

Local News

—The Pythian Sisters will have a chicken supper in the Pythian Castle on Pitt Street on Friday, October 29th.

—The Ladies Aid of Berwick United Church will hold a supper in the Mt. Middleton hall on Tuesday, Oct. 26th.

—The ladies of Chalmers Church intend holding a chicken dinner on Friday evening, Nov. 5th, from 5 to 7 o'clock.

—Trinity Guild will meet this (Thursday) evening in the hall, being entertained by Mrs. Thomas Proctor and Mrs. Beverly Proctor.

—The Blueberry season which closed some two weeks ago, has netted the pickers in the vicinity of Penobscus and Anagance the handsome sum of $16,000.

—The Kennebecasis Valley Women's Institute will meet with Mrs. Charles Turner on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 28, at 3 o'clock. Roll call, Name of Composer of Music.

—A perfect specimen of yellow-eye daisy was brought to the Record Office on Monday by George Perkins, who picked the flower on his father's farm at Drury Cove on October 17th.

—On Sunday last, Rev. Canon Shewan and Rev. G. F. Cowley, of St. Martin's, exchanged services. In the evening at Trinity church, the Rev. Cowley preached very acceptably. Rev. and Mrs. Cowley are leaving today (Thursday) for St. Martin's.

—Bennet Hourihan, while at work for Murray Wallace at Martin Head, had the misfortune to cut his foot quite badly with an axe. Mr. Hourihan was obliged to come to Sussex for treatment and it will be some days before he can return to work.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, of Ward's Creek, are undergoing the siege of scarlet fever, the home being placed under quarantine on Sunday last. One of the boys, George, was the most seriously affected on that day, and in all probability other cases will develop.

—Dr. Kirkpatrick, who had for some months been associated with Dr. McAllister here, has opened an office in Stanley, York Co., where he will practice his profession. The doctor writes that the prospects for a good practice are bright but that Sussex still holds many attractions for him.

—Mr. W. B. McDonald, who has recently been employed in Boston, has left for Niagara, where he has accepted a position with the Ontario Power Commission, under Mr. Gordon Cribbs, who was formerly connected with the N. B. Power Commission. Mrs. McDonald will spend a month in Sussex, before joining her husband.

—A visit to the Record Office will well repay those who wish to secure new and attractive cards for the Christmas season. This principle of remembrance promises to be more popular than ever this year and the various samples from which to choose, will satisfy the most exacting tastes. Do not delay in making your selection.

—Miss Ida Friars, who is a telephone operator at Westfield, had a narrow escape from injury during the recent electrical storm. A heavy bolt burned out all the fuses in the exchange while Miss Friars was at the switchboard with her head set on. The only thing that saved her from a severe shock was the fact that no keys were down at the moment.

—Word was received by Mrs. Walter Lutz on Wednesday of the safe arrival in Los Angeles, California, of her son, W. Raymond, and Mr. Chas. T. Perry. It will be remembered that these young men left here by auto on Oct. 2. Having made the trip in seventeen days would indicate that any difficulties met with were quickly overcome. Friends here will be glad to know of their having completed this long trip without serious mishap.

—Mr. Medley Reid is operating this winter at Upham and expects to cut about two million of lumber. The cut will be sawed at Upham and shipped by rail. Mr. Colpitts Kaye has the contract for sawing and will start about Nov. 1st, when shipments will immediately begin through the George McKean Co. of Saint John, to the American market. Mr. Reid is at present employing thirty men and the property being operated was acquired from the firm of Randolph & Baker, and contains about 800 acres.

—Mr. F. A. Schofield is making great improvements in the property on Main Street, opposite the Athletic grounds, recently acquired by him. Having built a bridge across the gully near the road, he is now clearing up all the underbrush and drift wood and by leaving only the ornamental trees this unsightly spot will soon present a very attractive appearance. If the military authorities could be persuaded to do the same thing on the opposite side of Trout Creek, it would materially add to the view at this point of a much used thoroughfare.

—A fancy sale and hallowe'en tea will be held on Thursday evening, Oct. 28th, from 5 to 9 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. H. W. B. Smith, Sussex Corner, when all kinds of towels, buffet sets, five o'clock tea sets, pillow cases and centrepieces will be shown. There will also be for sale a white quilt, aprons and men's socks. For the hallowe'en tea there will be served scallops, brown bread and beans, pickles, white bread, and rolls, cake of all kinds, apple, lemon and pumpkin pie. The Sussex Corner Women's Institute would be very pleased to have the patronage of the public.

