GARNETT

Jan. 11—The snow storm of Saturday has made the travelling somewhat difficult but today is much milder and we expect to see the roads in good condition before long.

Miss Margaret Dempster, of Saint John, is spending a few days with her parents here.

Among those who attended the Christmas tree at Loch Lomond were Misses Bessie and Margaret Porter, Misses Nelly and Myrtle Dempster, Mrs. J. C. Stewart and children, Mrs. Wm. Porter, Messrs. Thomas Porter, Robbie Porter, Harold Dempster, Holly Garnett, Arthur and Alex. Moore and G. E. Charlton. The evening was spent very pleasantly. A beautiful

8-day clock was presented to Mr. F. B. Waters, superintendent of the Sunday school and Miss Helen Waters, organist, was presented with a ladies' purse. The presentations were made by the Rev. Hugh Miller, pastor of Silver Falls United Church. Mr. Waters made a suitable reply.

Miss Margaret Porter, teacher, left on Saturday for Saint John where she will spend Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. A. W. Petch. On Monday morning she will go by train to her school at Lepreau.

Mr. Thomas Alexander and sons, of Silver Falls, have a crew of men cutting logs at Lower Garnett.

School re-opened on the 5th inst. with an enrollment of seventeen. G. E. Charlton in charge.

Messrs. Roy Gulliver, George Buchanan and Warren Richardson, of Rockville, Kings county, are engaged in the woods here.

The annual Christmas tree was held in the Garnett hall on Tuesday evening, Jan. 5th, and the seating capacity was filled. The decorations and mottoes were attractive and a large tree stood in one corner laden with good things. The programme which was well rendered, was as follows:

Hymn: "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks."

Carol—"First Nowell," by Wm. Jordan.

Recitation by Alice Hope.

Recitation by Roy Moore.

Chorus—"Xmas Time. Has Come Again."

Recitation by Kenneth Moore.

Recitation by Marguerite Garnett.

Carol—"Holy Night."

Recitation by Cleveland Moore.

Recitation by Ronald Garnett.

Reading—"An Interview with Santa Claus," by G. E. Charlton.

Carol service "A Mother. Poor. in Bethlehem."

Recitation by Andrew Dempster.

Recitation by Mary Stewart.

Recitation by Robert Stewart.

Carol, "Stars All Bright."

Recitation by Ernest Stewart.

Recitation by Nelly Dempster.

Recitation by George Moore.

Carol, "Once in Royal David's City."

Quartette "Joy to the World," by the Messrs. Helen and Edith Waters and Messrs. Walter and Gordon Waters, of Loch Lomond.

Address on the Nativity by G. E. Charlton.

Hymn, "The Year is Gone Beyond Recall."

At the close of the programme the children were given bags of candy, oranges, and presents, after which refreshments were served to all present.

Many thanks is due the Ladies' Auxiliary of Rothesay for donating the presents.

Rev. C. W. Follett acted as chairman and Miss Bessie Jordan presided at the organ.

FOLKINS

Jan. 11—Our school re-opened on Monday last with Mr. A. T. Patatone, of Westfield, in charge.

Rev. Harry Harrison is conducting special meetings in the Union church.

Berwick, assisted by Rev. Mr. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Cook spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Folkins.

Mrs. John Darling has returned home after spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Henry, Milltown.

Miss Blanche Steen has returned home after spending the holidays with friends in Saint John.

Miss Hazel Simpson after spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Simpson, Sheba, has returned to Mr. Fenwick Folkins's home, where she is spending some time.

Miss Blanch Steen spent Wednesday guest of Miss Elma Folkins.

Mr. David Folkins made a business trip to Sussex on Monday.
