SEMI-FINAL REACHED IN TOURNAMENT

Anderson-Bentley Team Qualifies for Final in Badminton Play. Two Matches to Be Played

Monday afternoon Anderson and Bentley advanced to the finals when they eliminated Wilson and Cameron by scores of 15-1, 10-15, 15-11.

These two have been playing consistently throughout and look good for the championship.

The tournament has been held up due to the absence of some of the entrants. These matches will be played as soon as possible.

First Round Matches Incomplete

1. Godfrey and Wood vs. Floyd and Sansom.

2. Cattle and Watson, bye.

First Round Matches Played

1. Pond and Burke defeated B. Anderson and McKnight, 7-15, 18-17, 15-10.

Second Round Matches

2. Wilson and Cameron defeated R. Anderson and R. March 15-6, 15-1.

3. Anderson and Bentley defeated A. Corey and D. Corey 2-15, 15-8, 15-7.

Third Round Matches

4. Anderson and Bentley defeated Wilson and Cameron 15-1, 10-15, 15-11.

CO-ED BADMINTON TOURNAMENT IS IN FULL SWING

Two Matches Played. Most of the Girls New to Tournament Play

The Girls' Badminton Tournament which was recently started by Ted Coffey is meeting with success. So far the matches stand:

Molly Burt and Gertrude Cremin defeated Helen Neill and Dorothy Palmer 15-7, 15-8.

Hilda McBride and Bertha Barton defeated Marjorie McMurray and Margaret Seeley 10-15, 15-11, 15-11.

Although most of the girls have never taken part in a tournament before, the matches are being hailed with enthusiasm. Thus a further advancement is being made in the girls' sporting activities in the college.

BASKETBALL NOTICE

The Varsity practice will be held Friday evening at 7.15. Everyone out and keep up the good turnouts. You all have a chance.

The Co-Eds will practice Friday afternoon at 4.00. Let's see more of you Juniors and Seniors.

SOPHOMORES IN SCORELESS TIE WITH SENIORS

The Best League Game of the Season—Many Casualties—Minue and Gilchrist out For First Time

"The Seniors are coming" and this fact is evident from the showing they made against the league leading Sophomores on Thursday, when they put up, what Instructor Coffey called, "the season's best tilt," playing two full periods with only two penalties being given to break its progress. Both teams went scoreless.

Friday morning found Brown favoring a shoulder, March nursing a tender nose and a bad ankle, and Prof. Kierstead sporting a cane to aid his injured leg, three examples of what the hard tackling did, and also what it would not do, for none of the above three held up the game when injured, but kept pounding the Sophomore line in their efforts to score.

Play was about even, the Seniors probably working harder. New faces, Minue, Gilchrist and Whittaker among the Seniors, argued for their future good showing, and will probably give them the balance of power in the determining of the final winners of the league.

The gallery complained of too much whistle for minor infractions, and grew fevered over play-off possibilities. The line-ups:

Sophomores—Forwards, Stevens, Lambert, Davenport, Miller, Monneman, Stevenson, Woods; halves, Freeze, D. Chalmers, Ed. Dooley; three-quarters, Hazelton, Walker, Baker, Campbell; fullback, Jardine.

SENIORS SPRING SURPRISE AS THE FROSH ARE HELD

Seniors Play Heads-up Ball—Whittaker and Grey Introduce Basketball Formulae Stands Filled to Capacity

Tuesday's calm was very much disturbed when the Senior leather chasers, striving to come out of their cellar position in the Interclass Rugby league, battled the balanced Frosh team to a scoreless tie, at College field.

The third place Freshmen, who as a team have given Ted's league its best exhibitions of Rugby, again experienced the power of class spirit and found a "ready to die" Senior blocking every opening that might have been a try, as they forced the play continually into Senior territory.

Both teams had good turnouts and the new faces in the line-ups gave good exhibitions although certain basketball formulae were made evident at critical points.

"Lank" Grey put a touch of "unintentional soccer" into the fray with his attempt to handle a long Frosh punt and his "heady" return evoked laughter and cheers from the gallery.

Prof. Burton Kierstead of the Senior line-up was marked closely by Lambert, who quickly saw where the brains of the upperclass team were centered.

Referee, "Ted" Coffey.

The line-ups:

Seniors—Forwards, Foster, Anderson, Cameron, Brooks, Simms, Gilchrist; halves, Prof. Kierstead, Brown; three-quarters, March, Grey, Jones, Whittaker; fullback, Peterson.

