JUNIOR FROSH GAME ENDS IN SIX-ALL TIE

Clark Saves Game for Juniors with Spectacular 90 Yard Run. Feeling Runs High

In a scheduled inter-class game the Juniors played the Frosh to a six-all tie Saturday morning on the Queen's Square field. The Frosh had the better of the play and forced matters throughout, only the never say die spirit of their opponents saving the game.

The Juniors showed, as in previous games, that they have the material but are still groggy on the points of Rugby. Prominent for them throughout was touch judge Peterson, who gained many yards in combination with his assistants Bill McNichol and Clint Gammon.

The Frosh kicked off and forced the play to the five yard line to a scoring position where Keenan played over for the first try. Score 3-0.

After this try the Juniors forced the play but soon lost control of the ball and the Frosh marched down the field in an unorthodox dribble, Pond falling on the ball for the second try. Score 6-0.

Play see-sawed back and forth and after a fine kick and follow up Ellis scored a try for the Juniors as the whistle ended the half. Score 6-3.

With the opening of the second half some of the boys started a light work-out in anticipation of the coming boxing season and were immediately banished by Referee McAleenan, who would have none of it.

The Frosh forced the play again but made an error on their ten yard line and Clark, the Jack Elder of the day, raced ninety yards to tie the score, 6-6.

Territory play was about even for the rest of the game, both teams being forced to touch for safety as the advantage alternately changed hands.

The line-ups:
Juniors—Fullback, Thomas; three-quarters, Moore, Richards, Fulton, Clarke, Harris; halves, Johnson, Bedell; forwards, Christmas, Anderson,

THE FRESHMEN TRIM SENIORS AT 11th HOUR

Pond Scored with End of Game in Sight Following Senior "Bonehead" Territory Play Even

The Seniors' failure to drop out their touch down late in the second period probably accounted for the 3-0 trimming given them by the Freshmen at Queen's Square, Tuesday afternoon.

Pond, ball-half for the Freshmen, scored in a short run around the scrum which was called, on the Senior five yard line following the "bonehead."

Play throughout the game was even. Prof. Burton Kierstead leading the Senior boys on fine infield tactics and following up to advantage.

Peck and Peterson were other outstanding Seniors. The Freshmen scrum showed strength on throw-ins and tackling. Keenan, Freshman fullback, was always effective. The line-ups:

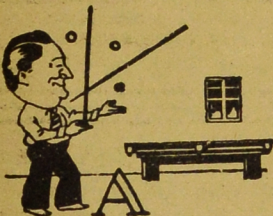

Freshmen—Keenan, Patterson, Benson, Pond, Wood, McElman, McKnight, Olmstead, V. Currie.
Seniors—Foster, Anderson, M. Thomas, Simms, March, Grey, Prof. Kierstead, Peck, Peterson.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE

Candidates for Varsity Basketball will be called out Friday evening at 7.15 in the gym. The practice will consist for the most part of ball handling and shooting.

The Co-eds will practice Friday afternoon at 4.15.

Baldwin, Cassidy, Gorman, Russel, Dernier, Ellis.
Frosh—Fullback, Smith; halves, Pond, Pringle, Love; threequarters, Guilmont, Pell, Keenan, McElman; forwards, Kilburn, Currie, Thomas, Ogilvie, McKnight, Cunningham, Ryan.

FRESHETTES WIN CO-EDS LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

Sophettes Force Playoff Series to Four Games. Many home Runs. Marj. McMurray in Bob Grove Role

FIRST GAME

A softball game was scheduled to be played between the Freshettes and Sophettes on Wednesday. The Freshettes won by default, as a full Sophette team failed to make an appearance.

However, the fans did not go home disappointed as the "chivalry" of the twentieth century youth came to the rescue of the weaker sex. An exhibition of "mixed" softball was given.

Marjorie McMurray and her "all Stars" composed of Molly Burt, Ethel Lamson, Verna DeWitt, Don Adams, Dick Lee and Dwight Chalmers immersed victorious over Mary Owens and her "Shamrocks" with a score of 11-9. Captain Owens was ably assisted by Edith Simms, Dorothy Russell, SI Oldham, Ted Coffey, Johnnie Patterson and Herb Dernier.

Cheer after cheer from the "thousands" of fans rent the air as Oldham and Adams each bagged a homer. A particular feature of the game was the vigorous way in which Oldham handled first base, and (incidentally) anyone who dared go near it.

"Dip" Fulton acted as referee and chaperon.

SECOND GAME

On Thursday afternoon, the Freshettes defeated the Sophettes, 23-16, in a scheduled softball game.

The Sophettes agreed that two upper-class girls be in the line-up for the Freshettes.

Two home-runs were made, one in the first inning for the Sophettes, and one in the second for the Freshettes.

The line-ups:
Freshettes—M. Neill, c.; M. McMurray, p.; R. Smith, 1b.; V. DeWitt, 2b.; E. Simms, 3b.; B. Steeves, s.s.
Sophettes—G. Cremin, c.; H. Neill, p.; D. Bailey, 1b.; M. Lee, 2b.; R. Hanson, 3b.

