—Chief Daly has requested the Record to issue a note of warning to our citizens and ask them, on account of the snow blockade, to use the utmost caution along lines that will prevent fires. Watch for defective stove pipes, see that hot ashes are not deposited where they are liable to cause trouble, and in every way possible keep "Safety First" in mind.

—The members of Admiral Nelson L.O.L. No. 124 propose holding a social on Friday evening of this week in the Orange Hall, Park St. Each member is allowed the privilege of inviting a guest. An oyster stew will be served among other eats, and each member is requested to bring a bowl and spoon and if accompanied by a guest, to make it two bowls, and two spoons.

—The second and last fancy dress carnival of the season will be held at the Royal Arena on Wednesday evening the 24th inst. The last carnival night was very stormy and many who intended skating in costume were prevented from being present on account of the inclement state of the weather. The usual prizes will be awarded and the rink hand will render a special programme.

—Wednesday evening of next week will be Firemen's Hockey Night at the Royal Arena. A team from the Moncton Fire Department will meet the Sussex Fire Department puck chasers in the first of a series of home and home games. On the Moncton squad will be several old time hockey experts, former members of the old Victorias, such as Ingram, the late Buzz McLeod, and the Sussex team will have on its line up the Radcliffe brothers, Walter Friars and Percy Smiley in the net. The rink band will be present and there will be five bands for public skating after the game. The proceeds will go to the Fire Department fund.

—Notwithstanding the inclement state of the weather the concert in the Salvation Army Hall on Thursday evening last was well attended, and those who braved the weather were well repaid for the programme carried out was a most enjoyable one. Vocal solos were rendered by Harry Wallace and Gretchen Mills. Readings by Everett Lounsbury, Lee Thorne and Mrs. Thorne; euphonium solo, Capt. Powell. Bandmaster Charles Atherton, besides furnishing some "trick" music from a tomato can and a bicycle pump, played some splendid selections on bells, and also bass horn. An orchestra of six pieces furnished several nice selections during the evening.

—This (Thursday) evening, the 11th inst., a debate is to be carried on in the Pythian Castle, Pitt Street, under the auspices of Sussex Lodge Knights of Pythias, when a team from the St. John Pythian Lodge, will meet in debate a team from Moncton Lodge. The subject up for discussion will be, Public Ownership vs. Private Ownership of the general utilities, such as water-power, street railway, etc. The judges will be His Honor W. B. Jonah, Hon. J. A. Murray and W. J. Jardine, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia. The chair will be taken at eight o'clock. This debate, which will without question, prove most interesting and instructive, is open to the public, and the Sussex Knights of Pythias extend a most cordial invitation to the public to attend. Everybody welcome.

Bear in mind, it is tonight (Thursday).

—The heavy snow storms of the past week piled the town streets and sidewalks full of snow to such an extent that it made traffic in some sections for the time being very difficult. It took the snow plough man two days to get the sidewalks cleaned, but he made a good job of it. In the outside districts gangs of men worked several days breaking the roads, which now are all practically open again for traffic. The lumbermen are finding it difficult to carry on operations.

—At a meeting of the St. John School Board held on Monday evening the resignation of Dr. H. S. Bridges, superintendent of St. John schools, was regrettably accepted and a retiring allowance of $2,500 per annum was granted. S. A. Worrell, a former popular principal of the Sussex schools, who for about two years has been acting superintendent in St. John was appointed superintendent with a salary of $3,600. The meeting unanimously voted that Dr. Bridges be made superintendent emeritus.

—An Apohaqui correspondent writes that lumber operations are practically tied up owing to the abundance of snow. The hauling roads have been plowed out several times only to be filled in by the drifting winds. Robert Stewart, of Coles Island, has fifteen teams engaged to haul from his lumber lands on Kierstead Mountain, but they have been greatly retarded by the depth of snow. J. E. McAuley, who is lumbering extensively, has a large crew of men and teams engaged in the work at Darling's Hollow, but has been obliged to defer his lumbering activities and send the teams breaking roads.

—Negotiations for a lumber deal involving a large amount of money, which has been going on for some time, it is said has resulted in a 60 Nulty interests in Bangor, taking a 60 day option on Prescott Lumber property at Goose Creek. No cutting operations have been carried on there for the last seven or eight years, although previous to that, it was the scene of great lumbering activity and many workmen from both St. John and Kings counties found employment there year after year. The tract is situated in St. John County, between the Hollingsworth-Whitney property, which formerly belonged to C. T. White & Co., and the holdings of the Pejepscot Paper Co. It is located on Goose Creek, where a large mill is still in existence, and some of the holding extends along the St. Martins Head stream. The area was formerly owned by the late Joshua Prescott, and it is now invested in his sons, Messrs. Jessie, Joshua and Crandall Prescott.