Frosh—Forwards, Kilburn, Currie, Thomas, McKnight, Ryan, Ogilvie; halves, Pond, Pringle, Love; three-quarters, Guimont, Pell, Keenan, McElman; fullback, Smith.

U.N.B. WINS FROM NORMAL SCHOOL IN FIRST GAME

Red and Black Basketeers in Ragged Game—Second Half Better—Old Players on Normal Team

On Monday evening of this week, U. N. B. played their first practice game of the season, downing a Normal School team 19-16.

In the first half, play was very loose, with little combination. Phil Currie scored first for U. N. B. about midway through the first half. Normal School played a better passing game than U. N. B., but were inaccurate in shooting. The score at half time was U. N. B. 8, Normal School 6.

The play in the second half was more like basketball, with both teams playing a fast passing game. The U. N. B. combination of Oldham, Christmas and P. Currie accounted for most of the scores of this half.

U. N. B. substituted frequently in order to try out new material. The most noticeable men were: Christmas, Currie, Oldham and Cuthbertson.

Of Normal School's five men, B. Currie and Thorburn were outstanding. The line-ups:

Normal School—Centre, R. Beatty; forwards, Thorburn, B. Currie; guards, MacAleenan, Atkinson.

U. N. B.—Centre, Oldham, Chandler, Freeze; forwards, Christmas, P. Currie, Cuthbertson, Cameron, Peterson, McCloskey, McKnight, Ellis; guards, Lee, Sadosky, Stephens, Moore, Watson.

CO-EDS WORKED OUT FRIDAY IN GYMNASIUM

Due to the holiday, basketball practice for the Co-Eds was sadly neglected.

Friday afternoon a few of the girls managed to tear themselves away from their studies and turn out. However, the Fashion Show seemed to seriously hinder the turn out.

Ted put the girls through their paces, paying special attention to ball-handling, close-in shooting and "foul" shooting.

Up till this practice, the turn-outs have been good. It is to be hoped that the practices will take on a new lease of life. So watch the bulletin board, girls, and turn out for the next practice, every last one of ye!

Scanning the Sports Horizon

The University of New Brunswick are Maritime Intercollegiate Champions again. Last year the championship was taken by default from St. Francis Xavier.

Acadia and U. N. B. played one of the best games seen in the Maritimes this year. There was absolutely no "crabbing" or attempts to "get" anyone at any time and nothing but the finest sportsmanship was exhibited by both teams.

Bus McLennan provided the highlights of the game with his try, penalty kick and field goal for a grand total of ten points.

And now we have the City game.

We have as yet to see a "game" so completely ruined as was this one. It is fortunate for English Rugby that there were not more spectators present.

Bus McLennan again turned the trick with a beautiful placement kick from 30 yards out. The penalty was given for heeling the ball before it had passed three feet, after the City had been warned several times by the referee.

The game was protested by the City on the grounds that the ball was moved four feet nearer the goal posts from the point which Referee Cass had marked as a line for the kick.

Granting that the ball was moved, it seems that the time to protest was before the kick was taken. Of course the idea was to say nothing if the ball missed the posts and to protest if it were good. This does not seem like a sportsmanlike attitude to say the least.

We understand that Mr. Cass has taken just about everything in the way of insults over the week-end. He has been assaulted by the notorious, given the "Lie Direct," accused of selling the game, and for personal reasons having been the sixteenth man on the Red and Black team.

Considering what most of you owe Bertie Cass we are forced to believe that there is something missing somewhere. He would be the last man in the city of Fredericton to be guilty of any of these accusations and no one feels it any more than he does. It would seem that a number of apologies were in order.

According to "referee" Chestnut a try was scored by the City. According to Bill McNichol the ball was planted firmly on his chest. We fear Chestnut had his eye on the wrong ball.

And now for the Wanderers of Halifax. What a surprise they sprang in eliminating the Caledonians. It rather looks like the McCurdy Cup for Halifax this year, but then, football is an uncertain game.

"Tiny" Herman, place kicker extraordinary of the Wanderers' forwards, in conversation with Ted Coffey some time ago, said that he hoped to get down to 255 pounds for the football season. And that is not all. When their backfield tackles a man, he stays tackled.

Clint Gammon, who has been attending a series of lectures for the past month has left for Charlottetown with the Fredericton Hockey Team. He looks like the logical choice for captain this year.

Si Keenan, former U. N. B. hockey star, was unable to make the trip, preferring his job to a hockey career.

Every sport has its heroes. In a game between Illinois and Michigan in 1924 "Red" Grange was given the ball five times and scored five touchdowns. He ran 95-67-56-45 and 15 yards in making this record and scored four of them within twelve minutes of the first period.
