—The first real snow storm of the winter took place on Saturday when about ten or twelve inches of the beautiful fell during the day and evening. W. E. McLeod, who has the contract for snow plowing for the town, was out bright and early Sunday morning and had all the principal sidewalks cleaned up nicely in time for the morning church goers.

—Rev. A. L. Tedford on last Wednesday morning united in marriage Miss Helen Eva Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Grant, of Houlton, Me., and Samuel William Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thompson of Sussex. They are spending their honeymoon with relatives in Sussex and then will reside in Houlton.—Times-Star, Saint John.

—Very Rev. Dean Scovil Neales, of Fredericton, who is ill at the Deanery, has been granted three week's leave of absence from his duties in connection with the Cathedral congregation. Rev. George Larder, of Sussex, a retired clergyman, will assist the Bishop during the period of Dean Neales' leave of absence. The position of curate of the Cathedral is vacant since the departure of Rev. F. M. Sherlock.

—The Senior C.G.I.T. group of Chalmers church entertained the boys of the Tuxis Square at a skating party on Monday evening at the Royal Arena chaperoned by Mrs. O. P. King. After an enjoyable evening at the rink the party adjourned to the home of Mrs. Robert Connelly as guests of Mrs. O. P. King, where refreshments were served and games and other amusements indulged in.

—Friday last was nomination day in the by-election held in Ward III, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Alderman E. H. Vickers, who resigned to run as Alderman-at-Large. There was only one name in nomination, John W. Patterson, and at six o'clock Town Clerk Freese declared him duly elected by acclamation to represent Ward III, at the Council Board. Mr. Patterson has had considerable experience in Municipal affairs as a member of the Kings County Council, and should make a good Alderman.

—Mrs. Keith, of Norton, and Mrs. J. D. McKenna entertained Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. McKenna at a dinner bridge and they had for their guests Lt. Col. and Mrs. G. S. Kinneer, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jardine, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. McAlary, Dr. and Mrs. Daly, Miss Della Daly, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Atherton, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. G. —Mr. and Mrs. Harley White and Miss Hazel White leave today for Savannah, Ga., where they will spend the balance of the winter, if the climate suits them. If not agreeable to them, they will look up winter quarters in some other location, either in the Southern States or California.

—The weather has been ideal for lumbering and the operators in this vicinity are all getting along nicely with their cuts. Hauling has commenced and considerable lumber is already piled in the C.N.R. yard ready for shipment. What is badly needed at Sussex is a siding for lumber loading as the existing conditions are anything but desirable.

—The rink this winter is proving a more popular resort than ever, for young and old, and is being largely patronized. A number of skating parties and other enjoyable events have been held. The band was in attendance on Monday night, and will play again on Friday night, when a number of sleighing parties from outside districts are expected to be present.

—Rev. George Morris, assisted by Rev. Harry Harrison, opened an evangelistic campaign in the Berwick United (Methodist) church on Sunday evening last, which will continue for an indefinite period. Rev. Mr. Morris has been appointed to the evangelical work of the United church and has recently concluded a series of services in Bradford, Vt. Rev. Mr. Morris is a guest of Rev. H. and Mrs. Harrison at the parsonage.

—The World's Championship skating meet to be held at St. John on Jan. 26, 27 and 28, is attracting much attention in sporting circles, and all roads will no doubt lead to the winter port city on those dates. Many of the world's greatest skaters have sent in entries for the different events and a smashing of several records may be looked for. A grand stand with a seating capacity of three thousand is being erected at Lily Lake where the meet is to be held.
