

Local News

—Be sure and keep your good resolutions.

—The Collina Agricultural Society will hold its monthly meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 12, in the Collina Hall.

—Appointments of Rev. W. J. Hamilton for Sunday next are as follows: Lower Millstream 11 a.m.; Collina 3 p.m.; Apohaqui 7.30 p.m.

—The estate of the late Hon. A. R. McClellan, at one time Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick, has made a bequest of $20,000 to Mount Allison University.

—At the Communion service held in the Baptist church after the close of the evening service, last Sunday, seven candidates received the right hand of fellowship, and were admitted to membership in the church.

—The Women's Missionary Society of Newtown will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. Silas J. Schofield, on Saturday, January 9th, at 2 o'clock. Collection will be taken for the rest fund at that meeting.

—The United (Methodist) church Sunday school held its annual Christmas tree and treat in the vestry on Thursday evening last. A short programme was given by the scholars after which the good things from the tree were distributed and all enjoyed a pleasant evening.

—The Royal Arena is enjoying a generous patronage this season, under its new management. The ice is in excellent condition, and the young folks during the holidays enjoyed themselves immensely. The rink band will be in attendance on Friday night and render a special programme.

Mr. Kenneth Schofield arrived in the city on Saturday, and returned on Sunday night to Montreal. Mrs. Schofield and Miss Barbara Schofield, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Angvine, Wright street, are leaving today for Sussex, where they will visit Mrs. Schofield's mother, Mrs. John E. Irvine, before returning to their home in Montreal. —Telegraph-Journal, 6th inst.

—New Years was ushered in without any display of festivity in Sussex, beyond the dance held in the Pythian Castle, which was largely attended, and a merry throng of young folks danced the old year out and the new year in. The sleighing was good on New Years day, but the custom of former years, of our local horsemen turning out with their trotters and pacers, was not indulged in.

—The Presbyterian churches of Sussex and Shediac have been successful in securing the services of the Rev. W. B. Macodrum as their pastor. Mr. Macodrum is a B. A. of Dalhousie College, Halifax, and is well known on the public platform, being a member of the debating team of that college, where his record as a public speaker was considered as one of the best. Mr. Macodrum is a nephew of Rev. Donald Macodrum, a former pastor of the Presbyterian church at Moncton.

—The demand has been so great for the Imperial's book tickets that their stock has been completely depleted. This was only intended for a Christmas offer, but as they have received so many complimentary comments upon the handiness of these tickets they have decided to have a new supply printed immediately and those now on the waiting list will be able to procure these tickets as soon as they are off the press. They will try and have them in time to include their Monday's picture "The Lost World."

—Mrs. Wm. Bustard, Mrs. W. Clark Elliott and Mrs. Nell Johnson were in Saint John on Wednesday attending the Presbyterian executive of the W. M. S. of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. The meeting was held in Knox Church and was attended by representatives from all parts of the Presbytery. The reports on the progress of the work were heard, and the programme drafted for the annual meeting of Saint John Presbytery next July. Accepting an invitation received from the Woodstock Society, it was decided to hold the annual convention in that place.

—The annual meeting of the Sussex Military Rifle Association was held at the Armouries on January 5th, at 8 p.m. The financial standing of the Association was found to be in first class condition and 1926 is being looked forward to as being the best since the organization of the club. A number of new members have already joined for the year to take advantage of the indoor shooting on the miniature range. All wishing to join and all regular members are requested to attend a meeting to be held in the Armoury on Saturday, the 9th inst, at 8 p.m. for the purpose of forming teams for indoor shooting.

—Problems in connection with the use of crushed lime for farm use were discussed on Tuesday in Saint John at a conference of the manufacturers of the commodity with representatives of the Provincial Government and the Canadian National Railways. Hon. Lewis Smith, Minister of Agriculture, and Hon. L. P. D. Tilley, K.C., President of the Executive Council, represented the Government, and A. T. Weston, traffic manager of the Atlantic region, and A. J. Gray, local traffic manager, the railway. Among the questions discussed were matters arising out of contracts entered with the late government, and freight rates, which the farmers contended are too high to allow the lime to be used economically on the land. The Minister took the various matters under consideration.

—Rev. William McLeod will conduct services on Sunday next as follows: Smith Creek, 11 a.m.; Newtown, 3 p.m.; Jordan Mountain, 7 p.m.

—The ladies of the United (Methodist) church will hold their regular monthly supper in the vestry on Tuesday, January 12th, from 5 to 7.

THUR., FRI., SAT., JAN. 7-9

Hogan's Alley

The Livest, Fastest

Comedy Melodrama

Ever Filmed

The heartbeat of genuine "regular folks" sounds through the story of "Hogan's Alley." It's the love story of "Lefty" O'Brien, pride of the fight fans, and Patsy Ryan, pride of the Alley. And it's a thrill picture as well as a heart picture. You will see—the great Alley Fight; the Prize Fight; the Police Raid; Jim Jeffries, Ad Wolgast and other world's champions at the ringside; the Aeroplane chase; the Fight on the Train; the great Train Wreck; Ben Turpin, as the photographer; and fifty other great features.

Also 2 Reel Comedy

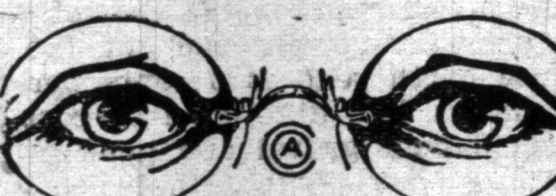

"THE TOURIST"

The New York Telegraph says: "Here is the best two-reel comedy that has been turned out this season (1925). It is a charming trifle, and there is every indication that in its star, Johnny Arthur, Educational has a real find. He is a delightful personality."

2 Shows of the Feature starting at 7.30 and 9.

1 Show of the Comedy starting at 8.30.

EYES EXAMINED, GLASSES GIVEN

How many times in a day do people rub their eyes and say: "Gracious! I've had kind of a headache all day," and then proceed to take a dose of something. They never think their eyes have anything to do with it.

If you have headaches, pains in or around your eyes, soreness, top or back of the head, etc., our Proper Fitting Glasses relieve these troubles.

Glasses sold on easy payments if preferred.
