

SKINNERS DRESS SUIT IMPERIAL TO-NIGHT

REGINALD DENNY'S MOST GENUINELY HUMAN HILARIOUS PICTURE OF A HUSBAND WHO LIED ABOUT HIS SALARY—7th CHAPTER OF THE GREEN ARCHER—

Reginald Denny is the one man who can make you laugh every time he starts without the aid of trick walks and custard pies. There's no doubt about it—Denny was born with a twinkle in his heart and a contagious smile on his face. And when he gets a story like Henry Irving Dodge's famous Saturday Evening Post series—"Skinner's Dress Suit"—you can shuffe right down to wherever he is showing, sure for once that you are going to laugh, whole-hearted, sincere, utterly abandoned chuckling laughter that comes only from good, wholesome spontaneous comedy. Oh, yes, indeed! He's the old real, honest to goodness happiness maker.

Skinner, an underpaid clerk, is idealized by "Honey," his wife, who is obsessed with the belief that he is a wonderful business man. She compels him to ask for an increase in salary. Instead, he is discharged by his employer, but in order not to disappoint his wife, Skinner tells her that he has received a raise. "Honey" immediately plans to spend it in advance from their savings and tells all her neighbors of her husband's supposed prosperity. They receive invitations to various community affairs and "Honey" makes Skinner buy a new dress suit. That requires accessories which are duly purchased. She must have a new gown. They must entertain in turn and new furniture is necessary. Before they are aware of it they are plunged heavily into debt. Then complications follow thick and fast. Just when things look blackest to the guileless Skinner and his unsuspecting wife, matters take an entirely different turn. A novel and unexpected twist in the situation remedies their black-looking future.

"The Green Archer" How did Valerie Howett disappear from the boat where Coldharbour Smith held her captive—and where Coldharbour Smith met death from the hands of the mysterious, ghostly Green Archer? This is one of the important questions followers of Pathé's new serial, "The Green Archer," will have answered for them in the seventh chapter now showing at the Imperial, as hundreds of Sussex fans are following this serial.

On motion of Ald. Vickers, seconded by Ald. Patterson and carried unanimously, Ordered, That the license fee for Chautauqua for the year 1926 be $60.00.

The Mayor appointed Ald. White, Ald. Jones and Ald. Vickers, a committee to look after obtaining a camp site in the Town, for the year 1926.

Ald. Jeffries moved, that a contract be made with the Moncton Supply Co. for a term of six months from date, at the rate of 4c. per k.w. net, with a minimum charge of $1.00 per h.p. per month during the said term of six months; meaning that in the months in which the Moncton Supply Company does not use at least $25.00 worth of current (based on a 25 h.p. installation) that the Moncton Supply Company will be charged the sum of $25.

During the months in which more than $25 worth of current is used, the Supply Company will be charged with the current used at the rate of 4c. per k.w. net.

A number of bills, received since last meeting of Council, having been examined by Council and by the members of the Finance Committee, and having been reported as approved for payment, were on motion ordered paid.

Ald. Jeffries moved the following resolution:

Resolved: That in the discretion of the Town Clerk a deposit of not exceeding five dollars ($5.00) may be required to be made and left with the Town by all applicants for hydro electric service; such deposit to be made before the applicant is connected up with the service.

Such deposit may be returned to the applicant at any time in the discretion of the Town Clerk, but in any case shall be refunded when the applicant's contract for hydro electric service is terminated, provided always however, there are no arrears for service due the town.

Where a deposit is requested, the applicant must be advised that if at any time the arrears exceed the amount of the deposit, that the deposit will be applied on such arrears and the service will be immediately discontinued.

Ald. Floyd seconded the above resolution, and upon being put, same was unanimously adopted.

PURE BRED GUERNSEY HERD FOR KINGSTON, N. B.

Charles R. Peters, of Elmhurst Farm, Kingston, Kings County, N. B., has recently secured ten head of choice Guernsey cows from Nova Scotia, and intends building up a herd of pure bred Guernseys. Most of these cows he secured from the celebrated Cornish herd and a number of his heifers are direct descendants of the $3,500 bull recently sold by the Corning Estate, to Mr. Swindell, of Connecticut, who is establishing a farm at Princeton, N. S.

Mr. Peters is remodeling his barn and equipping it throughout with modern steel stable equipment, and visitors at his farm will be welcome.

