

ROLLICKING COMEDY IS "MR. BOB"

WILL BE PRESENTED AT THE IMPERIAL THEATRE ON NIGHTS OF JANUARY 25-26 BY LOCAL TALENT UNDER DIRECTION OF MR. DESIRE BOURQUE

"Mr. Bob," a comedy by Rachel E. Baker, is one of the brightest pieces ever put over the foot lights. It is not altogether a new play, but having had so much success it is still very popular and going strong.

"Mr. Bob" is a clean comedy, full of brisk actions, snappy dialogues and situations that will keep you mirth from rise of curtain to fall. The climax, which brings many complications to light, is most interesting and the result of the yacht race gives it a "punch."

Mr. Bourque, who is directing "Mr. Bob," was very careful in the selection of the cast. The choice of Miss Mary Savage as the maid who would like to be a ballet dancer, can not be criticized, having already qualified herself as such character. Another in "Bill" Keith, as Jenkins, the dignified English butler, who objects to feeding cats. Miss Mildred Ross, as Aunt Becky, who would build a home for destitute cats, has a good part which she is capable of filling. Mrs. Gordon Keirstead, as Katherine Rogers, Becky's niece, and her college chum Marion Bryant, taken by Kay Prescott are two of the fun makers of "Mr. Bob" and they put a good joke over on Cousin Philip. Another favorite to Sussex theatre goers is Ed McInerney who in the part of Robert Brown, who came down—gets in a terrible mix-up and is taken for six different people. He is tangled so that he does not know who he is.

The part of Philip Rayson, medical student and sportsman, who loves his yacht, is taken by Mr. Desire J. Bourque, and his deep baritone voice will be heard to advantage in the rendition of several "sea songs."

"Mr. Bob" is given under auspices of the Sussex branch of the Women's Institute for the War Memorial Fund, and will be presented at the Imperial Theatre Monday and Tuesday nights, Jan. 25th and 26th.

JOE LAMB STARS ON ROYAL BANK TEAM IN MONTREAL

Local hockey fans will be glad to know that Joe Lamb is playing good hockey with the Royal Bank team of Montreal. In the opening game on Tuesday, Jan. 5th, Joe was used only as a substitute, but on Friday he held down a position on the regular forward line. He was one of the stars and scored the last goal for his team, although they lost by a 3-2 score.

The Montreal Gazette in its account of the game has the following paragraph: "Tony Baril, Lamb and Carrol were down time and again in speedy rushes, but the only count they could make came early in the period, Lamb beating Rowen with a sizzling shot which the Montreal goalie blocked but could not control. With Slater, Voleis and Rowen starring for the winners, Baril, Carrol and Lamb were the bright lights for the Royals.

The results of the games:

Tuesday—Banque Canadienne Nationale, 4; Royal Bank, 2. Bank of Montreal, 4; Bank of Commerce, 0.

Friday—Bank of Montreal, 3; Royal Bank, 2. Banque Canadienne Nationale, 4; Bank of Commerce, 0.

CELEBRATED HER 90TH BIRTHDAY

MRS. MARIA WALKER, OF MIDLAND, K. C., GUEST OF HONOR AT A BIRTHDAY PARTY—WAS PRESENTED PURSE OF GOLD

A very pleasant event took place at Midland, Kings County, on Friday evening, January 8th, when about seventy five relatives and friends of Mrs. Maria Walker, gathered at her home in honor of her 90th birthday.

Although having been passed since December 21st, the event took the form of a birthday party. After a much enjoyed social evening had been spent, a dainty luncheon was served. The dining-table at which the aged lady was seated, with her only son, W. S. Walker and Mrs. Walker, and the older guests, was centred with a beautiful birthday cake, made by Mrs. W. H. Sharpe, on which were nine burning candles, each candle representing ten years.

After luncheon had been served A. W. Cosman, on behalf of the gathering presented Mrs. Walker with a substantial purse of money and immediately after, all joined in singing Bless Be the Tie that Binds.

Mrs. Walker in a few words, very feelingly extended her thanks and appreciation for the kindness and good will expressed. Although having attained such a good old age, Mrs. Walker still retains her faculties perfectly, and enjoyed the evening as much as any of the younger ones present. She is interested in everything about her and her fingers are ever busy in doing something to help others.

After many good wishes to Mrs. Walker the gathering broke up, all pronouncing her a wonderful woman.

MONCTON DEFEATED SUSSEX 7-1

THE ATLANTICS WON OUT IN A GAME PLAYED IN THE MONCTON ARENA ON MONDAY NIGHT.

