HAVELOCK

Dec. 30—The Women's Institute held their December meeting at the home of Mrs. G. H. Fowles on Saturday evening. Plans were made for a New Years' supper in aid of the Interprovincial Home at Coverdale. After the business was transacted much interest was taken in a book contest. Mrs. N. W. Coates was prize winner. Dainty refreshments were served by the committee in charge. Mrs. D. R. Keith, Mrs. LeB. Dimock and Mrs. F. Perry. The play entitled Aaron Slick from Punkin Crick was given in the public hall on Christmas night, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Robinson, Mrs. C. D. Perry and Mrs. R. Rouse. The characters, Miss Irene Atkinson, Miss Winona Wortman, Miss Mildred Dunham, Miss Alice Hicks, Donald Hicks, Vaughn Keith and Geo. Robinson, acted their parts to perfection. A large audience thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment and showed its appreciation in hearty applause.

Jeffrey Bracegirde spent the Xmas holidays at his home in Halifax.

Jan. 4—The Women's Institute held a chicken supper in the public hall on New Years night and the sum of $54 was realized.

Messrs. Ferris, Cunningham, Manx and Hughes were in the village today.

The young people of the village and vicinity held a dance in the public hall on New Years evening.

They're underground who overeat.

WHERE IS HE?

"Papa," cried little Ethel, running into the living-room in tears, "a man knocked my candy out of my hand."

"Where is he?" demanded her father angrily. "I'll fix the brute!"

"I don't know, but his automobile is up on Mabel Johnson's porch and half way through the front of the house."

"Hardware Dealer: 'How d'ye come by that black eye, Si?'"

Farmer: "That old brindle cow had a way o' flickin' her tail in my face, so I tied a brick on it."

Who stays out of doors stays out of debt.
