: PAT and BECKY :

A wedding of interest to many friends on the U. N. B. Campus took place in Montreal on December 24 when Alfreda Davidson and Don Good '40 were married. The groom is with the R. C. A. F. and is stationed at Malton, Ont.

Mr. Robert W. Pugh, former professor of modern languages at this University was ordained as Deacon at Christ Church, Dartmouth on Sunday, Dec. 22 by the Lord Archbishop of Nova Scotia. He is now located at the All Saints' Cathedral in Halifax. Deacon Pugh is very active in choir work and in boy scout work.

George Cody ex '41 who is serving with the C. A. S. F. arrived in England on New Year's Day. Before leaving Canada he was stationed at Petawawa.

Mary Neville '40 who is teaching at the Notre Dame College in Ottawa spent the Christmas vacation with her parents in Fredericton.

Frances Kitchen '43 spent part of her vacation in Montreal. While there Fran attended several National Hockey League games.

Franny Murray spent the New Year's holiday in Saint John, the guest of Leslie Stevens. She attended the New Year's Eve ball there.

Miss Betty MacDonald, who is taking a librarian course at McGill spent the holidays at her home.

Norma Linton '39 spent the holidays in Saint John and Fredericton. Norma is teaching school at Canterbury.

ROUGE ET NOIR

Scoop by "Snoop"

Hi, Kiddos. Hope you had as much fun as I did in the hols. I have made some b-e-a-u-t-i-f-u-l resolutions for this year—Resolved to be snooper, meaner, more prying than ever before. In the past Snoop has let too many things slip by that were too spicy even for Rouge et Noir. That I didn't know about them eh? Well, I did, and you can take it from me that in the future EVERYTHINNG GOES!

Corringham's Nellie, and her veil—very coy... I'm not proud she says... Fairweather in the cotton business... Lights out in Campbellton for New Years... Hugh back to his old haunts... speaking of presents, hot water is hardly ever found in flasks—well, not very often... Doc and the Queen of Sheba listening to Glen Miller... Patterson & Co's designs on a packard—She's sure to sue for damages if you do... meanwhile visit your neighborhood jeweller, and get a diamond

Everyone else is... Bud got her picture, but Palmer had her company... Al and Betty, Marg and Doug, Jack and Jean, Minnie and the Saint, each had their reunion... Bap on the straight and narrow since New Years—He's kind of lost without Phil... she said she couldn't dance, but oh, could she cook... six started out, but only one survived... you know, my father told me... and he was right.

So another one of these snooty bridge clubs has bloomed forth in the reading room. It's too bad the boys couldn't listen in once in a while, to know the real meaning of the word gossip.

Do you get bigger helpings now, Duke, or did you skate with her?

Fran's bag of tricks went over big in the reading room. "God love it" will have to take second place among the kitchen pups.

See that moon?
Yes.
Doesn't it make you feel romantic?
No.
Me neither.

Nasty gash, Bob. May vor you should have changed your seat. Girls can't stand blood.

Beverley came in almost every night simply to be with Marj.

One pill to be taken with a glass of water every two hours, Mr. Buckboard. Oh, what a Christmas!

Kutchy-Koo! Ye Gods, Mac must think U. N. B. students are very silly, or else very bold. In truth Murray made a slight mistake in identity.

Cradle snatching seems prevalent at the rink. For information, ask Miller and McAllister. Or was it the reverse?

Stan up, stan up for Patsy—another who ranks the honorary degree of C. P.

What happened to the sick boy who spent his last night stuck in a snow drift near college field?

Who was Grant out with his second nite back?
Who did Burch call up Sunday?
Whose picture was in the package from Reid studios?
Apropos, how's Babe, Dag?
Keep it comin'
