

St. Dunstan's Edges U. N. B. 4-3 at Saint John

U. N. B., Mt. A. Clash There Mon. Night

Sports Slants

BY DAVE DICKSON

Last night saw U. N. B. enter its second league game under the tutelage of a new mentor, "Snap" Thompson. Doc Akins who has handled the team up to present has been forced by pressure of other duties to give up the coaching assignment. Although we regret that Dr. Akins has found it necessary to tender his resignation, we feel that the Red and Black hockey squad will be able to carry on very favourably under its new coach, and that added stimulus may be injected into the team.

Thompson has had wide and varied experience in maritime sporting circles and should be able to impart a vast store of hockey lore to his proteges. There will certainly be no slackness, as has been evidenced already in his first practices.

Our hopes for the season were rather highly built up by encouraging wins in exhibition contests. However, the tie at St. Thomas was most discouraging, especially after their 9-3 defeat by St. Dunstons. True that the squad suffered a great blow in the loss of Bill Napier. Still, however, we expected something more than a tie. One spectator at the game, who incidentally knows his stuff classified it as merely a poor brand of river hockey. Undoubtedly U. N. B. will have to make a better showing against the other teams in the loop if she has any hope of taking the title. However, every thing's not lost as yet and we look to better results in the remaining games.

"There'll be a hot time in the old town to-nite"—thus will Saint John citizens sing all day Monday, if previous encounters between the Garnet and Gold and the Red and Black can give any indication of the enthusiasm accompanying their clash on the Forum ice there Monday evening. A great many U. N. B. followers will accompany their team, as will no doubt a considerable number of Mt. A. followers also. Enthusiasm shall reach a high level and let's everybody remember that good old college spirit can do a great deal towards securing a win.

However, excessive exuberance often leads to destruction of property, etc., and so let us curb our display of enthusiasm to a reasonable extent. Let us remember that it is our home game, that we are the hosts, and thus should do nothing which would cause a degrading of the name of our Alma Mater. The charge is reasonable, the almanac says fine weather, the sports writer prophesies a win over Mount A.—so why not everybody in the college go along and make the trip a real success. We might even get some kind of a college band together. The surest way to do your share is to get your ticket immediately.

Ski Meeting Called

A meeting of the newly formed U. N. B. Ski Club will be held today at noon in the Arts Building, it was announced Thursday. Consideration will be given to the matter of sending two representatives to the New Denmark meet and two to the meet at Dalhousie on February 17th and 18th rather than four to the former.

Lack of snow in this vicinity has made ski excursions by bus unwarranted so far this season, but with the first heavy snow it is expected that the club will take advantage of the Royal Ski Club terrain several miles from the city.

Many Supporters To Accompany Team

The old town of Saint John will most likely be painted red (with some black also) this coming Monday eve as those two perennial adversaries, Mount A. and U. N. B., oppose each other in their first intercollegiate hockey conflict of the present season. This will be the first league start for the Garnet and Gold while U. N. B. has already tied St. Thomas 3-3.

Indications at present are that a large number of followers will entrain for the Foggy City to support the Red and Black in what they hope will be a victory. Earlier in the week the S. R. C. decided that the contest which is a home game (Continued on Page 5)

Red Machine Takes Interclass Lead

Sophomores Also Win

The mighty Red Machine of the Seniors continued its victory march in the Interclass league last week-end, but have the indomitable Sophs right on their heels in a winning streak of their own. But here's your rinkside reporter's account of the ice antics (the play was so fast he missed part of it).

Senior 4—Juniors 1

In the first game of Seniors vs. Don "Deacon" MacLean the score was finally 4-1 for the Seniors who are proving to be the team to beat.

Blondy George Fletcher "the Doctor to be" carved his way through a wall of living flesh and scored a goal on Flash Reagan who hopped in the wrong direction to stop it. Brebner took one of his end to end dashes and of course landed up in a corner but his speedy companion Doug Page and Demon Holmes were parked at the goal mouth and between them they tied Regan up again and Holmes shot Brebner's pass into the net.

The Rogers played an important part in the Seniors power play and as the pressure was turned on Deacon MacLean was the spearhead of the Junior attack and as he missed the puck he said something about a certain warm place and shocked the railbirds. It was all right because he apologized. Re- (Continued on Page 5)

"SNAP" THOMPSON SUCCEEDS AKINS

Doc Akins Resigns

Harold "Snap" Thompson, well known local and Maritime hockey player, has been appointed coach of the N. B. hockey squad, subsequent to the resignation of Dr. J. T. Akins. Due to pressure of his duties as provincial veterinarian, Dr. Akins has found it necessary to relinquish his post. Practice and games up to the St. Thomas contest had been in his charge.

"Snap" Thompson has had a distinguished hockey career and is expected to give added impetus to the U.N.B. attack. Last year he played defence for Glace Bay Miners and later in the season was playing coach of the North Sydney Victorias. He had previously played several seasons with Fredericton Capitals and has also had wide experience in maritime baseball circles.

It is understood that negotiations for the reinstatement of Bill Napier, captain of the squad, who was declared ineligible last week have as yet been unsuccessful.

Red and Black Two Up, Then Outskated

St. Dunstan's University of Charlottetown last night took their second consecutive league win of the season when they edged out Snap Thompson's Red and Black squad 4-3 at Saint John in a game that was close all the way.

U. N. B. forged ahead in the first period with goals by Perley (from Connacher) and Logie, but the Red and White evened up matters by the end of the second, making the count 2-2.

The third period was the teller with U. N. B.'s one goal by Lockhart overshadowed by their foes' two. The Red and Black completely dominated St. Dunstan's in the first period but better conditions began to tell in the middle session as the Islanders outskated the Red and Black.

U.N.B.'s Line-up: Ross, Logie, Lake, Connacher, Baptiste, Lockhart, Lutes; Perley, Ritchie; McAllister, Marquis, Colby.
