PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

Peterson, '32, (when the embrace was over): "I'll be frank with you, you're not the first girl I ever kissed." Fitzsimmons, '34: "I'll be equally frank with you, you have a lot to learn."

RUBBING IT IN

Fletcher, '34: "Darling, are you thinking of me?"
Normalite: "Oh, was I laughing?
I'm sorry."

SOME HAND

Wetmore, '33: "How on earth did you bid no trump when I myself held three aces and four kings?" Griffin, '35: "I had one jack, two queens and three cocktails."

GOING SOME

Cougle, '35: "Yes, dad, I'm a big gun in First Year." Father: "Well, then, why don't I hear better reports?"

ENCORES AND MORE ENCORES

Stevenson, '34: "I could die dancing with you."
Owens, '34: "On with the dance."

C. O. T. C. COME-BACKS

Serg-Major: "Where is the balance of your rifle?"
Brewer, '35: "I don't know, sir, this is all the Q. M. gave me."

STRUCK IT RIGHT

Morgan, '35: "Do you think I'll ever be able to do anything with my voice?" Swift: "It might come in handy in case of fire."

JUST TOO BAD

March, '32: "I've had some bad news, and I'm really consternated." Adams, '32: "That's too bad. Have you tried All Bran?"

DO YOU KNOW

That there is said to be a restaurant in Fredericton which serves apple pie from which the seeds have not been removed.

A WEEKLY MATH PROBLEM

If it takes 30 years for a boy 6 feet yards; "B" has no trouble getting 260 on the average; "C" Can't do much better than 190, but he seldom takes more than one putt to a green. Who gets the best score?

On the Aran Islands of Ireland, the natives wear rawhide sandals which must be soaked in water every night and wet frequently during the day to keep them soft and comfortable.

Twenty years ago in New York, when dining was an art, a sumptuous dinner for two, with cocktails, wines and liquors cost about $12. Today the same dinner and liquors costs between $60 and $70.

ORCHESTRA
FOR PLAY

A special practice of the Concert Orchestra was held in the Reading room of the Geology Building on Saturday afternoon. All the members seemed to be in the mood to give full vent to their artistic impulses and the compositions "Overture to Der Friedrich" by Weber and the "March from the Prophet" by Meyciber were played with considerable finesse and artistry.

Dr. Toole hopes to see a large turnout of the members at these practices, as the time is very short before the Orchestra plays for "Mr. Pim Passes By."

you hear them say "mrs. moiglethold's hair is just the right shade for me!"
that of them giving DINNER PAR-TIES after dances.....aint we tired

ODE TO A DEAD HORSE
the bloody sun came up with a bang,
"no siwash tracks" he inquired thoughtfully,

the poop deck was a shambles & the birds they sang,

the teste fly growing worried him awfully,

lady alberta whinnied for to the mast
she was bound,

& his armour complained for want of oil,

since only the mains'l garbed her round!

as he softly snorted "I'll save the goli!"

& I thought as I ended this subtle lay, why are you living anyway?

STATE CONTROL

cultural problems. Finally the control by governments of the credit and financial structure would provide a means for price stabilization and prevent improper and ill-advised investment and would lead to a greater economic stability than has hitherto been known.

The fourth lecture of the series to be delivered next Saturday will be given over to the reconstruction of Democracy in order to allow for the changes advocated in the economic order.

Switzerland develops so much more hydro electric power than it needs that in the last year it exported over one billion kilowatt hours.
