

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

by
MARY NEVILLE '40

The Annual Alumnae Tea was held this year on Saturday, November 4th at the home of Mrs. H. F. MacLeod. The guests included the Junior Girls, the Sophettes, the Freshettes, the wives of the faculty and the members of the Alumnae of the University of New Brunswick.

In the receiving line were Mrs. MacLeod, Mrs. Jas. Badcock, president of the Alumnae, and Mrs. J. Miles Gibson, vice-president of the Society.

The guests were invited to the dining-room by Mrs. B. W. Harmon, where Mrs. C. C. Jones and Mrs. W. C. Kierstead presided over the tea and coffee cups. The tea table was tastefully arranged with yellow and bronze mums, and yellow tapers at different points. Mrs. R. B. Vandine, Mrs. Harry Moore and Miss Ethel Thurrott replenished. Assisting were Miss Louise Thompson, Miss Margaret Clark, Miss Millicent Ramsay, Miss Elizabeth Jones, Miss Ruth Hanson, Miss Molly Burt, Miss Dorothy Hughes, Miss Louise Sterling and Miss Doris Bagley.

Miss Mabel Sterling cut the ices in the library where the table was centred with a large bouquet of purple asters which were also in graceful clusters about the room.

Miss Jane C. Vinton was the convener of the tea and Miss Jean Anderson was the convener of decorations.

Friends will be glad to know that Doris Fleiger '41, who was injured in an automobile accident last week, is feeling much better. Doris will be back up the hill next week.

The sympathy of the student body is extended to Mac Keswick '41 and Bob Keswick '37, on the recent death of their father in Hartland.

Pat Murphy '40 attended the Law School Ball in Saint John on Friday last.

Colin McKay '42 went home last week-end to see his girl friend.

So you're praying for a crop failure.

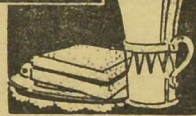

Yep, I've sown a bunch of wild oats.

The freshman wrote a letter a week To the girl he left behind him. But while he's here he's a willing catch.

If you take the trouble to find him. The Gateway.

As a general rule when a young man is in love he thinks nothing is good enough for her but himself.

Hiya, everybody—I've been so busy hunting empty paint cans that I haven't had time to hunt for you. But you just wait . . . the Residence Dance and Christmas are coming soon.

Do I need glasses, Patty, or was I right?

I'm awfully glad you found out in time—T (G) erry.

Watt does this all mean, Mary?

Norma certainly thinks "there's something about a soldier."

It was a nice Bill-board before you got there, Jack!

She loved to spend her time among the boilers.

Nice Present. You know what I mean !!!
Dedicated to Bill: C. F. N. B.

Answer these:
What has Reg. got that some others have got, too? Which way does the wind blow on a windy day? What's her name, John? Have you found out yet, B? Who painted Bobby Burns? Who upset the applecart? Who am I going to the Residence Dance with?

HINT FOR ALL SNOOPERS:

I go to bed at night.

Bye-bye now,
SNOOP.

P. S.—My ankles are nice.

Les Hoar, president of the S. R. C. has issued the following message to the Brunswickan in regard to the football teams' 6-3 victory over St. F. X. to gain the Maritime Crown: "To the coaches, manager, captain, and members of our victorious football team, I wish to extend the congratulations of the entire student body. In winning the Maritime title they have won, I am sure the sincere gratitude of every undergraduate, and friends of old U. N. B. To Coach Cass we say 'Well Done' to the boys 'We're Proud of you.'"

Soph: "Come on, take a bath and get cleaned up. I'll get you a date."
Frosh (cautiously): "Yeah, and then suppose you don't get me the date."

Archaeologists have excavated the thumb of a million-year-old woman. Perhaps if they dug a little deeper they will discover a million-year-old man under it.

—Punch

Have you heard of the student who arrived at a dance so late and was so disgusted that he tried to dance at the end when he should have been standing at attention.

"Isn't this antique furniture gorgeous? I wonder where Mrs. Batts got that huge old chest."

"Why, they tell me her old lady was the same way."
