—Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Clements, of Plaster Rock, on the death of their infant baby, born May 5th, buried May 10th. Mrs. Clements was formerly of Coles Island.

—The Pathfinders group of the C. G.I.T. of the Wesley United church, will sell home cooking and candy on Saturday afternoon, May 22nd, in W. Pearce's store, Broad St. Sale starts at 3 o'clock.

—The graduating exercises of the St. John Public Hospital will be held on Wednesday evening next, May 26. Among the graduates are Miss Francis Keith, Newtown; and Miss Marguerite Belding, Hampton.

—Harvey Robinson is making improvements to his house and property on Lowell St. Having torn down an old barn at the rear, he is now adding a verandah to the kitchen. When completed the premises will present a much better appearance.

—Mrs. F. R. Rand spent a few days in Apohaqui recently, guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Jones. She returned home last week, accompanied by Mr. Rand, who was returning from a business trip to Woodstock and Fredericton.

—Mr. J. D. McKenna, who underwent a slight operation at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, is recovering nicely, and expects to return home this week. Mrs. McKenna has been in Montreal with her husband for the past two weeks.

—Presbyterian Sunday school next Sunday, May 23rd, at 11 a.m., subject of the lesson, Isaac and His Wells. Bible class at the same hour; all members of the church are invited to the bible class; services conducted in Trinity Hall, Main St., Sussex.

—Harry Dysart, of Sussex Corner, a well known Sussex boy, and leading man of the Varsity Players of the King's College University, Halifax, is appearing in "Tweddles," their play at the Imperial on next Wednesday night. See page 4 for particulars.

—We notice several lawns and other properties are receiving the special attention of their owners just now. This is the right spirit. It is astonishing how greatly the beauty of the town would be increased if each one would spend these few spare moments in this way.

—The town engineer has men engaged repairing the drinking trough for horses near the drug store of B. J. Sharp. It would be nice if some of the thoughtless boys of the town would refrain from throwing different articles in these drinking places, always remembering that the horse likes nice clean water just as much as the boys do.

—The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morrow, who underwent a very serious operation recently at the Frances Sproul Hospital, is sufficiently recovered to return home. The operation, which was performed by Dr. McAlister, was for mastoid disease, and is considered one of the most difficult operations in surgery.

—Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Leiper, of West Calgary, Alberta, were agreeably surprised on the evening of April 20th, when responding to the doorbell, to find a company of their friends to the number of about twenty, waiting to enter their home, it being the 44th anniversary of their wedding. After congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Leiper, Mr. Chris Gaunce on behalf of the company, presented the bride with a beautiful vase, as the bouquet of pink and white carnations and maidenhair fern had arrived from the florist during the day. After a very pleasant time had been spent, ice cream and refreshments were served. The principal feature was the wedding cake, which was cut by the bride, and was decorated with a miniature bride and groom. The company left for their homes shortly after 12 o'clock, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Leiper many more years of wedded life, in their new home.

—Trinity Guild will meet this (Thursday) evening at the rectory.

—J. P. Atherton has taken apartments in the Empire Block, and will move there about the first of June.

—A special meeting of the Collina Agricultural Society will be held on Wednesday, May 26th, at 8 p.m., in the Collina hall. The meeting will be addressed by G. R. Wilson, N. B. District Poultry promoter. Members' wives and non-members will be especially welcomed.

—The annual choral service of the Kingston Deanery Choral Union, which was to have been held this year in the parish church at Kingston, has been postponed till later in the season. The rector of Kingston is shortly leaving for England, which makes it impossible to hold the service at the time arranged for.

—The Our Gang comedy, "Circus Fever," which made such a hit with the grown-ups at the Imperial the first of the week, will be held over as an added attraction for the Imperial's big special Saturday matinee, which also includes "Skinner's Dress Suit," and the 7th chapter of The Green Archer. Children a dime only.

—On Monday evening, May 10, about fifty of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. O. Whelpley, Sussex Corner, met at their home and tendered them a surprise party. Dancing, cards and music were enjoyed. About midnight a delicious luncheon was served, and the party broke up in the small hours, voting Mr. and Mrs. Whelpley ideal entertainers.

—James Adams, of Boston, an old resident of Sussex, was here on Tuesday last, for the first time in twenty-five years. Mr. Adams was a great horse fancier in his younger days, and handled a speedy animal owned by the late Conductor Sproul, some forty years ago. During his short stay, he was the guest of Miss Damie Warren, and referred very enthusiastically to the many changes and improvements in Sussex.

—Rev. H. S. B. Strothard, M.A., B.D. Field Secretary of the Religious Education, will be in Sussex on Sunday, May 23rd, and will preach in Chalmers United church in the morning, and in Wesley United church in the evening. The morning service in Wesley United church will be taken by Rev. W. F. Parker. Rev. G. F. Dawson will be in St. John on Sunday, May 23rd, and will preach at Centenary in the morning, and at Fairville, in the evening.

—When the T. R. Campbell saw mill at Salisbury, was destroyed by fire a short time ago, a large quantity of logs were still in the yards. Councillor L. Taylor is setting up a portable mill this week to saw the logs for J. E. Humphries, of Petticoat. A. E. Brown has recently added a small band saw to his mill plant, and now, in addition to his various other mill activities, he is sawing round heads and bottoms for cheese boxes. His first order for this line of work will be shipped to the cheese factory at Albert-N. B.

—An interesting congregation filled Chalmers church last Sunday morning. Twenty-one new members were received, four by certificate from other churches, and seventeen young people on profession of their faith in Christ. Four of these received the ordinance of baptism. The communion service following the reception was one of the most largely attended in the history of the congregation. The attendance at the preparatory service last Friday evening was the largest during the present pastorate. At the Sunday evening service, instead of the usual sermon, five families of hymns were sung, and the pastor narrated their history and spoke of the tunes to which they are usually sung.

"THE GREEN ARCHER" Dungeon Mystery Disclosed in Chapter 7 "Green Archer"

Who would like to enter that secret dungeon under the library in old Abel Bellamy's magnificent castle among the Storm King mountains up the Hudson? Within its secret walls, for many long, dreary years, has lived the only person other than Bellamy who has seen this beautifully furnished apartment beneath the ground, away from the sunlight, without human companionship! The mystery of the dungeon is disclosed in the seventh chapter of the Patheserial, "The Green Archer," showing at the Imperial Theatre, with Allene Ray and Walter Miller featured. Among other interesting events transpiring in this current chapter is the evidence of the newspaper reporter Spike Holland, proving that Walter Howett is the Green Archer, whose second crime is the killing of Coldharbour Smith. And Valerie Howett's mysterious disappearance from the scene of the murder is also disclosed.

NOTICE

To all interested in the Sussex Cemetery, the following appeal is made.

It is the intention of the proprietor to expend a considerable amount in beautifying the cemetery this summer and already some lot owners have agreed to assist in carrying out this good work.

The proprietor is willing to expend about all the income received from the sale of lots to help improve the cemetery, but the income being small it will be necessary to ask lot owners who are willing to help, to do so. Mr. William E. McLeod has kindly offered to supervise and assist in the improvements to be made, and we trust that all interested will help in every way possible.

Persons wishing to own a lot will do well to procure one at once, as the best lots are being taken up very fast.
