DEATH OF SUSSEX MAN IN SPOKANE, WASHINGTON TERRITORY —EDWARD COTTER DIES OF PNEUMONIA

A telegram was received on Wednesday, announcing the sad news that Edward Cotter, of Spokane, Washington Territory, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cotter, Sussex Corner, had passed away, quite suddenly, having succumbed to an attack of pneumonia. The deceased, who left Sussex some three years ago, was a valued employee of a leading lumber firm in Spokane, and was highly esteemed by his employers and associates. The news of his sudden passing came as a great shock to his relatives, as in a letter from him, to his parents received a week ago, he wrote that he was in fine health and spirits.

He leaves to mourn his father and mother, four brothers, Patrick, of Boston, John, New York, and Walter and Bernard, at home, and one sister, Mrs. Edward Paquette, North Bay, Ont.

The body will be brought home for burial, and on its arrival notice of the funeral arrangements will be made.

MARRIED MEN WITH FAMILIES, WON A FAST HOCKEY GAME

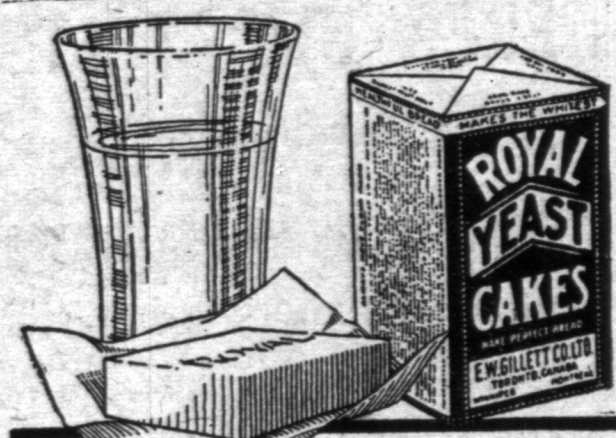

On Thursday evening of last week there was some hockey played at the Royal Arena, when a team known as the "Producers," composed of men with families, crossed sticks with a fast sextette, known as the "Non-Producers," men minus of children in their family. After a battle royal, in which there was very much tumbling in evidence, the Producers emerged victorious with the score of 4-3.

In the first period E. H. Vickers and Everett Robinson were injured and had to retire from the game.

The lineups were:
"Producers"—Goal, H. I. Evans; defence, S. P. Friars, E. H. Vickers; forwards, W. Pearce, H. D. Cameron, Everett Robinson; subs, Dr. Daly, Frank Lewis.

"Non-producers."—Goal, Geo. Coggon; defence, Clark Elliott, A. Scott; forwards, C. Bonnell, Harry Warren, Gordon Kierstead.
Percy Radcliffe refereed.

"STEELE OF THE ROYAL MOUNTED"

IMPERIAL (TONIGHT) THUR., FRI,
SAT.—ALSO LARRY SEMON IN
"SCHOOL DAYS"—MATINEE SAT-URDAY

"Steele of the Royal Mounted," by James Oliver Curwood, is a vigorous, swift moving story of the great North country, told in a style such as only James Oliver Curwood can relate the events of this soul-stirring immensity where deeds of valor and chivalry are daily occurrences. The plot centres around Philip Steele, a millionaire, who wears the sham and polish of the city, forsakes civilization and at the same time, braves frozen trails and forest dangers to "bring in" his man. There is a girl—a moment's hesitation between love and duty—a mystery—suspense and then before the spectator is aware the picture draws to a successful close. Thrill follows thrill, interspersed with bits of humor, touches of human interest or picturesque scenic backgrounds that give the scent of the big pines, the clear, invigorating air of the high altitudes and the tingle to the blood that comes only in the far North. A picture in which Bert Lytell, Stuart Holmes, Charlotte Merriam, and Mabel Jullienne Scott find new material to weave into their laurel wreaths.

In addition to the above feature Larry Semon will be seen in "School Days." There will be a matinee Saturday afternoon, starting at three o'clock, and the admission will be a dime only.

SUSSEX HIGH WINS FROM HAMPTON

The Sussex High School hockey team chalked up their fifth successive win in the school league, by beating Hampton at Hampton on Wednesday, Feb. 3rd. The game was a good exhibition and the final score stood 3-0. McDonald and Kennedy scored in the first period, and in the second Prescott scored on a pass from behind the net by McDonald. The third period was scoreless.

The Hampton team played much better hockey than when these two teams met at Sussex two weeks ago, and the other teams in the league may expect trouble from them. P. Lewis refereed.

The lineups were:
Sussex Goal Hampton
Wilson Defence Melick
Freeze Defence Reid
G. Bolton Centre Melick
McDonald Wings Crawford
Kennedy Wings Keirstead
Prescott Centre McMullin
Subs.
Odell Centre Ross
D. Bolton Centre Kelso

At Norton the local boys kept pace with Sussex by defeating Rothesay Collegiate 8-4, in a game postponed from the previous day.

RENFREW MACHINERY CO. CONVENTION

MANAGER E. H. VICKERS AN-NOUNCES AN INCREASE IN
BUSINESS OF 28% LAST YEAR—
DO BUSINESS IN 37 FOREIGN COUNTRIES

Mr. H. A. Jordan, managing director of the Renfrew Machinery Company, Limited, Renfrew, Ontario, visited their branch at Sussex over the week end to meet Mr. E. H. Vickers, manager for the Maritime Provinces, and the travelling staff of the Renfrew Company in the Maritime Provinces.

In conversation with Mr. Jordan, we learn that he has great hopes for the Maritime Provinces in the future in their business and that the increase in 1925 of twenty eight per cent over 1924 business, he thinks will be duplicated again in 1926.

