

ROUGE ET NOIR

Scoop by "Snoop"

Another whirling week gone by and is my snout sore from snooping—(got Shirley's cold, too) After the Stanley Fair (hic), Pep Rally, and the Dance—boy, am I drug out. How does Jumbo manage to keep up to the pace.

Pep Rally peppy as ever—Ritchie with still another man—even life in the old Goodie Shop. The Argosy went up in flames—lotsa john paper—cars pushed around—squad car to the rescue—where was everyone?

The dance went over with a bang. Yes, Bobby, (Whoops! Herbie) Bad slips there. * * * Al (L)'s well that ends well—Betty'll miss her. * * * When Tom's away How Dodie will play—With Terry she dances, In Bap's coupe romances. * * *

Although the social pace in the town has reached an all-time low the popular poker games are still booming till the early hours! Drooping eyelids, and heavy yawns on Wednesday morning. * * *

Can you answer these—I kin! 1. Who was two-timing Saturday night? 2. Who felt foolish when the girl friend showed up? 3. Who was parked beside Ye Olde Planing Mille Saturday A. M.? 4. Where did Doc go after every Dance? 5. Ain't my poetry corny?

One of the freshettes sure caught on fast—five for one dance. The old Question—

Ola..... Army.....? Ola.....Eric.....? Ola..... Johnnie.....? * * *

Bruce sure had it down Pat Friday night—dividends from parking on Queen St.

Formation of Gym Team is Planned

Mr. Ryan, our new Physical Instructor expressed his wishes that a gym team be formed at our University. With the material he has seen so far, he said that there is absolutely no reason why a really good team cannot take shape.

Students, now is the time to turn out, while everybody is new at the game, not only to make the gym team but to build that body of yours into a really healthy structure. With the marvellous equipment in the gym, this is an opportunity that that should not be missed.

The idea of a team is to select the gymnasts who show most improvement and send them visiting various Y. M. C. A.'s. This would create a certain amount of interest and perhaps in a few years it would become an intercollegiate sport.

Ryan Meets

The members of the Gym Committee are as follows: Mr. H. R. Ryan, Major W. G. Jones, Prof. H. Moore, Josephine Rowan, Mary McLean, Frances Murray, Alastair Cameron, Manzer Bunker and Bob Grant.

Hint's for Freshman Snoop hunters

Was to a lecture last week Would have a moustache if the darn thing would grow.

Gave up stockings as a war effort. Keep looking for me—I'll be looking at YOU.

Seeing all, hearing all, telling all

"He hates to be kept waiting, so I only had time to throw my face on!"

"My dear! He's the most subversive dancer!"

Do not unto others as you would that they should do unto you. Their tastes may not be the same.

He further stated that at this meeting the duties and responsibilities of class officers would be fully outlined to the Freshmen. In addition the new students will be told something of the set-up and workings of the Student's Representative Council.

colleges in debating and although many experienced debaters have been lost he hoped that this year would be as successful.

An amendment to the society's constitution, introduced by the Vice-President, Arthur Mears was adopted; namely that at trial debates no speaker be permitted to rebutt the speech of a preceding speaker. It is planned to hold a meeting every two weeks at which time interclub debates will be staged and guest speakers invited to address the society.

A.A.A. President

"Every student in good standing at the University is a member of this organization, and is privileged to attend all meetings. The executive consists of: a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and also all managers, assistant-managers, and captains of the respective teams. The faculty is also represented on the executive.

"As this year offers many difficulties to the sustenance of Intercollegiate sport, we expect every student to make a supreme effort to make the best of the facilities offered. The opening of the new gymnasium has added greatly to these facilities, so every student should be able to find some means of expressing his athletic abilities. Show us a good turnout and we are behind you all the way."

"Where d'ya get the black eye?"

"In the war."

"What war?"

The boudoir."

Sorry, I guess this one wasn't.

commission.

The men of the unit have been divided up into three groups. Those in the first group, that is numbers one and two platoons, will take lectures in preparation for the examination for Syllabus A, which is a more detailed version of the old Common to All Arms.

The second and third groups will do basic training. That is new members of the unit will do the first month of basic training as laid down at all training centres. The third group will do more advanced work.

The new syllabus will mean that not as much ground will be covered as last year, but what is covered will be done more thoroughly. It also means that everyone will be doing infantry work once again.

Work begun this week will be continued during the next week. As yet no work has been forthcoming as to just when lectures will begin for the senior group. It is hoped that by the end of this week to have the medical examination of Freshman completed.

When interviewed, Major Jones stated that as yet no definite information has been obtained regarding permanent force instructors for this year. He said that at present all training will be conducted by the officers and N.C.O.'s of the unit.

Freshman Reception

as if it will be one of the best in recent years. A cordial invitation has been extended to the members of the R.C.A.F. now stationed on the campus; the upperclassmen, will no doubt attend in a body while the attendance of all freshmen and freshettes is expected. Refreshments will be served during the course of the evening.

An entertaining program has been mapped out by the committee in charge. Each faculty in the university will put on an amusing skit and in addition there will be a few individual performances.

"Here's where I cut a good figure" said the college girl, as she sat on a broken bottle.

"I like that dress you're wearing." "I got it for my twentieth birthday." "Really! It has worn well, hasn't it?"
