his deception is forgotten.

Denny was never better than in his portrayal of the young man of no affairs who comes back as the conquering hero. He is an inspired comedian, with a personality that makes friends instantly.

Marion Nixon, who plays the feminine lead opposite the star, seems too beautiful to be real in many of the shots, and displays a keen sense of comedy herself. Ben Hendricks, Jr., as the pal of the impoverished young adventurere, E. J. Ratcliffe as the thundering capitalist, Margaret Seddon, George Nicholls and other members of the large cast, contribute excellent performances.

Much credit for the highly entertaining picture should go to the director, William A. Seiter, who shows a veritable genius for the construction of laugh-provoking comedy scenes.

"Rolling Home" is a picturization of the stage farce of the same name by John Hunter Booth.

PRESENTATION TO A. N. McLEOD, B. A.

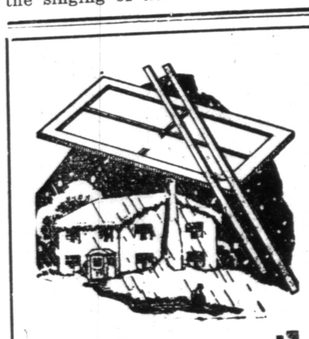

The members of the Presbyterian congregation held a pleasant social in the Memorial hall on Friday evening last. The evening was spent in games music and interesting contests directed by Mrs. C. B. Spear and Mrs. W. A. Jeffries. Instrumental music was rendered by Mrs. Robt. Smith harmonica, Mr. Irvine, saxophone, accompanied by Mrs. Irvine, pianist; vocal solos and duets from Scotch melodies were rendered by Mrs. Short, Miss Ida Moore and Mr. Jamsie Gray, and were very much appreciated.

At the close of the social Mr. McLeod, who leaves Sussex shortly for Princeton, New Jersey, was presented with a sum of money, on behalf of the congregation. The presentation was made by Mrs. W. R. Bustard. Mr. McLeod replied with thanks and grateful appreciation of the gift.

All joined heartily in singing For He's a Jolly Good Fellow. Following the presentation the ladies of the congregation served luncheon.

UPHAM AND SIMONDS BIBLE SOCIETY MEETING

The annual meeting of the Upham and Simonds branch of the Bible Society was held in the Reformed Presbyterian church at Barnesville on Tuesday, Sept. 21. The large building was filled to overflowing by members of the society, who listened attentively to the able addresses given by the speakers, who wtre introduced by F. B. Waters, president. The report was read by the secretary, F. W. Curry. The speakers included Rev. Mr. Gardner, of St. Mary's church; Rev. Hugh Miller, Silver Falls; Rev. Mr. Newton, Knox church; Rev. J. M. Murchison, district secretary; and Miss Jane Henderson, bible woman of Saint John. Prayer was offered by Rev. W. J. Bevis, of East Saint John. Rev. Mr. Elliott, of Hampton, also spoke briefly. The speakers were conveyed to the meeting by Mr. Stephenson, of Saint John, and Herbert Keys. Music was rendered by the choir and solos by Mrs. Herbert Keys and Mr. Murchison were much enjoyed. Refreshments were kindly served by the ladies of Barnesville. A vote of thanks to the speakers of the evening was moved by J. Leonard Steele, the treasurer. The meeting closed with the singing of the doxology.

REV. D. J. McPHERSON RESIGNS PASTORATE

UNITED BAPTIST PASTOR FOR SEVEN YEARS PREACHES FAREWELL SERMON—ACCEPTS CALL TO MARYSVILLE—REV. N. A. McNEIL, D.D., TO BE NEW PASTOR

On Sunday evening last, the Rev. D. J. McPherson preached his farewell sermon to the United Baptist congregation, whom he has faithfully served for the past seven years.

At the evening service on Sunday Sept. 19th, Mr. McPherson tendered his resignation with the urgent request that the church regard it as final, and with the hope that he be granted as early a release as possible in order that he might assume the pastorate of the newly organized United Baptist church at Marysville, N. B.

