TINHORNS TAKE GAME FROM OLD IRONSIDES 4-2

On Saturday, Jan. 30th, a regular game in the Farm League was played between the Tinhorns and Old Ironsides. The final score was 4 to 2 for the Tinhorns.

In the first period the Old Ironsides had the better of the play, G. Coffey scored on Christmas' pass and the period ended 1 to 0 for Ironsides.

The second period started with the Tinhorns forcing the play, this was successful to the extent that they scored 3 goals in quick succession, from the sticks of Jack Fowler and Dike Chalmers. The period ended 3 to 1 for the Tinhorns.

In the final period both teams worked harder. The break came when Bob Chalmers scored unassisted to make the score 4-1. Two minutes before the final whistle MacAleenan gave Coffey a perfect pass in front of the net, to give the Ironsides another goal. The score remained unchanged at the final whistle. Lineups:

Tinhorns—Goal, McLenahan; Defence, Lambert, B. Chalmers; Forwards, D. Chalmers, Fowler and Fradsham.

Ironsides—Goal, Lee; Defence, MacAleenan, Peck, Coffey; Forwards, Christmas, Dawes, MacLeod, Ellis, Hyslop.

names, to indicate that this season's squad was chosen some weeks ago by some one. (?) Pre-season games are played for practice, practice is a means of picking the most efficient players and then building up a style of play to cover individual weaknesses.

Nine men were used in Friday's game and every effort was made by those nine to win—while McKnight and Watson watched the sixty minutes away. Both these men could have and should have figured in those sixty minutes; less time should be spent on talking "fight" and "win" and more to the development of players, in exhibition matches. Watson, a wing man who gave regular service with last year's squad, was not used in the game, while Johnston and Burke, the two promising Freshmen candidates, did service with "Henri" on one of the wings. A third defence man may be needed, if "Ted" Coffey's luck of past season's repeats, and what will McKnight be able to do without practice in games?

Minne and Ellis were steady, but the second string of Clavette, Johnston and Burke made more attempts at combination. Adams on first string right wing failed to back check on many occasions and allowed the Border men to leisurely go—once by him. Daughney and Goodine paired up well on the defence, while Dow is fast gaining mid-season form.

The 1932 squad have material and coaching that should (properly handled) win a championship for us and make money doing so.

Sport Ed. Note.—In conversation with Ted Coffey it was found that the two players, Watson and McKnight, were being held in reserve for the game with McAdam the next day. Due to the weather this game was not

ONWEGOS LOSE TO CO-EDS 31-19

Previous to the U. N. B. Trojan game the Co-eds defeated the Marysville "Onwegoes" 31 to 19, in a regular York County League game.

The game was fairly close and both teams played well. Harrison, Cremm and Burt were the pick of the Co-eds, while Watts and Inch starred for the losers. The game was not so rough as the Normal and U. N. B. Co-eds' game, each team having about the same number of penalties. Gert Cremm was again the "badman" of the game, this being the second time in successive games. Lineups:

Co-eds—Cremm 8, Foster 2, M. Neill 1, Guards; Harrison 10, Palmer 0, Centre; Burt 10, Mawhinney 1, Forwards.

Onwegoes—Pond 1, Bruce 4, Guards; Inch 6, McWain 0, Stafford 2, Forwards; Watts 6, Centre.

Referee—G. P. Gorman.

played. Also, the team which went on the ice was used by Stan Burgoyne as the best combination to be had. Manager Adams ordered the sweaters some time ago without the knowledge of Ted Coffey.