There was a large attendance of fans and the game was a good one, the Moncton players making some nice combination plays.

In the second period Sussex did good work, but their attacks were effectively met by Moncton. In the first period there were some good stops by both goal tenders. Gould figured prominently throughout the game, and scored for Moncton shortly before the gong.

In the second session Gould again scored for the Athletics after five minutes' playing. Sussex then settled down to some real hard work and the Moncton goalie was exceedingly busy. A feature of this period was Wilson's stopping of many hard shots. Bastarache drove in the rubber for Moncton's third tally. About a minute before the period E. Frier scored for Sussex.

In the third period the Athletics had no difficulty in maintaining their lead. Gould sent in another two minutes after the period began. Several times the puck was driven towards the Sussex net, Roach making some excellent stops. Lane scored for the home team on Gould's assist. Gould drove in two more, the game ending with a score of 7-1 for the Athletics.

The teams were:

Moncton	Goal	Sussex
W. Wilson	Defence	Roach
Wilson	Defence	P. Radcliffe
Kervin	Forward	J. Friars
A. Bastarache		H. Radcliffe
C. Lane		Brooks
S. Cole	Substitutes	Latz
E. Bastarache		E. Frier
Wall		E. Friars
Hutchinson		M. Radcliffe

SUSSEX CORNER NEWS AND LOCAL HAPPENINGS

A bean supper is to be held in the Upper Corner hall on Wednesday, Jan. 20th. Proceeds for rink purposes. Everybody welcome. Skating will be enjoyed in the evening.

Harold McElroy spent Sunday at the home of his parents.

Misses Ellen and Mary Cotter have returned home, after a pleasant visit with relatives in Chicago.

Friends of Percy Jeffries are pleased to know that he has recovered from his illness.

The young people of Sussex Corner enjoyed a very pleasant sleighing party Friday night, being entertained at the home of Mrs. B. Crothers, Apohaqui.

Miss Mae Wallace has returned to her school at Ward's Creek.

Friends of Mrs. Calvin Wallace are pleased to hear that she is recovering from her recent operation.

Willis Dole left on Monday for Le-preau, where he will spend the remainder of the winter months.

Miss Laura Wallace spent the week end at her home here.

Miss Madeline McFarlane and Miss Jones were guests of Miss Mildred McElroy on Tuesday.

Gilbert Cunningham is confined to his home with la grippe.

Mrs. Harold McElroy is visiting her parents at Parlee Brook.

Miss Winnifred Yeomans leaves the last of January for Malden, Mass., where she will enter a hospital to train for a nurse.

A carnival is to be held on the Arctic Rink, Sussex Corner, in the near future. Watch for the date.

The open air rink has been a splendid success.

BOWLING

The prize offered for the three highest strings on the local alleys was won by Earle Friars. Friars had a total of 357, making scores of 111, 105 and 141. While bowling is one of the most popular of indoor games in other places it has failed to "catch" with most of the Sussex people, and it is felt that if you once try this sport you will soon become a fan.

BRILLIANT LECTURER TO VISIT SUSSEX

REV. R. M. STEVENSON, B.D., Ph.D., OF MONCTON, LATE OF GLASGOW, SCOTLAND, WILL DELIVER LECTURE IN TRINITY HALL ON 19TH INST.

A lecture on "The Scottish Covenanters and Their Place in History" is to be given in Trinity Hall on Tuesday, Jan. 19th, at 8 p.m., by Rev. R. M. Stevenson, B.D., Ph.D., of Moncton, late of Glasgow, Scotland.

Apart altogether from a religious standpoint, this lecture will appeal to all who enjoy vivid life-pictures told with the realistic touch of one who speaks with intimate knowledge, and a vital interest. For in the veins of Dr. Stevenson, not so far back, runs the blood of a martyred covenantor, and as one who heard this lecture expressed it, "He makes you feel it."

Dr. Stevenson is a cousin of the famous novelist, Robert Louis Stevenson, and appears to share to a large extent in his literary ability. He is also a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society, and in that connection has made several extended tours. Those who hear this splendid lecture are thus assured of no rehearsal of a dead issue, but the past will be linked with the present, by one "who has been, and who has seen."

