INTERCLASS GAME GOES TO JUNIORS SIX TO NOTHING

Some Good and Bad Play. Seniors Out-classed. New Players

Playing the Upper Canadian quota, of eleven a team, the Junior Ruggers proved too much for the Seniors, Saturday morning, trimming them six to nothing.

Several of our Upper Canadian classmen participating their first game of Rugby, made very credible showings; and became a little warmer in their praise of our adopted game.

Stan Harding bounded, bumped, and bulled his way to score two tries while the opposing Seniors (assisted by members of the Junior class who filled the vacancies left by unattending Seniors) went scoreless.

The usual lack of punting in the defence area, plus an unusual tendency towards roughness was noticeable through the entire game.

Harding scored the first try late in the first half, after upending Scotty Thomas, Junior member of the Senior lineup; Clavette's attempted convert failed. The second try was the result of a passing bout ending in a twenty yard run by the big Junior. His own attempt to convert fell short.

George Foster, Senior front liner was probably the outstanding player of the contest, his aggressive plunges and long dribble just fell short of scoring on several occasions.

The lineups:

Seniors—Forwards, M. Thomas, G. Foster, D. Anderson, Bedell, S. Thomas; halves, Brown, Harris; three-quarters, March, Cameron, Brooks, Peck.

Juniors—Forwards, Dernier, A. Gorman, Cassidy, Christmas, Baldwin; halves, Floyd, Clavette; three-quarters, Clark, Moore, Harding, Richards. Referee, Ted Coffey.

JUNIOR—SOPH.

The Juniors defeated the Sophs in a scheduled interclass game on Queen's Square diamond Tuesday afternoon by a score of 17-0.

The Juniors played bang-up ball behind Christmas' pitching, while the Sophs were far from alight behind Dick Chalmers' twisters.

Nonneman pulled several fine catches for the Sophs., while Harding and Clavette pulled some lofty ones for the Juniors.

The lineups:

SOPHOMORES

Dooley c.; Chalmers p.; Miller 1b.; Berry 2b.; Disbrow 3b.; Nonneman s.; Webb 1f.; Dawes c.f.; Chandler r.f.; Colpitts r.f.

JUNIORS

SENIOR—FROSH

The Frosh easily disposed of the Seniors by the score of 6-4, completely outplaying them in every department. Lineups:

FROSH.

SENIORS

Ellis, Adams, Peck, Peterson, March, Gray, Whittaker, Naves, McAndrews.

SOPHS.—SENIORS

The Seniors continued their losing streak and dropped another to the Sophs., 6-2.

The regular teams were on the field and both played heads-up ball. Dike Chalmers was invincible, however, and only allowed the fourth year men four hits.

SENIOR-JUNIOR—FRESHETTES

After having the game "in the bag" with a five run lead the Freshettes wilted and dropped their second straight to the Senior-Junior nine by the score of 13-12.

CLASS SOFTBALL GETS UNDERWAY

Friday afternoon saw the opening of the Interclass Softball Leagues, with three games played, Seniors beating the Juniors by the score of 8-5, the Sophomore-Freshmen game ending in a 15-7 win for the first year men and the Sophettes overwhelming the Freshettes to the tune of 18-7, to take first place in their league.

The games were under the direction of Physical Instructor Ted Coffey.

SENIORS—JUNIORS

Gathering in enough runs in the first two innings to win and adding two more in the seventh the fourth year men downed a fighting Junior nine to take the initial game of the season, 8-5.

The highlights of the game were the phenomenal pitching of Christmas and a lusty three bagger by Peterson.

Following is the lineup:

Seniors—Lee c.; Walker p.; Oldham 1b.; Peck 2b.; Nares 3b.; Brown s.s.; M. Andrews 1f.; Foster r.f.; Peterson r.f.; March 1f.; McNichol s.s.

Juniors—Gorman c.; Christmas p.; Goodine 1b.; Hoyt 2b.; Gorham 3b.; Moore s.s.; Brown 1f.; Horsman c.f.; Peters r.f.; McNaughton s.; Fulton s.s. Umpire, Ted Coffey.

SOPHOMORE—FRESHMAN

Completely outplaying the Sophomores in every department of the game the Frosh ran away with their first game, 15-7.

Patterson led the attack for the winners with a home run and two doubles driving in seven runs and scoring four himself.

Scanning the Sports Horizon

There seems to be a difference of opinion as to whether the Trojan game was or was not a good one, but at any rate it was closely contested.

It was a good game from Burdo's view-point, showing several weaknesses in no uncertain manner.

From the wealth of evenly matched material on hand Saturday it seems that one of Burdo's big jobs will be to choose the final fifteen to represent the college.

* Captain Douglass was forced to watch the game from the sidelines because of an injured knee received in practice. He will be back in the lineup this week.

Woods was also out of the game, but it is pretty well known what Bus can do.

A newcomer, Burke, the pocket edition of Squank Dugan, former F. H. S. Acadia and McGill star, was also unable to play through a minor injury to his shoulder.

Tommy Corbett, captain of the Trojans, and their outstanding tackler who was injured in a collision with Adams Saturday was not seriously hurt as was thought and has been out to practice this week.

The use of the Fredericton Golf course has been very kindly offered by the club to U. N. B. men who are members of clubs in their home towns.

Kato Keene, Ced Woods and Bev. Macaulay, former U. N. B. stars and members of the famous team of '26, are playing their usual games with M. A. A. A. in Montreal this year.

Judging from Wanderers overwhelming defeat at the hands of Caledonia last week, those wishing to "get a crack"—an expensive one by the way—at the Cape Breton fifteen will probably have two opportunities to do so.