The travelling staff in the Maritime Provinces, A. J. S. Raworth, of Melrose, in charge of the Annapolis Valley and South Shore of Nova Scotia; R. P. Heather, of Oxford, Nova Scotia, in charge of the territory from Oxford to Sydney, as well as Colchester Co., Nova Scotia; M. S. Eaton, of Moncton, in charge of Cumberland County of Nova Scotia, and the North Shore territory, Albert and part of Queens Co.; F. L. Dickinson, of Harland, New Brunswick, in charge of Western New Brunswick; and L. E. McAuley, of O'Leary, Prince Edward Island, in charge of Prince Edward Island, all were in Sussex to meet Mr. Jordan, and every one of these men seem to be optimistic about business on their territory in 1926.

Mr. E. H. Vickers, manager of this Company's business in the Maritime Provinces, has explained to us that their business showed an increase of twenty eight per cent last year, and that this increase was practically all that over in the last four months of 1925, after the farmers were sure of a good crop they started in buying, which proves again that Maritime farmers are reasonably good buyers if conditions warrant it.

Thirty seven foreign countries are getting Renfrew made goods. This Canadian industry is going ahead in leaps and bounds and the export trade is exceptionally good as explained by Mr. Jordan. Just before leaving for Sussex he received a cable for an initial order of one thousand cream separators for Russia, and only a few days before that received the first order for the year from Scotland of five hundred machines.

While this machine is made in Canada it is now being sold in large numbers in the United States. In fact, the Company have an office at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and through that office have six salesmen covering the jobbers of the United States, and last year showed almost a sixty per cent increase in the United States business.

Mr. Jordan also tells us that their Ontario business last year increased about forty per cent and he shows figures which prove that even 1919, the year when Agricultural Implement

SUSSEX EVENS UP WITH ST. JOHN

LOST IN ST. JOHN ON FRIDAY BY
SCORE OF 7-2 AND WON AT SUS-
SEX TUESDAY 1-0. TIE FOR SEC-
OND PLACE IN LEAGUE SERIES

St. John 7—Sussex 2
On Friday night last at the Arena, St. John, in a game that was started after 11 o'clock and was not finished until long after the midnight hour, the Comets of that city defeated the Sussex Colts by the score of 7-2. The game was advertised to start at 9.15, but the train which took the Colts to the city, was delayed on account of the severe snow storm and did not reach its destination until after 10 o'clock.

Notwithstanding the lateness of the hour the 800 fans present remained until the finish of the game.

The Colts were without the service of Roach, who was injured in the game with Moncton, and his place was taken by Earl Wilson, goalie of the High School team, who turned in a good performance. The Sussex team was weary after the tedious trip, and was not in good form for fast hockey.

St. John scored two goals in the first period and five in the second, and Sussex one in the second and another in the third.

"Buzz" McLeod, of Moncton, refereed and had the game well in hand at all stages. The game ended with the score St. John 7, Sussex 2.

Sussex 1—St. John 0

The Colts took sweet revenge on the Comets in the game played at the Royal Arena, Sussex, on Tuesday evening, when they used the whitewash brush and handed out a goose egg to the visitors, in the most sensational hockey contest of the season. It was a stirring game, and one that put the big crowd present on edge throughout.

In the first period Percy Radcliffe met with a serious accident that put him out of the balance of the game. He was struck in the face by one of Brad Gilbert's skates, in a mixup in which Brad fell, and received a severe cut under the right eye, that required five stitches to close. Percy was anxious to go back on the ice after receiving medical aid, but his physician would not allow him to do so. His place was taken by his young brother Melbourne who turned in a good game.

In the second period James Gilbert and Harold Radcliffe lost their tempers and exchanged blows with fists, and as a consequence were ordered by Referee Lester Lowther, to serve a short term in the sinners' pew.

The game from start to finish furnished great entertainment to the fans who were out in force, and they were kept on their toes most of the time. At one time in the third period the Colts had only three men on the ice, and St. John five, but the Comets failed to score.

The game was clean, with the exception of both teams indulging in too much tripping, for which quite a number of penalties were handed out.

The play was replete with good combination, pretty individual rushes, and nice stick handling, and every man on both teams played star hockey. It was a great game and a most fitting wind-up of the league series.

The one and deciding score of the game was made in the second period, after 14½ minutes play, when Earl Frier on a pass from Harold Radcliffe, banged the rubber behind McPhee.

This game makes a tie for second place between St. John and Sussex in the Southern Section of the N. B. and P. E. I. League. Sussex had the edge very much on the territorial play, in the second stanza the puck being kept for eight minutes in close vicinity to the St. John net artist.

Both goalies put up a great game, making many wonderful stops.

The lineups:

Sussex Goal St. John
Roach Defence McPhee
P. Radcliffe Defence B. Gilbert
J. Friars Defence Mountain
Forwards
E. Frier Lane
H. Radcliffe Boudreau
Brooks J. Gilbert
Lutz Thompson
M. Radcliffe Rathburn
Referee, L. Lowther.

Manufacturers were manufacturing the limit to keep up with the demand and that his company thought they had made a record year, and this was beaten by 1925.

Mr. Jordan and Mr. Vickers both feel that the prospects for 1926 business are very much better than they have been for the last six years, and the latter claims that the feeling in the Maritime Provinces is decidedly more optimistic than for the last six years.

Mr. Vickers has been connected with this concern since its inception and spent the last twelve years in the Maritime Provinces, and while Mr. Jordan was prepared to move him to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and give him charge of the United States business, he has decided not to leave Sussex.
