

FACE THE FACTS

By Eileen Wright

Dot MacBride '40 and Alathier Warren '39 have returned to U.N.B. as members of the staff. We welcome them back and hope their return to the university will be as happy as their student years here.

Jo Rowan '42 has gone to Clarke University on a scholarship to resume her studies in International Relations. Jo was president of the Ladies' Society here last year.

"Doc" Roberts ex '43 has reported for Naval Aviation Flight Training at the University of North Carolina.

If successful after three months of preliminary instruction at this Naval Aviation Indoctrination School, this candidate will continue with preliminary and advance training. Upon completion of his courses, he will be commissioned as an Ensign in the U.S. Naval Reserve, receive his designation as Naval Aviator, and be assigned to duty with the Fleet.

"Doc" will be best remembered as the leader of the famous "Five Notes" orchestra which was very popular last year especially at the Spitfire Dances. We wish "Doc" every success in his new course.

Dodie Reed '42 is teaching French and Latin on the staff of the Netherwood School for girls at Rothesay, N.B.

A quiet wedding of interest to many of the U.N.B. students took place August 17th at the home of the bride, when Mary McMenamon '41 and Hal Marshall '41 were married. They are residing in Halifax where Mary is employed with the Imperial Tobacco Company, and Hal is resuming his duties with the Canadian Navy. U.N.B. students at the wedding were Margaret Evans '41, Eileen Wright '43 and Joyce Mavor '42.

Capt. David Dickson ex '42 has returned from England to take a special course in Canada. He spent some time with his family in Fredericton, where he was welcomed by many old friends. Mrs. Dickson remained in England.

Betty Ritchie '42 and Mary MacLean '42 are engaged in war work at Sorel. Pat Anderson '42 is engaged in war work at Montreal.

Stephen Weyman '42 and Jack Vermeeran '42 have gone to McGill to continue their studies in medicine.

Little Dorothy: "Mother, do all fairy tales begin with 'once upon a time'?"

Mother: "No, dear, some begin with 'I'll be working late at the office'".

ROUGE ET NOIR

: Scoop by "Snoop" :

Pajamas, green scarfs, jeeps get cutting, and lipstick askew, (wonder how much of that was second-hand?) to say nothing of black-striped legs, pig-tails, no make-up, and those enormous shirts which hid nothing! Bigger and better Freshmen and Freshettes to create lots of new gossip, (we hope!). Anyway I'm ready and waiting to pounce on the first young innocent victim, so all you sinners beware.....I can smell out gossip like Sandy can a pretty face.

Summer romances flourished, and we hear she wilted in the heat of Montreal.

Typographical error noted on the campus—not Roberts, this year but Robert.

Barbara seems to be rather moody. Those sighs appear to be directed towards Brockville.

Then there was the professor who had a story eddyed in the "Standard".

To Freshettes

to give of your time and your resourcefulness and most of all we ask your cooperation in all things. You will have to give more of yourselves to make our every undertaking a certain success.

We feel that these demands will not be unanswered. On your first day you were almost complete strangers. Now, through initiation, we feel that we know you as individuals. We have tested you by putting you on the bottom of the ladder. We are looking for your swift climb to the top.

Ron is having kitchen trouble again. Army cadets are not his idea of good competition.

Arnie's up to his old tricks — Duncan' doughnuts!

Well, that's enough this week, but remember my eyes are always open seeing Budding romances bobbing along, Young sophomores taking Chubby boys places, and hearing re-joyceings from Burden's Burden's borders, to say nothing of watching Freshmen giving interfering young Sophomores black eyes!
