—The annual vestry meeting of St. Mark's mission, room and All Saints church will be held at Jeffries Corner Monday, Jan. 25th, at 1.30 p. m.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian church held a successful pantry sale in the store of C. B. Spear on Saturday afternoon last.

—Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Harrison, Chambers Settlement, on the birth of a baby boy, born Jan. 4—Reginald Bliss.

—Hockey returns of the game being played in St. John between Sussex and St. John will be announced during the showing of "The Iron Horse" at the Imperial Friday night.

—Mr. W. B. Macdonald, Presbyterian minister, will hold Sunday school at 11 o'clock. Bible class conducted by the Minister. Evening service at 7 o'clock. All invited.

—Miss Jean Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Murray, was operated on for appendicitis at the Frances Sproul Hospital on Monday, by Dr. D. H. McAllister. The patient is doing nicely and is convalescing as rapidly as can be expected.

—Percy Courtenay underwent an operation at the Frances Sproul Hospital on Wednesday evening for a very bad case of appendicitis. Dr. D. H. McAllister performed the operation. Percy's many friends will wish for his early recovery.

—Rev. Dr. A. H. Moore, President of Kings College, Halifax, N. S., occupied the pulpit at Trinity Church on Sunday evening and delivered a very eloquent and instructive sermon. While in Sussex Dr. Moore was a guest at the Rectory.

—The Kennebecasis Valley Women's Institute will meet with Mrs. Medley Reid on Thursday afternoon, January 28th, at 3 o'clock p.m. Roll call to be answered by an early recollection. Each member is requested to bring something antique to the meeting.

—Capt. W. F. Parker, pastor emeritus, preached very acceptably to two large congregations at the United Baptist Church on Sunday. Rev. Mr. McPherson was ministering to the Hillsboro church owing to the inability of Rev. Mr. Ganong to take the regular service.

—Chief Daly and his men were busy after the recent big snow storm in getting a considerable amount of the fire fighting apparatus shifted from the wheels to sleds. The department is now fitted out to cope with any heavy snow storm that may occur and can reach a fire in any part of the town, if called upon, without unnecessary delay.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. Brown, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. G. M. Suffren and Mr. Suffren, left on Monday for Los Angeles, California, where they will spend the balance of the winter months and the spring, returning to Saint John in May. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will visit Boston, New York, Chicago, Omaha and other leading U. S. cities while en route to California.

—A number from this vicinity are in Fredericton this week attending the fiftieth annual session of the N. B. Farmers' and Dairymen's Association which opened in that city on Tuesday. During the session, The Seed Fair, the annual meeting, and cheese and butter show of the N. B. Dairymen's Association, the annual meeting of the N. B. Sheep Breeders' Association, and of the N. B. Poultry Exchange, will take place.

—On Sunday last, the 17th, Rev. G. F. Dawson announced to his congregation that in view of the proposed local union of the former Methodist and Presbyterian churches of Sussex, at the close of the present church year and further that union he gave formal notice of his resignation. The happiest relationship has existed between pastor and people of his congregation for nearly five years. The property is free from debt and the objective for the maintenance and extension fund has been fully subscribed. In the interest of the Kingdom of God and the United Church of Canada, they desire local union on equitable terms to take place as soon as possible.

—The first and probably the only fancy dress carnival of the season will be held in the Royal Arena on Friday evening next, January 29th. Prizes will be awarded for costumes as follows: Ladies' best, girls' best, boys' best, gents' best, best combination, and most original. A programme of 14 selections will be rendered by the rink band. The first five bands will be for skaters in costume only, and the remaining nine will be open to all who desire to skate. Considerable interest is being taken in the preparation of costumes and all indications point to its being one of the real "old time masquerades" that used in years gone by to prove so popular and attract big crowds. As an incentive to encourage skaters appearing in costume the ticket price has been placed at 15 cents less than that to be charged skaters not in costume.

—Prince Edward Temple Pythian Sisters will hold a valentine tea in Pythian Hall on Thursday, February 11

—The St. Francis Xavier Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Howard, Church Ave., on Tuesday, Jan. 26.

—Mrs. Gordon Kaiser, of London, Ontario, passed away at her home in that city on January 12th, after a lingering illness. She leaves to mourn, her husband, Rev. Gordon Kaiser, and young daughter. The deceased lady was a sister of J. H. Pearn, of Sussex.

—The congregation of the United Baptist church at Salisbury was smoked out on Sunday morning last, shortly after Rev. Mr. Durkee had started his sermon. Something went wrong with the furnace and it sent a dense smoke through the hot air pipes into the church.

—The sounding of the steam whistle on the manufacturing plant, which has been closed down for several months, and which started operations on Wednesday, was a welcome sound to our citizens. We trust the whistle may continue to blow its notes of warning daily, Sundays excepted, for many years to come.

—A basket social and dance will be held in the recreation hall, Jordan Memorial Sanitarium, River Glade, under the auspices of the River Glade branch of the Tubercular Veteran Association, on Thursday evening, Feb. 4th. Dancing at 7 o'clock sharp. Admission free. Ladies will kindly bring baskets. Funds to be used for tubercular ex-soldier welfare work.

—A rather unusual example of religious co-operation, says the Pictou Advocate, is found in Kentville, Nova Scotia, where representatives of all the churches in town—Roman Catholic, Anglican, Baptist and the United Church—have united in petitioning the school board that some form of religious instruction be included in the curriculum of public schools.

—Congratulations to Charles Wesley Wayman, one of the older residents of Kings County, who celebrated his 83rd birthday on Tuesday. Mr. Wayman, who is enjoying good health, lived at Lower Millstream for many years, where he engaged in farming. On his retirement he came to Sussex to live. His host of friends will wish that he may live to enjoy many more birthdays.

—Only one case was before the January session of the Kings County Court when it opened at Hampton on Tuesday, with Judge Jonah presiding. The case was the King vs. John Hutchings. The defendant was charged with assaulting Daniel Rogers in Sussex in August last. Several witnesses were heard and the case was adjourned to be resumed in Sussex when one of the witnesses, who is ill in Sussex, has sufficiently recovered to be able to give evidence.

—Despite unfavorable weather Trinity hall was well filled Tuesday night to hear an inspiring address by Rev. R. M. Stevenson, Ph.D., F.R.G.S., Minister of the First Presbyterian church, Moncton. In vivid, pictorial language he told the story of the Scottish Covenanters, one of the most thrilling tales of heroism, of struggle and of sacrifice in the world's history. In addition there was a piano duet by Miss G. Sherwood and Mrs. Ervine and a solo by Miss G. Mills. Altogether it was a highly profitable and instructive evening. At the close a vote of thanks moved by C. B. Spear and seconded by Clark Elliott, was extended to the speaker by the chairman.
