

U. N. B. DOWNS MT. A. 12-0 TO TAKE LEAGUE LEAD

Sports Slants

BY JIM MORROW

Well, last Saturday was "der Tag" for U. N. B. ! To the accompaniment of a barrage of cheering from a wildly enthusiastic crowd, the Red and Black finally caught up with their old rivals, Mount Allison, and walked off the football field with a 12-0 victory.

It was a great game,—a thriller all the way ! And what a setting—perfect October day, a loud-speaker system transmitting band music at intervals, a trio of snappy cheer-leaders, a flare of colour in the air but why go on ? Sufficient to say that the game, all in all provided one of the biggest thrills witnessed on the U. N. B. campus for a long time.

There can be no doubt that U. N. B. was the better team, in all departments of the play. There can be equally no doubt that the losers were a game, hard fighting, aggressive bunch of athletes, who were dangerous right up to the final whistle. They proved themselves to be the type who never say die, and they certainly gave U. N. B. some anxious moments during the last ten minutes of play.

It may truthfully be said that the Mounties took a worse physical beating than did the Hillmen, but nevertheless, they were driving in, and forcing the play deep into U. N. B. territory in a desperate attempt to break into the scoring near the end.

On the other hand, the play was kept almost totally in Mount A. territory during the initial 30 minutes. The Red and Black managed to keep up a sustained offensive during this session, with Jerry Atyeo scoring two spectacular tries.

Art McLenahan's brace in the final canto were no less sensational. In securing his last one, Art ran around and planted the ball squarely behind the uprights. It may well be imagined that Mal Rogers ejaculated something stronger than "aw shucks" when his attempt to convert from dead centre, hit one of the posts and bounced back.

Today (Friday) the team leaves on their road trip to play St. Dunstons on Saturday and Mount A. on Monday. They need to win one of these games to clinch the title, but we want to see them win both. They'll have a battle—make no mistake about that—but we think they can win 'em both, and so do the boys ! Here's hoping !

Judging by the recent trend of football activities in Nova Scotia, it looks as though Saint Francis Xavier is going to be the team to oppose the winner of the N. B. - P. E. I. league, for the Maritime Inter-collegiate title. St. F. X. have a very good record this season. They overcame St. Mary's College in Halifax 3-0 last Saturday. St. Marys last year being runner-up in the Maritime finals. Previous to this game, St. F. X. managed to hold the powerful Caledonia fifteen to a

U. N. B. Seconds Bow To Artillery 8-0

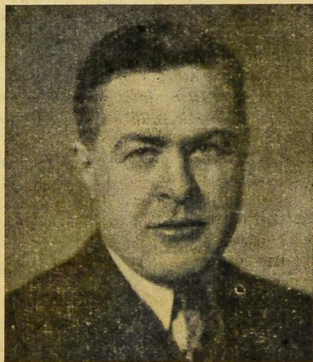

(By C. E. W.)

Playing their first game of the season, the U. N. B. Seconds lost to a rugby squad from the 89th and 90th Field Batteries at the College Field Saturday. The Army team scored two touch-downs in spite of spirited opposition by the Seconds, converting one of them to bring the score to 8-0 in favor of the Army.

Both the Armies tries were scored, by the backfield, the first by McKnight on a line crashing drive through the U. N. B. backs. The kick from a difficult angle was not completed. Markey, flashy wing for the Army got the other try when the Artillery scrum heeled cleanly inside the U. N. B.'s 25-yard line for a three-quarter line run.

All through the game the play was loose and ragged, lack of combination very evident on both teams. In the first half, the Army kept the play pretty much in U. N. B. territory, except for a few long punts for touch which were returned. Toward the end of the stanza, McKnight crashed through to chalk up a lone tally for the Artillery. A penalty kick awarded to the Army on the Seconds' 25 yard line failed (Continued on Page 5)

U.N.B. TO SWIM AGAIN!

