

SUSSEX DEFEATED

ROTHESAY 3 to 0

PENALTY GOAL PROVES WINNING COUNTER. — TERRITORY PLAY ABOUT EVEN—GAME EVENLY CONTESTED UNTIL CLOSING MOMENTS.

On Saturday afternoon at Rothesay, Sussex High School defeated Rothesay Consolidated by a score of 3 to 0. No score was made until three minutes before the end of the game, when Harcourt tackled Campbell high and Sussex was given a penalty kick and Fairweather put the ball over the bar and gave Sussex the victory.

Territorial play was about even and only for the work of McNichol, of Rothesay, and Bolton, of Sussex, the score might have been different. After the game a banquet was held in the domestic science department of the school and after a fine supper prepared by the girls, speeches were given by members of both teams.

The only misfortune which happened was the losing of the Sussex football out of one of the cars between Norton and Apohaqui, and it is hoped that if found will be returned to the Sussex High School. The line-ups are as follows:

Rothsay	Sussex
Anderson	Fullbacks
Dobbin	Halves
McCarthy	Freeze
G. Smith	Vickers
Crosby	Campbell
McNichol	Quarters
Arthur Green	Prescott
Petherston	Wilson
Arrowsmith	Fairweather
Ross	Forwards
Hoy	Titus
Dunlop	Erh
Harcourt	Prosser
Andrew Green	Nice
D. Smith	Kelso
Referee	J. P. Atherton.

SUSSEX CHEESE & BUTTER CO. SHOW MARKED INCREASE IN OUTPUT

A meeting of directors of the Sussex Cheese & Butter Company was held last week when the contract for enlarging the ice cream building and the storing of ice were awarded—one to Walter Lutz and the other to Roy Stockton, their being the lowest of a large number of tenders.

The greatly increased output of ice cream this year necessitated the enlarging of this building which when completed will be the most up-to-date plant in New Brunswick.

The butter department of this concern has grown by leaps and bounds. For the present year the make will amount to a half million pounds, which is some 70,000 pounds in excess of last year. This decided increase speaks volumes for the management of this enterprising establishment whose reputation now extends over the Maritime Provinces as well as Newfoundland and the West Indies.

The consistent yearly progress in volume of output since the inception of the company is a notable feature and with an increased activity in general business conditions in the Maritimes it is difficult to imagine to what height their output will reach.

PENOBSCUIS WOMEN'S INSTITUTE HOLD REGULAR MEETING

Oct. 11—The Penobscuis Women's Institute held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Duncan McLeod on Tuesday evening. In the absence of the president the vice-president, Mrs. L. J. Murray presided. Meeting opened with "O Canada." Roll call was responded to by a "use for old newspapers." Eleven members were present, also one visitor. Minutes and correspondence pertaining to Institute work was read and duly discussed. Committees were appointed for purchasing material and stamping bed spreads; also a committee for programme for next meeting. Decided to meet in the afternoon for the next meeting, quilting a quilt in the afternoon and having a regular meeting in the evening. Mrs. Herbert Lissin invited the Institute to her home for that meeting. Closed with the National Anthem. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Bruce McLeod, Mrs. C. L. Robinson, Mrs. H. A. Wallace and Mrs. Duncan McLeod.

10 COMMANDMENTS

FOR THE HUNTER

DO YOUR PART IN KEEPING DOWN THE LIST OF ACCIDENTS THIS FALL AND DON'T SHOOT TILL YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE SHOOTING AT.

Recently in the vicinity of Sussex a fatality was averted only by the quickness of two hunters in taking cover when they had been fired on by two careless men who evidently thought it was alright to fire at a moving bush. Each fall when the hunting season starts, we read in every paper of some accidental shooting—someone is careless, and the result is that someone else gets wounded, and perhaps killed. Many of the boys of Kings County will be out hunting this fall, and the ten rules for safety with a gun, given below, will prevent almost every accident if they are obeyed. You should always remember that even your small 22 rifle may easily inflict a serious, and even a fatal wound. Don't ever think that your 22 rifle is a toy, because it certainly is not. These rules apply to a 22 or 32 calibre rifle as well as to a larger size—obey them, and do your part in keeping down the list of accidental shootings this season.

