THE STORE OF QUALITY

ONE OF NATURE'S TREASURES

One of the greatest of Nature's treasures is amber.

Although its golden glow will never equal the sheen of the pearl, or the beam of the moonstone, it has a charm of its own in that it changes and deepens in color with the passing of time.

A string of beads, opaque and thick as honey, will be transformed in sixty years as to be almost transparent, reflecting the light, and only splashed here and there with the original cloudiness. Warmth to the touch is another of its peculiar qualities. It is a scientific fact that it is impossible to make synthetic amber, and the many imitations cannot deceive for a minute a true lover of the real thing. They all lack richness and the smooth feel of sun kissed wave washed resin of ages.

Greek philosophers commended the virtues of amber, and the Romans prized it as a gem. Craftsmen of the Middle Ages loved to adorn their handiwork with amber of every shade of color. The popular idea that it is always yellow is not the fact, for there is amber as dark as mahogany, amber as red as wine, and amber which has been hidden in the tombs of Egypt, nearly as black as jet.

Although the finest amber comes from the shores of the Baltic, it is found in all parts of the world, even far from the ocean. Good specimens have been collected from the English coast, and there is a story told by an author of the 18th century that it was once discovered in London, "between Tyburn and Kensington gravel pits, and likewise behind St. George's Hospital, near Hyde Park."

Flies in amber are very curious and interesting. Pope describes the impression that they give the beholder:
"The things, we know, are neither rich nor rare,

But wonder much how they got there."

A couple of almost perfect specimens, but from the trees in an Indian forest, are before me as I write. The insects are often seen, by the loss of their legs and wings, to have struggled vainly to escape, but in these pretty pieces, smooth and gleaming, a tiny spider and a fly are hardly spoilt at all. The bazaars of Algiers are famous for the sale of a most seducive scent called the Essence of Amber. It is very largely used in the making of many perfumes and medicines.

"My lad, do you know what becomes of little boys who use bad language while they are playing marbles?"
"Yes, sir; they grow up and play golf."

WEDDING BELLS

Pugsley-Weldon

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in Charlotte St. United Baptist Church, St. John, on Saturday evening, Jan. 9, when Rev. Dr. Freeman united in marriage Edna Beatrice Weldon, daughter of Mrs. B. H. Weldon and the late Capt. R. J. Weldon, to W. Thomas Pugsley, son of Mrs.
George Flomming, and grandson of the late honorable William Pugsley.

The bride looked charming in a dress of ashes of roses cut chenille and georgette, and wore a black hat, carrying a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gertrude Bolyea, who wore a lustrous color dress of cut velvet and georgette and wore a black hat, carrying an old fashioned bou-quet. Charles Jordan acted as best man. The bride was given away by her brother, Ernest S. Weldon, of Jackman, Maine, and entered the church with the bridal chorus was beautifully rendered by Stanley Stout, organist of the church. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion with evergreens and crystal trimmings. The gifts were numerous and beautiful, consisting of cut glass silver and linens. The groom's gift to the bride was a seal coat with sable trimmings, and to the bridesmaid an onyx ring, to the best man a set of gold cuff links. After the ceremony the happy couple, who were two of St. John's popular young people, left for Montreal and Niagara and other Canadian cities, with congratulations of many friends.

Forsythe-Kyle

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, Dec. 30th, at 3.30 o'clock, when Hazel Della Barbara, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas.
Kyle, became the wife of William Forsythe, of Rockville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Shev-an. The bride looked charming in navy blue tricot, with hat to match.
They were unattended. Mr. and Mrs.
Forsythe will reside at Rockville.

PASSED AWAY

Mrs. E. A. Thorne

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth A.
Thorne, widow of Dr. B. S. Thorne, occurred in Havelock at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Fowles, on Thursday evening the 7th inst, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Thorne was 64 years of age and leaves to mourn four sisters, Mrs. W. H. Fowles, Mrs.
H. A. Keith, both of Havelock; Mrs.
M. A. McNeill of Marysville, N.B., and Mrs. John Frost, of Hampton; and three brothers, Dr. L. H. Price of Moncton; Clifford W. Price, of Petitcodiac, N. B., and John C. Price, of Conrad, Montana. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock from her late residence in Havelock.

Mrs. Sarah Byrne

On Thursday last the funeral of Mrs. Sarah Byrne took place from her late residence, Queen St., to St. Francis Xavier Church, where many assembled to pay their last respects. The pall bearers were Mr. Justice Byrne, Dr. T. Ives Byrne and Felix Byrne, sons of the deceased, and her son-in-law, Duferin W. Harper. Solemn High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. Father Hannigan, with Rev.
Father McDermott, of St. John, as deacon, and Rev. Father O'Brien, of Norton, as sub-deacon. Rev. Father Ward presided at the organ. The remains were afterwards conveyed to Norton, and following a short service at the Sacred Heart church, were interred in the family lot.

Many Mass cards, in memoriam, and beautiful floral tributes were received from friends.

John Tait

John Tait, of Ward's Creek, Kings County, passed away in the General Public Hospital, St. John, on Tuesday, aged 43 years. He is survived by two sisters and one brother. The sisters are Mrs. John Cogger, of Norton, and Mrs. Mary McCormack, St. John; the brother is Matthew Tait, of Penobsqui. Interment took place at Ward's Creek on Wednesday.

Mrs. G. Snyder

After several months' illness, Mrs.
George Snyder passed away at the home of her niece, Mrs. Wm. Elder, of Belleisle Creek, on Monday. Mrs.
Snyder was a daughter of the late Gamaliel Northrup, of Millstream, and resided all her married life at Snyder Mountain, until the death of her husband four years ago. Since then she has made her home with Mr. and Mrs.
William Elder, of Belleisle.

Mrs. Snyder was in the early sixties and was highly respected in her home community. Her children died in infancy. One half-sister, Mrs. Fred Murphy, of Millstream, is the nearest of kin. The funeral was held from the home of Mr. Elder, Belleisle, on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Sawdon, of Belleisle, officiated. Interment was in the family lot in the Snyder Mountain cemetery.

A man ran away with the wife of a neighbor. The local clergyman called upon the deserted husband to sympathize with him, but the man seemed singularly cheerful considering the nature of his loss. "It's too bad; too bad!" said the clergyman. "I understand that man who persuaded your wife to elope with him was your best friend." The husband smiled. "Yes," he said, "he was—and he is."

Most women long for a home with costly furniture and phonograph records which play on one side only.