In dealing with the tendered resignation, the committee regretfully accepted the same and took occasion by resolution, to express their high appreciation of manner in which their pastor, through his untiring efforts and devotion to the high calling of his office, had endeared himself to a congregation whose numbers has been materially increased during his pastorate.

The resolution also referred to the splendid assistance of Mrs. McPherson in church, Sunday school and missionary work in which she had endeavored in every way to assist her husband, and concludes: "Seven plentious years of God's blessing and progress will remain as a lasting memorial to the work of our beloved pastor and his wife, as he goes from us to new fields of opportunity."

Rev. N. A. McNeil, D.D., of Marysville, will succeed Mr. McPherson, taking up his duties Sunday, Oct. 3.

Mr. MacNeil is one of the most outstanding Baptist pastors in the Maritime Provinces. He has filled many important pastorates in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick with great acceptance.

DEATH CALLS WIDOW OF DR. AUGUSTUS ROBINSON

The death of Mrs. Augustus Robinson took place on Thursday morning, Sept. 23rd, at her home in Annapolis Royal, N. S., after a long illness. It is supposed that the shock of her husband's death, which occurred just a week previous, was too great for her weakened condition and hastened the end. The late Mrs. Robinson, who was 82 years of age, was formerly Miss Sarah Kinnear, a native of New Brunswick, and the last surviving member of her family. Her only remaining brother, J. M. Kinnear, of Sussex, died in August, 1919. The members of the family now beroft of both parents are the Misses Grace and Helen Robinson, Annapolis Royal; Mrs. Wm. Hibbert, of Vancouver; and Rev. Rawlings A. Robinson, of Shelburne, N. S., who was with his mother at the time of her death. A granddaughter and two grandsons also survive.

LETTER OF INQUIRY

To the Editor of The Record:—

For the settlement of certain interesting, even though minor, points in the history of Kings County, I would like to ask whether any of your readers, versed in the traditions of the County, can throw any light on the following questions:

(1) Is the name Apahak older than the introduction of the name Apohaqui for the railway station in 1858, or is it merely a shortened form of the latter word? If older, to what was it originally applied—an Indian camp ground, the first white settlement at the mouth of Millstream, or what? Can any printed or manuscript use of the word prior to 1858 be cited?

(2). What is the real origin of the name hilamonro, or Filamaro? The records seem to show that it is not derived from an early resident Phil Munro, and it is certain that no place of that name exists in Ireland—both of the current explanations of its origin being thus without support.

(3). Can anyone give the old Indian names for Trout Creek, Smith Creek, or indeed any places in the vicinity of Sussex? The Indian names seem to be more completely unknown for this region than for any equal area in the Province. Both Apohaqui and Plumweseep are modern manufactured names, introduced with Indian aid by the Railway Commissioners in 1858, though Anagance and Nauwigewauk are genuine aboriginal Indian.

The information is desired for completion of a work on the Province, now in advanced preparation by one who is himself a native of New Brunswick.

The Record will be glad to receive the information asked for in the foregoing letter:

MEETING SMITH'S CREEK WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Smith's Creek branch of the Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. J. Arthur Campbell on Saturday, October 2nd, at 2.30 o'clock. Roll call "noted invention by a woman." Programme, why is autumn so beautiful? Compare it with the autumn of our lives, a paper by Mrs. Phipps. A five minutes talk by the different members, subject, the care of the friendly lamp. Suggestions on storing the winter vegetables by the members. Visitors welcome.

HAVELOCK UNITED BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY

The Havelock United Baptist church held their annual Sunday school rally on Sunday. At the morning service all the officers, teachers and scholars were present.

Rev. Mr. Bonney, pastor of the church, gave a very interesting and pleasing talk to the children, his subject being "Little Ships." The choir for morning and evening was from the Sunday school and the music was much enjoyed. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion.

JUDGE FOLKINS DIED TUESDAY

FOR MANY YEARS POLICE MAGISTRATE—AN ORIGINAL MEMBER OF THE I.O.F. HERE AS WELL AS AN ODDFELLOW—IN RELIGION A METHODIST

Word reached Mr. E. P. Vanwart on Tuesday afternoon, of the sudden death of Mr. Hiram W. Folkins, who had recently gone to Boston to visit relatives. Mrs. Vanwart was called to Boston on Tuesday of last week, when her father was taken suddenly ill, and she, with three of her brothers were with their father at the last.