Opportunity is knocking. Why not let him in ? Here we have the finest indoor swimming pool in the Maritimes going to waste as far as really organized swimming is concerned. Let's organize ourselves and really do something about it ! On file are three unanswered challenges from Acadia for a friendly meet. For three successive years they have prided themselves on making unaccepted challenges. Are we of U. N. B. complete landlubbers ? Are we too timid to encourage our fine material ? Forty stalwarts have signed for the pool privileges. Among them are those just dying to show that U. N. B. can swim and dive with any. 'Hide not thy light under a bushel.' Come all ! Whether to learn how to dog-paddle or to execute the full Mollberg. The organization meeting will be at the first of next week. We'll not beat around the proverbial bush. But elect an officer or two, to busy about and revise the constitution of the club of the past, and see the possibilities of an active aquatic club.

McLenahan and Atyeo Star for Red and Black

(By G. W. R.)

The Red and Black Machine rolled on in their Scheduled Inter-collegiate games by defeating Mt. A. here Saturday 12-0. It might well be called a machine because it performed as such, combining speed and smoothness to produce the final result—a win over Mt. A. after five years of defeat.

From the kickoff which U. N. B. returned to Mt. A. territory, it was a tough game with hard tackling and brilliant backfield runs, the Mt. A. boys drawing plaudits for the former and U. N. B. boys excelling in the latter.

The Red and Black were pressing all the time, forcing the Garnet and Gold fullback to kick. From 30 yards out Mal Rogers, who incidentally played a sparkling game at fullback, missed a difficult penalty kick. Gerry Atyeo then carried the ball on several smooth backfield thrusts which came close to the Mount A. line. Finally Gerry came through on a power-filled surge of the backfield and went over with several Mt. A. boys clinging to him.

On the kickoff Logie, Snodgrass and McLenahan carried the ball back into Mt. A.'s defensive territory. Then again, after several plays, Rouse and Andrews combined to shake Atyeo loose and the speedy wing drove straight for the corner again carrying several hundred pounds of tacklers with him. Several runs brought the Red and Black near the Mt. A. line as Rouse, Logie, and Colby ran the kickoff back in a smart passing play with Andrews almost breaking through. Mt. A. fought their way back to centre field only to be pushed back again to their 25 yard line, which was the scene of action for the remainder of the half.

The second half opened with U. N. B. facing the sun. An exchange of punts with fast work by Mt. A. forwards pushed U. N. B. back to their own yard line. Then Rouse and Andrews, both of whom seem to have glue on their fingertips when it comes to handling the pigskin, ran the ball back to Mt. A.'s 25 yard line. A few minutes later Dyer set his three-quarter line in motion and the ball passed out to Art McLenahan on the wing, who made a neat try in the corner just five minutes after the play started in the last half.

U. N. B. slackened its attack and also its defences and Mt. A. was close to scoring on runs by Jamieson and Bigelow but the Red and Black forwards carried the ball in a nice dribble back to the 25 yard line. Then play saw-sawed between centre field and the U. N. B. 25 yard line. Then U. N. B. returned a punt with a brilliant run that almost netted a try but then a loose ball was scooped up by Andrews who passed Atyeo but the ball got away, out Mt. A. touched down for a safety. On the drop-out Mal Rogers kicked back in fine style. The U. N. B. forwards then made a fine run and passed the ball around in smooth backfield fashion and they deserved a score but were robbed by their own unselfishness in passing the ball around too much. "Buck" Brebner and Bob Coombes coming very close. On the next play McLenahan took a pass at full speed and in a 25 yard run had placed the ball behind the posts making the score U. N. B. 12, Mt. A. 0.

The attempts at conversion of all touchdowns except the last one were from difficult angles and none were successful. Dyer also made a nice try on a field goal which was a little wide and Mt. A. touched down.

Our injured men Capt. Jim Colby and Ralph "What ever you think's fair" Lockhart proved very valuable to the team with their grand playing, though Colby was forced out for a time with an arm injury, he returned later on to carry on his fine job.

The hard work of the scrum, the ball handling of Rouse and Andrews, the plunging of Dyer, the kicking of Rogers and the speedy (Continued on Page 5)