THE SUSSEX AMATEUR ATHLETIC CLUB

The townspeople and county generally, will regret to learn that the Athletic Club will not be active this summer. The financial condition of the club seems to be the difficulty. Evidently their efforts in the past, have not been appreciated by the public, to such an extent as would enable the club to meet its legitimate expenses. The Club is indebted to the Fowler Estate for two years rent, and will therefore be unable to procure the grounds until this amount is paid up.

This does not, however, prevent any other organization or body of responsible parties from organizing, and securing the grounds for any line of sport they may wish to encourage.

At present the Sussex school boys have been given the privilege of using the grounds in preparation for their annual meet, as well as the holding of this meet on June 3rd next.

MT. A. CONFERS 25 DEGREES IN ART

ALICE V. DEBOW, THOMAS E. PROCTOR, AND FRED E. KEIRSTEAD, ALL OF SUSSEX, ARE AMONG THE NUMBER

The convocation exercises of Mount Allison University, Sackville, was held on Tuesday, May 18. Thirty-six students, including many from New Brunswick, received the Degree of Bachelor of Arts or Science, and several engineering certificates were also issued.

Among the list of graduates to receive their B. A. degree were three from Sussex: Miss Alice DeBow, Thomas E. Proctor and Fred E. Keirstead.

A short sketch of their scholastic career will be of interest to many readers of The Record.

Miss DeBow received her early education in Upham, Kings County, where she was born. Later, she was a student at the Kingston Consolidated school. After graduating from the Kingston school, she took up nursing and trained in Aroostook Hospital in Houlton, Maine, graduating at Augusta, Maine, in 1921. In 1922, she entered Mount Allison, from which she has just graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Thomas E. Proctor is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Proctor, of Sussex. He received his entire education at Sussex, graduating with the class of 1921; wrote his High School leaving and passed with high marks. In the same year he went to Normal School, where he obtained a First Class Superior license, and was an outstanding student in manual training. He was engaged as vice Principal of Sackville High School, in 1922; taught Grade IX in the morning, and instructed Grades VII to XI in manual training in the afternoon. He spent the summers of 1924 and 1925 in Frontier College Work, one in Ontario, and one in British Columbia, teaching one year at Sackville High School, he entered Mt. A., taking his university courses in the morning and continuing to instruct in manual training at Sackville High School in the afternoon.

This is an illustration of what can be done, by an ambitious student, in the way of putting himself through college. Mr. Proctor intends to take up Medicine as a profession.

Mr. Fred E. Keirstead is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Keirstead, who formerly lived at Collina, but recently purchased the Harry Manning property here, where he now resides. Fred began his school days at Marriown and afterwards attended the school at Keirstead Mountain. After completing his schooling there, he took a course at Kerr's Business College in St. John, and was for a time connected with the Imperial Life Insurance Company, and has an insurance agent's diploma. He then attended Normal School, where he obtained a First Class license; after which he entered Mount Allison.

Sussex should certainly feel a great sense of pride in the distinction her sons and daughters have attained this year. No fewer than six of our young ladies and young men have returned to or are returning to their homes with the coveted degree of Bachelor of Arts, and to these young men and young ladies the Record extends its heartiest congratulations.

SUSSEX RIFLE CLUB

On Saturday last, a good start was made by the Sussex Rifle Club, when upwards of twenty members took part.

The weather was favorable, but, owing to there being only two targets, it was late before some targets could finish. This week three targets will be used, giving all a better chance.

Following are the scores for Saturday, the highest of which are remarkably good for the first shoot:

N. B. CHEESE BOARD TO MEET HERE THIS WEEK—MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE TO ATTEND

Preparations are being made for the annual organization meeting of the New Brunswick Cheese Board, to be held this week at Sussex. It is expected that Hon. Lewis Smith, Minister of Agriculture, will attend the meeting. Harvey Mitchell, Deputy Minister of Agriculture and Dairy Superintendent, will attend the meeting, together with representatives of the wholesale grocery trade in St. John. The New Brunswick Cheese Board is composed of one representative from each of the cheese factories, together with representatives of the different buyers. The chief business for the organization meeting, will be the organization of the board for the ensuing year and the selection of the dates on which the board will meet, to pass upon the cheese products to be sold.

Another good season's business is anticipated by the cheese producers for 1926, following on the heels of last season's record production and record price. The production season is late starting, however, owing to the backward spring conditions.

F. J. Hetherington is offering his farm for sale, at Mount Middleton, which he has successfully worked for the last six years. His friends in the neighborhood are sorry that Mr. Hetherington has decided to sell, as he has been a most successful farmer and a good neighbor.
