"THE IRON HORSE"

The following letter received just as the Record was going to press last week and too late for publication exonerates the Imperial management of all blame for not showing "The Iron Horse" on the dates advertised. New date set.

E. A. Givan,
Imperial Theatre,
Sussex, N. B.

Dear Mr. Givan:

I regret greatly the disappointment you received when the Iron Horse failed to arrive for your showing, January 21, 22, 23, which was due to the Capitol Theatre, Kentville, N. S., holding the picture over for two additional days and failing to notify this company of their desire.

I understand the disappointment to your public and the financial loss this means to you. I am sure your patrons will be very enthusiastic over the production when it arrives on the new date, which is now set, and for proof all we have to do is look at the record of long runs this picture is having all over the American continent.

Very truly yours,
Fox Film Corporation, Ltd.,
R. G. Marsh, Manager.

Old Gentleman—"So you're looking for a square meal, eh?"
Tramp—"No, I'm looking for a round one."
Old Gentleman—"I never heard of such a thing. What is a round meal?"
Tramp—"One that hasn't any end to it, sir."

SUSSEX DEFEATED MONCTON 7-5

In a league game played at the Royal Arena Wednesday, the Sussex Colts defeated the Moncton Atlantics by the score of 7-5, and by so doing tied St. John for second place in the Southern section, both of these teams having won 4 and lost 6.

It was nice clean, fast hockey, with plenty of good combination work and clever stick handling.

In the first period after three minutes play, H. Radcliffe grabbed the rubber and lodged it behind Wilson, and repeated the dose in less than a minute scoring goal 2 for the locals.

The third goal for the Colts was scored by a shot from Brooks which glanced off E. Bastarache's skate and lodged in the net. Wall in a nice rush tallied for Moncton in 8 minutes, and Cole followed in 10 minutes with another. Brooks on a pass from J. Friars, notched up another for Sussex in 13 minutes.

There was no further scoring and the period ended, Sussex 4, Moncton 2.

The second period opened lively and in one minute H. Radcliffe scored a goal made by a nice rush through Moncton defence. In ten and a half minutes A. Bastarache placed one behind Roach. Harold Radcliffe tallied again in seventeen minutes. The period ended Sussex 6, Moncton 3.

The third period was not as fast as the preceding periods. H. Radcliffe scored for Sussex in fourteen minutes, and A. Bastarache for Moncton in sixteen minutes.

Roach, the Sussex goalie was struck over the eye by the puck, and the game was delayed for about ten minutes. After receiving medical attention he pluckily returned to his post.

In the second period E. Frier, in a mixup was struck in the mouth by a skate and had two teeth knocked out. The third period came ended Sussex 7, Moncton 5.

The line-ups were:

Sussex	Goal	Moncton
Roach	Defence	Wilson
P. Radcliffe	Defence	E. Bastarache
J. Friars	Defence	Wilson
Lutz	Forwards	Gould
Brooks	Forwards	Lane
H. Radcliffe	Forwards	Wall
E. Frier	Forwards	A. Bastarache
M. Radcliffe	Forwards	E. Gould
	Forwards	Cole
Referee—W. S. Hay.

Mistress—"Why don't you bring in the plum pudding, Jane?"
Jane (exulting)—"We couldn't get the brandy to light, mum; but it's all right now, we poured a little kerosene over it."
