WEDDING BELLS

Bickford-Pollock

Jan. 27—A very pretty but quiet wedding took place at St. Andrew's United Manse, Norton, when Richie Clarence Bickford was united in marriage to Mary Grace Pollock, by Rev. W. A. Wood. The bride looked charming in a navy cloth, richly ornamented, and wore pearls. The couple were unattended. The bride is a recent graduate nurse of Mass. State Hospital. The marriage took place at sharp 8 o'clock p.m., and after the signing of the register they immediately left for the groom's home where they were tendered a reception. Both are very popular and all unite in wishing them much happiness.

Hall-Northrup

SUSSEX HIGH AND NORTON VICTORS ON SATURDAY

Sussex High School hockey team added another victory to their growing list by defeating Rothersey Consolidated at the latter place on Saturday. The game required twenty minutes overtime, Sussex being returned winners by a 3-2 score.

The game was not started until after four o'clock as the Sussex team was late in arriving, and the light had to be turned on to finish the game. Rothersey drew first blood by scoring five minutes after the start of the game, Kirkpatrick slippink the loose puck past Wilson in the Sussex net. Sussex forced the play, but some wild shooting by the Sussex forwards and some good stops by the Rothersey goalie prevented them from scoring. Near the end of the period Kirkpatrick broke through for what looked like a score goal but Wilson made a sensational save. The period ended with the score 1-0 for Rothersey. Sussex resumed the play where they had left off and gave the home net minder a busy session at the end of the second period. Six minutes after the start Odell evened the count. Two minutes later Kirkpatrick again put Rothersey one up, after going round the net and slipping in the corner. Although both teams played hard there was no further scoring in this period.

The third period had been under way only two minutes when Kennedy tied the score at two all. The Sussex team were having much the better of the play but were unable to score. Near the end of the period Rothersey had only four players on the ice, but Sussex missed several fine chances to put the game on ice due to over-anxiety. There was no scoring in the first overtime session, although Sussex had much the better of the play. Rothersey played hard and several times the Sussex goalie was forced to show his wares.

But one minute of the second extra period had elapsed when Kennedy scored with a nice shot to the corner of the net. Rothersey had five men up on the attack when the game ended. J. McAvity refereed.

Norton jumped into undisputed possession of second place by defeating Hampton on their own ice by the score of 10-2.

The Sussex at Hampton, and Rothersey Collegiate at Norton games on Tuesday, were postponed on account of the storm.

The word Canada is derived from the Iroquois word Kannata, a collection of huts. There is, however, a Spanish tradition that some Spanish explorers visited the country, and, finding no mines or other appearance of riches, said "Aca Nada"—"Here is nothing," which, being repeated by the natives to subsequent visitors from Europe, was supposed to be the name of the country.