While Dr. Stevenson's lecture is especially to the Presbyterian congregation of Sussex, the general public is heartily invited to share a generous treat. Special music is planned. A silver collection will be taken to defray expenses.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE KINGS COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The January meeting of the Kings County Public School Athletic Association was held in the Court House at Hampton on January 9th, with Rev. Thomas Parker in the chair. The following schools were represented by the following members: Sussex, Principal Fraser, Kennedy, Matthews; Norton, Principal R. A. March, Harmer, Nodwell; Rothesay Consolidated, Principal C. T. "BELOW THE LINE" WITH RIN-TIN-TIN

IMPERIAL (TONIGHT) THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY—NEW WARNER BROS. PICTURE SAID TO BE WONDER DOG'S BEST

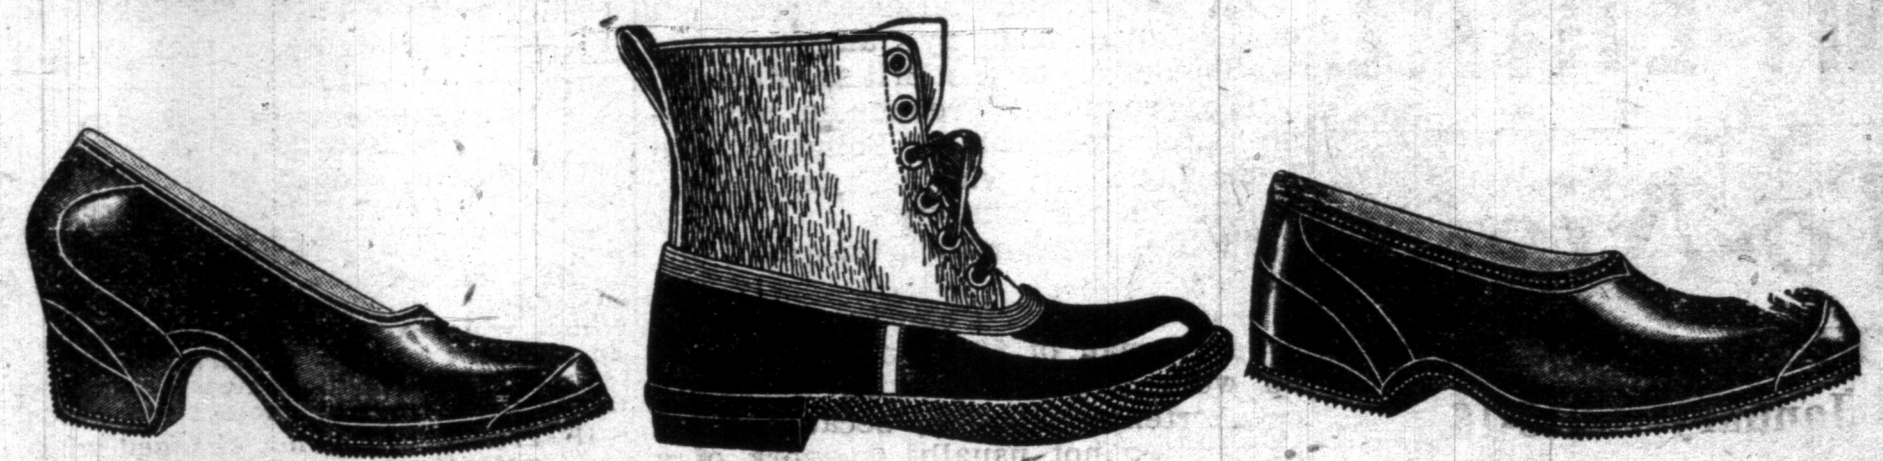

"Below the Line," the Warner Bros. classic of the screen, at the Imperial Theatre, has for its theme the exciting story of a vicious, snarling dog made loyal and brave through loving training. Rin-Tin-Tin, who will be remembered by all enthusiasts of dog pictures, for his remarkable work in "Where the North Begins," "Find Your Man," "The Lighthouse by the Sea" and "Tracked in the Snow Country," is said to outshine all previous performances in his latest production. June Marlowe, the girl "with the soulful eyes," who has appeared with him again in "Below the Line" as the heroine May Barton. John Harron plays Donald Cass, an uncouth but kindly boy, who, together with May Barton, befriends Rinty.

Pat Hartigan, famous for his screen villainies, is the village bully, Jambor Niles, who attacks and robs a wealthy young woman and then attempts to steal the church funds from Donald; and Victor Potel appears as Jambor's half-witted brother.

The climax of the picture comes when the half-wit lets loose a pack of bloodhounds to follow Donald and May and Rinty flings himself at the pack. The terrific dog-fight, brutal as it looks on the screen, has the endorsement of the Santa Monica Humane Society for being filmed without injury to the dogs.

The annual exchange of pulpits took place on Sunday evening last when Rev. A. V. Morash, of Chalmers church, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church; Rev. D. J. McPherson preached in United (Methodist) church, and Rev. G. F. Dawson in Chalmers church.