Mr. Folkins was born at Millstream on Nov. 11, 1845, his father, Lewis Folkins, being a prominent farmer of that locality. His mother was, before her marriage, Miss Charlotte Sharp. Mr. Folkins remained at Millstream the greater part of his life before coming to Sussex, where for many years he has filled the office of police magistrate. He was an active member of the Methodist church and prominent in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the town. He was one of the first members of the I.O.F. when that society was organized here, and was also an Oddfellow.

Judge Folkins' wife predeceased him some four years ago. He is survived by four sons and two daughters. The sons are Odbur, of Groton, Mass.; Elbert, of Jamaica Plains, Mass.; Fred, of Lynn, Mass.; and Walter, of Toronto. The daughters are Mrs. Ford S. Smith, Fredericton, and Mrs. E. P. Vanwart, of Sussex. Three brothers, John, of Pleasant Ridge, Kings Co.; Frank, of Lynn, Mass.; and Warren, of Millstream, and one sister, Mrs. Howard Folkins, of Millstream, also survive.

The body will arrive on Thursday afternoon from Boston and the funeral will be held from his late residence, Queen Street, on Friday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

MONTHLY MEETING HAMPTON W. I.

The regular monthly meeting of the Hampton Women's Institute was held on Friday afternoon in the Consolidated school. In the absence of the president, Mrs. W. S. Morrison acted as chairman of the meeting. After the opening chorus of O Canada, the roll call was answered by hints for jelly making and many useful ones were interchanged.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $102 in the bank. The convenor of the school committee gave a report of the work done last month, among which was a treat of peanuts, which had been given to the children who attended the school garden during the holidays. There were 22 children. The committee had assisted in any way they could at the school fair and brought before the institute the desirbility of installing a bubbling drinking font in the lower hall of the school. No action was taken on this, but will be considered later. The committee took quick and active steps regarding the case of scarlet fever that broke out in the school and got in touch with the board of health and the trustees at once.

The committee on street lighting decided that it was necessary to have Mr. Weston address a public meeting, and a committee of firemen were appointed who were to be asked to take this matter in hand. Mr. J. W. Smith M.L.A. to be chairman.

Several matters of less importance were dealt with. A motion was passed that in the future the Poppy Funds would be used at the discretion of one member who would do this confidentially and not consult the executors as had been the custom in the past. It was considered by the members that to be really helpful in such cases as often come up, that the confidence of one member of the institute was all that was necessary.

It was regretted that Miss Beard and Mrs. Flewwelling, who were to give demonstrations, were not able to be present. A letter of sympathy was sent to Miss Beard in the loss they sustained from the fire they had at their home. last week.

Refreshments were served by Miss Minnie Travis. The meeting closed by the singing of the national anthem.

LOWER MILLSTREAM LADIES ARE HONORED

A number of young ladies of Lower Millstream, who are nurses in training, have recently returned to their studies. Miss Hattie Titus and Miss Stella Gibbon left last Wednesday to complete their course in the Chipman Memorial Hospital at St. Stephen. Both young ladies are within seven months of graduation.

Miss Greta Robinson is entering the Hart Private Hospital, Roxbury, Mass., and will leave early next week to take up the work.

All three of the young ladies have been tendered social events in their honor.

Miss Gibbon was the guest of honor at a surprise party given at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Benjamin Lester and Mr. Lester, with whom she makes her home. Miss Mildred McCutcheon, of Saint John, also a niece of Mrs. Lester, who had been spending a few days at Lower Millstream and a student at Acadia College, shared in the honors when a large number of young people of Lower Millstream and Berwick invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester, where a happy evening was spent in games and contests, followed by a bounteous supper.

Miss Titus and Miss Robinson were similarly feted at their homes on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings last.

The F. W. Wallace Funeral Service have recently purchased a handsome new motor and delivery hearse, manufactured by A. B. Grier, of London, Ontario.

This is an important addition to their service in that it will facilitate their reaching greater distances and enable them to give a more satisfactory and prompt service to the public generally.
