

STUDENT SCANDAL

The latest while it's late

SAD INCIDENT

Friends of the University, here and elsewhere, will learn with regret that John Lambert has returned to Marysville.

RETURNED FROM SOUTH AMERICA

Ted Coffey has arrived at the University after a lengthy vacation on his plantation in Brazil.

Cheer up girls! A car ride has put many a girl on her feet again.

RARE CURIOSITY

Sauntering about the campus and meditating upon gems of thought collected from Rabelais, the writer came upon a remarkable specimen of the human race. His caste marks showed him to be a Freshman, one of that class that is the lowest in the social order.

The Freshman was talking and wondered if he would live to be a hundred years old.

"Do you smoke?" I asked.
"No!"
"Do you drink?"
"No!"
"Do you stay out late on wild parties?"

Still he replied, "No!"
"Then," I asked, "why do you want to live to be a hundred years old?"

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

Ex-blond: "No, we cannot tell you what will restore blond hair, but if you send a self-addressed, stamped envelope for reply, we will consult Dick Lee."

Inquisitive One: Yes. This summer, Nip Dryden's car was splashed by the mud of many a back road.

Hay Fever Victim: The best remedy we can think of is to keep away from the Normal Students until they get the hay-seed out of their ears.

Musician: Regarding the song "Reading Room Blues," which you submitted for our approval, although words are good, the air is bad.

INTER-CLASS SPORTS BEGIN

With the opening of the college term we find a large number of students in training for the bridge team. The two Chalmers and Fradsham will soon be in trim for the coming season. All three hope to make the team. It is hoped that there will be a large turn-out as the Brunswickan has donated a large cup to be competed for. This cup is now on display in Woolworth's window.

RAMROD, MIGHTY HUNTER

Bumps Elgee has returned from a successful hunting expedition; that is, successful as far as the safety of the ducks is concerned.

PERSONAL

Bill Richards, '31, and Gordon Neill, '31, have left for Harvard, where they are taking a course in business administration.

Jean Palmer, ex-'31, left for Toronto last Thursday.

Hesther Shute, ex-'31, left for Toronto on the 29th.

Jack Fraser, '32, whilst travelling on his Indian between Halifax and Yarmouth on the 1st of July, met with a serious accident, fracturing his foot. Rumour has it that he is attending Dalhousie.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS

Change of copy must be handed in to McMurray's Printing Office not later than the Saturday previous to the Thursday in which the copy is to appear.

GORDON JONES NOW ACTING COMMANDANT

Gordon Jones, Professor of Mathematics, has been recommended by the military committee of the University, to the post of Commanding Officer of the C. O. T. C., in succession to the late Col. Adam Cameron. Although official confirmation of the appointment has not yet been received from Ottawa, Prof. Jones is assuming his new duties tentatively at least.

The new Commandant has a splendid military record, having served overseas with the Canadian Expeditionary Force. After the war he resumed his scholastic pursuits, graduating from the University of New Brunswick in 1924. As a student here he was immensely popular and was one of the scrappiest footballers ever to grace the intercollegiate game. His new appointment should be a popular one.

NEW INSTRUCTOR

The death of Lt. Col. A. Cameron, involving the appointment of a new O. C., the arrival of the new Sergt. Maj. Instructor W. H. Clark, late of McGill, and the graduation of our official O. C. of last year, Capt. Gerald Malaher, all combine together to form the greatest change which our C. O. T. C. has ever undergone.

We have suffered a tremendous loss in the death of Lt. Col. Cameron, who founded and built up the unit. His work and example will be an inspiration to those carrying on.

We welcome the arrival of Sergt. Major Clark. Some of us who have seen him at work in Montreal, St. Johns (Que.), Ottawa and Fredericton believe him to be the ideal man for the job. If any man can smarten up our C. O. T. C. that man is Sergt. Major Nobby Clark.

chase of books by the society for distribution to the students. President C. J. Bocock put himself on record as vigorously opposed to the plan as it had proved financially impracticable in former years. However, as a purely protective measure members of the society will put up a bond to cover the purchase price, thus obviating the danger of ultimate financial embarrassment. In other words, Cecil, there's nothing to worry about this year.

Meanwhile new life must be injected into the desiccated bones of the association. For the past few years the society has existed as the sponsor of the hamperfest and an annual dance. All members paid dues to cover the cost of these gala social affairs. Except for an occasional debate which nobody attended but the debaters themselves, the intellectual phase of the society was left to run to seed.

U. N. B. BOOKSTORE THUMBS NOSE AT THE DEPRESSION

Books create in the minds of students various thoughts and reflections that change their moods according to their self interest in them. In this instance we hope to interest the reader by giving a resume of the origin of the U. N. B. Bookstore which is now in the second year of usefulness to at least seventy-five per cent. of our students.

Nearly two years ago a small but enterprising body of young men with no assets took upon their shoulders liabilities amounting to one thousand dollars and bought up the discarded volumes from many to whom a little ready cash was not to be overlooked. The first year these transactions amounted to sixty per cent. of the available finances placed to their credit, not an inconsiderable sum to spend upon an ideal in view of the fact, that they had to wait for many months to realize upon their enterprise and the many other risks which are unavoidable in the conducting of such a business.

This year the volume of business is even greater than the first and many hundreds of books and dollars have changed hands within the precincts of the U. N. B. that augur well for the future. Its success is a tribute to the originality and enterprise of the management especially when we realize the short period in which this business must be intensively handled. This gives its members a short but busy time outside the usual routine of college activities. However, this labour served a twofold purpose; it gives the departing student a ready marked for books discarded; it also

U. N. B. FORESTER WAS SPANKED

Senior Council Investigating

Edward Whittaker, Senior Forester, was kidnapped, manhandled and left bound and gagged in the Wilmot Park Saturday night. His assailants are unknown.

The Senior Council, the disciplinary body of the University Council, are undertaking the investigation and are determined to probe the affair to the bottom.

It is strongly rumored that the culprits are not university men.

Whoever the assailants were their plans were well laid. The bell of Whittaker's boarding house was rung at exactly 8.30 o'clock Saturday night. He was upstairs at the moment, and when he came down to answer the call his landlady told him that the boys were waiting for him outside in a car. He had barely reached the curb when the door swung open, eager hands were laid on his person (to say nothing of an oat bag on his head) and he was soon sprawling on the floor of the car. The kidnapers drove to Wilmot park, where Whittaker was bound, gagged, and blindfolded.

After rather a rough ritual the unfortunate Senior was left loosely bound on his hands and knees in the park. He quickly freed himself and reported the incident to fellow Seniors.

Meanwhile the Philo Vances of the campus are unravelling the mystery. Future developments will be chronicled in the Brunswickan.

enables every student to secure at once the books he needs.

While much of the financing has been done by successful borrowing it is the hope of the committee in charge to be able eventually to place this business upon a self-supporting basis.
