SUSSEX CORNER

Feb. 2—A farewell party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Yeomans on Monday evening, in honor of Miss Winnifred Yeomans, who left for Malden, Mass., to enter the Malden Hospital as a student nurse. At the close of the evening Miss Yeomans was presented with a sand brocade under-arm bag and a French Ivory mirror. The evening was spent in music and games. After bountiful refreshments were served the guests departed, wishing Miss Yeomans every success. John Bowser was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Mary Goddard, St. John, a few days last week.

Miss Margaret McFarlane, of Parlee Brook, spent a few days with friends at Dutch Valley.

Mrs. Calvin Wallace has returned home greatly improved in health, after undergoing an operation, performed by Dr. Addy, at the St. John Infirmary.

Misses May and Laura Wallace spent the week end at their home here.

Miss Winnifred Yeomans left on Saturday for Malden, Mass., being accompanied to St. John by her mother, Mrs. H. Yeomans.

Miss Mary Mosher spent the week end at Sussex Corner.

Miss Annie Jones was in St. John a few days last week.

A number of Sussex Corner girls attended the carnival at Sussex on Friday evening.

Miss Winnifred Yeomans was the guest of Mrs. H. Armstrong Tuesday afternoon, being accompanied to "Mr. Bob" in the evening by Miss Ella Whelpley.

MEETING OF THE LOWER RIDGE WOMENS INSTITUTE FOLLOWED BY CHICKEN SUPPER

The Lower Ridge branch of Womens Institute met on Wednesday evening,

Jan. 20th, at the home of the secretary Mrs. Guilford Atkinson. The meeting was called to order at 7.45 by the president, Mrs. W. W. Alward. After singing O Canada eleven members answered roll call by telling a humorous story. This was rather amusing. The minutes were then read and adopted. Some discussions followed and some correspondence read and dealt with. The secretary treasurer reported the sending of $42.00 to Mr. Gardiner for the Interprovincial Home - at Coverdale. This would furnish a room for the W. I. and we trust a plate bearing our name will be placed in the room as a testimony. The general business was carried out, a school visitor was appointed for the next month. The president reported sending the little cabinet to the school for the scholars to put their drinking cups in. After singing the Anthem we adjourned to the dining room and made ready the table for the gentlemen in waiting, this being our annual for men. A chicken supper and all that goes with it was greatly enjoyed by all, about thirty being present, including some visitors, and everyone seemed to enter heartily into a good time. Some even dared to express a desire for us to entertain the men more often which spoke volumes for the occasion, and no one seemed to want any more chicken for a few days at least. Community singing was enjoyed for a time and then after thanking Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson for their kindness in letting us have the freedom of their home, and singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," all returned to their homes at a late hour.

It is a proof of our natural bias to evil, that in all things good, gain is harder and slower than loss; but in all things bad or evil, getting is quicker and easier than getting rid of them.—Hare.