THIRD GAME

Friday afternoon, the Sophettes defeated the Freshettes 25-23, in a closely contested game.

Marjorie McMurray turned in a good game of pitching for the Freshettes.

The line-ups:
Sophettes—M. Owens, c.; G. Cremin, p.; D. Palmer, 1b.; D. Bailey, 2b.; R. Hanson, 3b.; M. Burt, s.s.; H. Neill, 1f.; C. Cain, r.f.

Freshettes—D. Russell, c.; M. McMurray, p.; R. Smith, 1b.; V. DeWitt, 2b.; E. Simms, 3b.; I. Smith, s.s.

FOURTH GAME

On Saturday morning, the concluding game of the league was played between the Freshettes and Sophettes. With the winning of this game, the Freshettes took the leadership of the Co-Eds Softball League.

The Sophettes clouted three homers and the Freshettes one. The line-ups:
Freshettes—M. Neill, c.; M. McMurray, p.; R. Smith, 1b.; D. Russell, 2b.; E. Simms, 3b.; I. Smith, s.s.

Sophettes—M. Owens, c.; H. Neill, p.; D. Bailey, 1b.; G. Cremin, 2b.; R. Hanson, 3b.; M. Burt, s.s.

Caledonia Defeat

handing passes which seemed destined to fall behind and short of him; Burke played his usual effective and heady game, making some pretty saves in the second.

"Bus" McLennan playing inside was steady and effective, his usual trusty toe suffered from "stage fright" or the like, and his kicks had too much "English" to be lucky.

The halves, Patterson and Chalmers, both put in hard games, Patterson showing commanding insight at times, and easy ability at others.

Lee, Pond and Pickard were the pick of the scrum, with their smashing runs and hard tackling, "Pinch" showing unusual speed for his weight.

Goodline and Captain Douglas were close behind, Goodline showing up well in the opening stanza.

MacLeod and Oldham encountered the same troubles as did the backs—having too many men to take care of at once—they both put in hard games.

There is no need for depression on the part of the players, there is no calling for criticism, but there is a great deal of honor due the individuals of such a hard fighting, excellent team which can carry defeat, after such a battle, with such grace.

terson, halves; MacLeod, Goodline, Douglass, (Capt.), Oldham, Lee, Pond, Pickard, forwards.

Scanning the Sports Horizon

Just about the smoothest working football team ever to grace these parts was seen in action Saturday afternoon when Caledonia won the right to represent the Maritimes in further McTier Cup play-downs.

Jerry McCarthy, coach of the Cape Breton fifteen, said that the majority of his advances were made on U. N. B. misplays and if it had not been for our heavy scrum his backfield would have shown us something.

And that is that.

Those in the stands could not help but notice the extreme solitude of the U. N. B. ball-carrier in contrast with the little regiment which always accompanied the Caledonia man on his trips goalward.

The boys, with one or two exceptions, gave their best and lead by Big Doug contested every yard in a way that made even our most lax supporters stand up and yell their heads off.

One man who deserves a lot of credit is Jack Fowler, who did the hardest day's work of his college career in his efforts to follow that Caledonia-propelled ball around the field.

And now for the Mt. A. game, a much more important victory than winning the McTier Cup would have been. At least from the students' point of view.

It was rumored that Mt. A. scouted the Caledonia game. American colleges have always made a practice of this. The late Knute Rockne, however, insisted on keeping the thing above board so he made it a point to advise his opponents by telegram when he intended "getting the dope" on their plays.

After witnessing "the classics" at College Field this year I have come to the conclusion that a school of touch judges would be in order. It might work in conjunction with Mr. Cass' proposed school for referees.

At a recent Union meeting Alec Gray was presented with a medal and Miss Ruth Hanson with a cup in recognition of their being high point winners in the recent track meet.

Jack Vaughan, prominent City forward, is captain of the fifteen, taking the place vacated by Bull when he accepted a position at Peterborough, Ont.

Leo Cain, who several years ago coached the U. N. B. fifteen, has been named to direct the City team for the remainder of the season. From all reports things are brightening up at Queen's Square.

Dave Gorman showed fine sportsmanship in refusing to take the tennis title from George Johnston by default. George is gradually winning his struggle with blood poisoning.

A fine tripple play was pulled in the Freshette-Sophette playoff game for the softball title. Which reminds us of the old days of Tinker to Evers to Chance.

Boutiller, T. Jackson R. Jackson, Hyiski, three-quarters; McLean, MacMullin, McDonald, halves; G. Nicholson, Crocker, Leslie, (Capt.), Lawler, Wadman, D. Nicholson, MacNeil, forwards.
Referee—Gunn, Montreal.

In this high speed production age, it still requires nearly a year, to make the parts, assemble, regulate and complete the manufacturing of a good watch.
