A wedding of interest to many friends took place, Jan. 31st in St. James United Church, Newcastle, N. B., when Catherine Alexander MacTavish (ex '39), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. MacTavish, Newcastle, was united in marriage to Flight Lieut. Robert Hopwell Wilson of No. 10 Observer's School R.C.A.F., Chatham, N. B.

The bride wore a powder blue crepe suit with a plain long fitted coachman's jacket. Her hat was made of fuschia crepe with a shoulder length scarf in the back. She wore long fuschia suede gloves and carried a gardenia corsage bouquet. She was attended by Elizabeth Richards '39 of Campbellton. Flight Lieut. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson will reside in Chatham, N. B.

The Co-eds of the Honour History Class entertained the class at tea, in the Ladies Reading Room, on Tuesday afternoon. They had as their guest Mrs. A. G. Bailey, wife of the History Professor Dr. A. G. Bailey.

S.R.C. Rules Out Acadia Hockey Game

Before a representative number of students, the S.R.C., in an emergency meeting, ruled out the hockey trip to Acadia and decreed that the team could play in Bathurst, Saturday night.

Reg Johnson, hockey manager, reported to the Council that since last Friday, when the S. R. C. granted the Acadia trip, arrangements had been completed with Bathurst to play there tomorrow evening. He Comparatively sober week-end, or should I say just quiet . . . but the Varsity teams had a good time . . . plenty of U.N.B. fans in the foggy city (some with and some without) . . . Brunswickan dance coming up, that is, if they ever get the invitation list straightened out . . . Freshettes trying hard to work up enough never to ask him for Monday next . . . Miller flaunting that sign that didn't say malted milk . . . and then there was that goose that laid the golden eggs.

Uffe! Uffe! You're barking up the wrong tree there!

It all comes under the head of experience. But I didn't know the Spitfire Committee needed a cashier. Do they Bob?

You should consider yourself lucky, Arnie. And besides it's good business for the managing board.

My, my, with all the Co-eds up the hill and you Freshmen have to pick on the married women.

Coffyn and Coveney, Keyes and Cain. Harmonious, eh?

Of course we know the S.R.C. President wanted to keep in contact with the college, Dodie. But what does Stevie say?

then asked the Council what decision it would make.

After much heated controversy, it was decided unanimously that since Bathurst was expecting U. N. B. in two days time, and since arrangements had been made on the Bathurst side, that U. N. B. should be permitted the trip.

It was then pointed out, that last week, the Acadia trip had been given to the hockey team with the understanding that no game could be arranged within the province, and consequently should now be ruled out. Voting on the motion, "that the Acadia hockey trip be cancelled" the S.R.C. voted 8-7 on the resolution. Again after more argument a motion was proposed to cancel the previous resolution, but was defeated 9-6.

So at last you've really fallen, Joyce. Ah, l'amour, l'amour, toujours l'amour.

You can never(s) tell about these girls, can you, Marty?

And guess what I saw on Mavor's porch the other night. Don't worry . . . I won't tell!

There once was a girl named Franny
Her pull with her pa was uncanny,
They went to the garage (long "a" please)
Came out with a Dodge.

All you have to do to get in print next week is to fill in the above line, send it, with fifteen items (no stamps, please), to S-N-O-O-P care of The Brunswickan.