- (1) Don't leave a loaded rifle lying around anywhere.
- (2) Don't point your gun at anyone "for fun."
- (3) Don't forget what happened to the chap who "didn't think it was loaded."
- (4) Don't try to "shoot out" a plugged barrel.
- (5) Don't THINK it is the kind of game you're looking for—BE SURE.
- (6) Don't fire a rifle where the bullets will "glance" and endanger life and property.
- (7) Don't climb over fences or into boats with a loaded gun unless the safety catch is on, or the gun is not cocked.
- (8) Don't forget that a gun is made to kill.
- (9) Don't be a "foot with a gun."
- (10) NEVER take a chance.

"THE COMBAT" AT THE IMPERIAL

TO-NIGHT (THURS.) FRI., SATURDAY.—FOUR DRAWINGS TO TAKE PLACE SAT. NIGHT AT 9 O'CLOCK—MATINEE SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

"The Combat" is the greatest of all House Peters' pictures. Bigger than "The Storm." More thrilling than "The Tornado." A picture all women will love!

A surging melodrama of the big woods rising to a terrific climax in the biggest forest fire ever screened!

Blaze Burke, a rowdy lumberjack, is promised the job of foreman of a big lumber camp if he will clean out a band of poachers, which he does by the might of his arm; but he is double-crossed by one Symmons who takes the job over his head. Burke rescues Symmons' girl from danger and takes her to a lonely cabin, ostensibly to protect her but in reality to avenge himself on Symmons by taking his woman away from him. "Red" McLaughlin, a thug who has coveted eyes on the girl, follows and shoots Burke, inflicting a slight wound. "Red" is killed in the encounter. Pitying Burke whom she nevertheless despises, Ruth nurses him. Confronted by the flames to save the girl while Symmons flees from her to save himself. Carrying her to safety, Burke returns to Symmons out of love for Ruth, but she has had revealed to her the duplicity and cowardice of Symmons who dies in the fire. Her one prayer is answered when Burke returns and takes her in his arms.

Four Drawings to Take Place Saturday Night

If you are lucky, don't fail to be at the Imperial Saturday night at 9 o'clock. Why? Because the final drawing for the Kings County Fair steamer trunk will take place; the Hydro Shop will announce the winner of the beautiful table lamp they are giving away; and last but not least, somebody will win the $10.00 in gold and the book of tickets the Imperial is giving away. Will you be there to see these valuable prizes presented?

FRANCES SPOURL HOSPITAL HARVEST WEEK

A harvest week for the Frances Sproul Hospital will be held from Oct. 18th to 23rd, inclusive, when donations of vegetables, fruits, jams, jellies, pickles and linens, or anything useful in a hospital will be gratefully received. The hospital has been a great benefit to the people of Sussex and surrounding places, and the public are loud in their praise of Miss Warren for the efforts she has made to make a success of it. Now let one and all do their bit and show they appreciate Miss Warren's good work.

MY FORD

The Ford is my chariot,
It shall not want;
It maketh me to lie down in wet places;
It destroyeth my soul.
It leadeth me into the deep waters.
It leadeth me into the paths of ridicule for its name's sake.
It prepareth a breakdown for me in the presence of my enemies.
I will fear more evil when it is with me.
Its rods and its shafts discomfort me.
It annoineth my face with oil.
Its water boileth over.
Surely to goodness, if I diggie follow me all the days of my life, I shall dwell in the house of the Nuts forever.

THE FORD IS MY CHARIOT,
IT SHALL NOT WANT;
IT MAKETH ME TO LIE DOWN IN WET PLACES;
IT DESTROYETH MY SOUL.
IT LEADETH ME INTO THE DEEP WATERS.
IT LEADETH ME INTO THE PATHS OF RIDICULE FOR ITS NAME'S SAKE.
IT PREPARETH A BREAKDOWN FOR ME IN THE PRESENCE OF MY ENEMIES.
I WILL FEAR MORE EVIL WHEN IT IS WITH ME.
ITS RODS AND ITS SHAFTS DISCOMFORT ME.
IT ANNOINETH MY FACE WITH OIL.
ITS WATER BOILETH OVER.
SURELY TO GOODNESS, IF I DIGGIE FOLLOW ME ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE, I SHALL DWELL IN THE HOUSE OF THE NUTS FOREVER.

