PARTY LINE

By Gabby

1407-11 Purina McLaughlin '43 and Wheatina Loane '43 got cornered out in the cow pasture Saturday night by John Brown's new bull. As a result Layena Lemont '43 attended the Square Dance un-dragged.

1593-25 Charity Rioux '44 baked the beans for the Orange Church Hall regular yearly Saturday Bean Supper last weekend. Only two casualties resulted.

1182-60 Rowena Peterson '44 has been confined to her home for the past week as a result of choking over a piece of squash Ryand in her squash pie at the regular church supper.

327-11 Line's busy.

14-07 Bobolink Thompson '45 has had to be dug under having met up with a striped pussy on the Devon Highway at an ungodly hour last Monday morning. The sympathy of the community are with him.

162-00 Patience Kitchen '43 has received word that her little son Bobby crossed the ditch safely on his way to school.

1198-2 Farmer Kerr is being congratulated on his recent courageous act. Last Friday he shot and killed the wolf at his door. Now he's very lonely. Two wolves are better than one.

813-29 Seedy Stothart left this morning on his old gray mare to attend the piano recital and quilting bee at the home of Widow Richie. While there he hopes to contact Furina Fleming, Hogchow Mackay and Jesse James McAllister and do a little barn-raising.

1740-2 The honor for having all his crops in first this spring goes to Alfalfa Copp. He was egged on to gain this distinction by an iron rod in the hands of his dear help-mate Beulah.

483-0 Katina Bell saved all her sap this spring and is going to make it into maple sugar for the local market. In this way she hopes to make a little extra pin-money.

456-78 A great influx of imports is expected for the April Fool's Ball, April 2nd. The local lassies are planning an enthusiastic welcome for the visitors. To avoid confusion all the local cows will be locked in for that day. Dandelion corsages sold by Lover Landry for the occasion.

1123-66 Barney Flieger hopes to hold his monthly Cider Cession in the Parish Hall Tuesday night. Jay Sears will perform her latest tap dance steps to the music of Tootles Toole's

ROUGE ET NOIR

: Scoop by "Snoop" :

Well here I am—Snoop the Brunswickan's ace columnist—right back in my usual snoopy form. Business was sort of down for a while, but I feel like myself once more. This week finds old and new acquaintances trodden down by me, who sees all, knows all, and tells all. So my pets—take care lest some of your most secret secrets are found in my column.

The (t)ruth of the matter is—she calls him HOWARD!!!!

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, any day, anywhere, morning, noon, or night; you'll see Beulah out Sprouling along—pardon me, I mean strolling.

"Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair" is a lovely song especially with a redhead and a 'cello thrown in to produce those soft notes.

"For Whom the Bell Tolls"—or rather who does the Bell toll for—can it be Smithers or Whittingham?

Wouldn't you think Lois would get tired of banking?—bonds all day and Bond(s) at night!!!

of "Cow Cow Boogie". When order was finally restored, Chairman Kierstead announced that he had formed a counter-revolutionary committee consisting of Messrs Dawson, Smith, Tufts, Marquis, Dean Gray, MacMillan and six other tipplers not yet chosen to liquidate the W.C.T.U.

Loud popping of corks signified approval on the part of the audience. At this juncture Peaches and her Cuddle Cats took over. Further business was postponed until tomorrow, although Prof. Kierstead invited the College in general to be present at the weekly dance of the Old Gaiety, which he jovially referred to as the "Bucket of Blood" tomorrow night.

Said the Philosophers in unison, "we shall be only too glad to share our partners with any U.N.B. rug-cutter while we dash out for a quick one."

fiddle. As a special treat Mertie Merten may be persuaded to do the rhumba.
