A wedding of interest to many was solemnized at Victoria, B. C., on February 17th, when Miss Willa Christie Arthurs, daughter of Mrs. William C. Arthurs and the late Mr. Arthurs, was united in marriage to Sub-Lieutenant Philip Watson Willis R.C.N.V.R. '39, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Willis, Saint John.

A wedding of interest to many friends in Fredericton took place in Toronto, Ontario, on March 9th when Miss Barbara Jane Trippie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Trippie, Toronto, became the bride of Herbert F. Belding '39, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Belding, Fredericton. They will reside in Bourlamaque, Quebec, where the bride is employed with the Sigma Mines as a geologist.

Fran McLean entertained the Co-ed Basketball Team at her home in St. John on their way home from Acadia.

Vernon Mann spent the week-end at his home.

Bill Thompson spent the week-end at his home in St. John.

Bob Smith and Sandy Gregory spent a very quiet week-end at Acadia.

Hi Kids—here I am again, but this time I am in the person of an Engineer—so that makes me a male doesn't it!—nevertheless, I can be just as catty as the girls—maybe more so, who knows—you will have to read on to find out. The House Dance provided me with a lot of dope as you will see below—Tomorrow night is the big time for we Engineers, so I suggest that you all turn out on front street and I assure you, you will see some very funny and slightly inebriate male students—however if you don't see them there I am sure that you will find them at the Old Gaiety, for low and behold we are holding the Wassail upstairs in the I. O. O. F. Hall—after the banquet we are going to roll the boys down to the dance. —Some House Dance—bad weather—cars in the ditch due to one arm driving—snowing so hard that one couldn't see—and even cars parked with water over the floor boards. See you again Kids, I am going to the Wassail wearing my tails and will be at the head table—look for me, eh?

Doc (down to earth) Fleming got soaking wet Tuesday night and it wasn't raining out, was it Doc. How did it all happen?

It was their first date . . .
"Cigarette."
"No thanks, I don't smoke."
"Let's go down to sip a few."
"I'd rather not, I never touch liquor."
"Well, lets go out on the heights for a while."
"No, please don't. I want to go out and do something exciting, something new."
"O.K. (sigh). Let's go out to the dairy building and milk hell out of a couple of cows".

As we see it, the main difference between a Freshman and a Senior is that the former hates to leave his family behind him, and the latter is worried about taking his home.

We don't think much of Marty's excuse for parking in front of the Residence all night.

Don't worry about that warning, Rapid. He hasn't really got a six-shooter.

Horse-operas and skating must be different at Acadia, eh Sandy?

The question of the day is Watt is the price of love? Ask John?

We didn't realize that Ronnie and Arnie were naval-minded.