PARTRIDGES THREATENED WITH EXTERMINATION

DO YOU WANT TO SEE THEM WIPE OUT? IT WILL BE A REAL LOSS TO NEW BRUNSWICK IF THEY ARE DESTROYED OBSERVE THE LAW.

In order to save the partridge the government has declared there will be no open season this year. This will not save them unless public opinion supports the law. You are public opinion.

Do not buy these birds.
Do not eat them.
Do not shoot them.
Do not sell them.
Discourage others from violating the law.

Be good to your country. Help save this great asset. The wild pigeon, the caribou, the sturgeon have gone. We can never bring them back. Let us keep what remains. It's up to you. The Law reads: "Everyone is guilty of an offence and liable to the penalty hereinafter provided who hunts, shoots, wounds, kills, or destroys any partridge at any time or season," etc. The issue is clearly defined: Observance of the law or extermination of a bird that can never be replaced.

The spirit of this most essential law is being taken up by local shooting clubs and other sportsmen's organizations. If the many individuals outside these clubs will pledge themselves as the club members have, we shall soon be able to enjoy our favorite sport as well as a delicacy on our tables.

The Owl Shooting Club of Sussex set a good example when at a recent meeting they pledged themselves to uphold the game law in every detail and particularly were they determined to not only refrain from any infringement of the law among themselves but to bring to justice any offence which might come to their knowledge.

ANOTHER PARTRIDGE FOUND AT DOOR

Saint John seems to have been adopted by the partridge of that vicinity as a haven of refuge and seem to be under the impression that there they have nothing to fear from humans. Monday morning when Mrs. J. V. McLellan opened the door of her home, 10, Paddock street, she found a fine plump partridge facing her. Some time later it was still there. Earlier this week a partridge was found at the door of No. 4 Engine House.

LOWER MILLSTREAM SCHOOL WINS PRIZE

The Lower Millstream school has been awarded the first prize for the semi-rural schools, Kings County, given by the Stathcona Trust for physical training. The Lower Millstream school's creditable showing is due to the efficient training given by Ralph J. Coy, who is principal of the school, and they encountered keen competition among the other schools of that class where physical training had shown a high standing of proficiency.

HARVEST THANKSGIVINGS

On Sunday evening, Oct. 3rd, the harvest festival service was held at St. Peter's Church, Upham. There was a congregation of eighty-six present, and the church was beautifully decorated with fruit, vegetables, flowers and coloured sprays of maple.

On Sunday afternoon and evening, October 10th, harvest thanksgiving services were also held at St. Barnabas church, Barnesville, and in the hall at Saltsprings. Both of these buildings were beautifully decorated with fruit and flowers, etc., and good congregations were present. The preacher at all the services was the Rev. E. C. Budd, priest-in-charge, and the usual harvest hymns were rendered by the choirs.

On Sunday, Oct. 17, similar services will be held (D.V.) in the Hammond part of this mission, namely in the old Church of St. Paul's, Londonderry, in the hall at Hammond Vale, and the Rev. E. C. Budd will be the preacher.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MR. HARRY N. JONAH

The appointment of Mr. Harry N. Jonah to the position of Police and Stipendiary Magistrate for the Town of Sussex with civil jurisdiction, to succeed the late Hiram W. Folkins, has just been made.

MR. AND MRS. JASPER VAUGHAN GIVEN RECEPTION AT NAUWIGEAUK

About sixty-five friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Vaughan assembled at their home, Nauwigewauk, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 28, and tendered them a surprise party and shower in honor of their recent marriage. Music and dancing were enjoyed and during the evening many beautiful gifts of silver, linen, glass, aluminum, etc., were presented to the young couple by Miss Regina McCullaugh and Mr. Aubrey Vaughan on behalf of those present. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan expressed their thanks. Dainty refreshments were served by the ladies.