—Mr. H. B. Price, of Red Bank, New Jersey, formerly of Sussex, arrived on Friday last, and is leaving today (Thursday) for his home.

—The regular meeting of the L. O. B. A. will be held Monday, October 25, at 7.30 instead of 8 o'clock. Members are requested to be there at that hour.

—Don't fail to see "Light Housekeeping," the comedy, in addition to the Rin-Tin-Tin picture "The Clash of the Wolves," at the Imperial for the week-end.

—Mrs. George Suffren, who has been a patient at the Saint John Infirmary for the past five weeks, returned to her home on Wednesday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Percy Wilbur.

—No further cases of scarlet fever have been reported. Prompt action was taken by the trustees who had the one victim's (George Nice) books burned, his desk removed and the room fumigated.

—The Studholm Parish Sunday school convention will be held at the Head of Millstream on Thursday, October 28th, afternoon and evening sessions. A lesson will be given by Joseph McKnight in the afternoon.

—In Wesley Church vestry on Monday evening, Oct. 25, at eight o'clock, Rev. C. N. Brown will give an illustrated missionary lecture on "Life and Customs in Old Korea." An offering for missions will be taken.

—The induction of Rev. N. A. MacNeill, D.D., into the pastorate of the United Baptist church of Sussex, occurs in their house of worship on Church Avenue, this (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock. All welcome.

—It is possible to win a turkey for your Thanksgiving dinner by attending the Imperial Theatre. Starting tonight (Thursday) a coupon will be given with each ticket and the drawing will take place on Saturday evening, Nov. 6th.

—Mr. George E. Creed, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Creed, was in Sussex for a few days. On Friday, he will be united in marriage to Miss Millie Edgett, daughter of Mr. Fred Edgett, of Surrey, Albert Co. The young couple will reside at St. Catherine's, Ont., where Mr. Creed has been employed as electrical designer for the Crocker-Wheeler Co. of that city.

LOCAL ARTISTS BROADCAST FROM CNRA, MONCTON

The Sussex concert party, who journeyed to Moncton on Tuesday last by invitation of the C.N.R., to broadcast from their station, CNRA, delighted those who were able to tune in. Several receiving sets in town heard the concert clearly and spoke in high praise of the splendidly selected programme which was admirably rendered.

After the concert, the party was entertained by Mrs. Dr. O. B. Price, at her residence on Highfield Street. Many congratulatory telegrams were received after the concert in effect that the Sussex concert party had given the best concert heard from the Moncton studio in months.

Following is the programme: Overture (Ambrose Thomas)—Mrs. Edith Ervine, Mrs. Piers.

Female Solo (a) Queen of the Earth, (Ciro Pinsuti); (b) Unti (Wilfred Sanderson)—Mr. M. Garfield White. Duet—O, That We Two Were Maying—Miss Gretchen Mills, Mr. Harry Black.

Soprano Solo (a) Gathered a Rose; (b) The Same Old Dear Old Face (Leslie Wilson), Miss Gretta Whitney.

Baritone Solo (a) Bells of the Sea; (b) Laddie Boy—Harry Wallace.

Saxophone Solo (a) Serenade (Gabriel Mafie); (b) Dreaming of Home in the Twilight (Hartley Moore)—Mr. Austin Ervine.

"The Clash Of The Wolves"

SIZZLING with excitement and freighted with fun, a romance of the cattle country; a dramatic story of man's treachery and a wolf's loyalty; of young love against the flaming background of the Sierras—"The Clash of the Wolves."

THE DOG WONDER of the screen in a melodramatic story of the cattle country—Rin-Tin-Tin as Lobo, leader of the wolves—with a price on his head and kindness and loyalty in his heart—the canine star's best role—in "The Clash of the Wolves."

HE WENT prospecting for borax, and found love; his rival cheated and trapped him yet he found happiness in the girl's lovely eyes; and when danger threatened him, Lobo, the wolf he had befriended—See Rin-Tin-Tin, the wonder dog, in "The Clash of the Wolves."

THE THRILL of a forest fire; romance of young love; the fun of an hilarious cattle camp; the drama of a bitter rivalry for a borax claim; the elemental power of the wonder dog, Rin-Tin-Tin, in "The Clash of the Wolves."
