

Have You Heard?

BY EILEEN WRIGHT

2nd Lieut. Robert B. Grant '42, 2nd Lieut. Edwin MacLean ex '44, 2nd Lieut. Jack C. Venese ex '45 and 2nd Lieut. Harold B. Richards ex '43 arrived in Fredericton last weekend on leave from Brockville. They have passed their first tests and are returning for further study. While here they have been cordially welcomed by their many old friends.

Two of last year's graduates, Muriel Sargent and Madeline Wallace were in Fredericton for the Thanksgiving weekend.

Tracy MacFarlane '42 and Helen Fownes of Moncton were married October 2nd in Moncton. Bridesmaid at the wedding was Edith MacFarlane '46, sister of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. MacFarlane will reside in Dartmouth, where Tracy is now employed.

Word has been received that Sgt. Observer Dallas Laskey '41 of the R.C.A.F. has arrived in England. Dal was very active in sports at U.N.B. and he has also participated in them while in the Air Force.

It is interesting to note that this year's editor of the Dalhousie Gazette, the newspaper of Dalhousie University is Robert McClune '43, a son of Mrs. Thompson, librarian at our university library.

David M. Baird '41 is continuing his post graduate studies at the University of Rochester, U.S.A. You will remember David as the author of "Seaman's Diary".

K. Gordon Baird '42 is working this year with the General Electric at Peterboro, Ontario. The original owner of "George", Gordon left it behind to carry the third member of the Baird family to and from those 8.30 lectures.

Jean King ex '43 spent Thanksgiving weekend at her home in Fredericton. Jean is now Physical Director at the Y.W.C.A. in Saint John, and is well qualified for her new position. After leaving U.N.B. she attended Margaret Eaton College, Toronto, for two years and graduated from there this spring.

St. Peter was interviewing the fair damsel at the pearly gates. "Did you, while on earth, indulge in necking, petting, smoking, or dancing?"

"Never", she retorted emphatically.

"Then why haven't you reported sooner", said St. Peter. "You've been dead a long time."

ROUGE ET NOIR

: Scoop by "Snoop" :

Ho-hum, this college has no more spirit than nothing—snooping's no fun any more—look at the Budget Meeting—about fifteen people there—and not a shocking moment in the whole 120 minutes of it—not a speck of enthusiasm about this great Freshman Dance—where's all the old life? All I see is same old dirt—same old crowd, then all I hear is grumble, grumble—Snoop works on a set crowd—same people in every week—crab, crab, and so on into the night—

The Forbes' household is having a new walk made extending up to the mayoral manor—it is to be especially Sandy we are told.

Wait a minute! She seems to be in a rut—first it's Roberts (note the s), then it's Robert, (note the absence of the s), and then on an importation it comes out Rapid Robert!

The little item of sad-eyed co-eds after train time on Tuesday speaks for itself.

What's this we hear about red hair, Dave?

Barbara's Moods come and go, and this Mood is destined to stay only one week.

Fraser's business is still carried on along the same line—yes, the Dot-ted line.

My! My! Watt tempers they have—eh Beach?

A girl has not reached the age of discretion until she's ready to obey her mother instead of listening to the advice of her boy friends.

You've heard of bees hovering around the honey-pot—well, these two B's have an O between them, but they're Hoveyng just the same. (Error of y for r was intentional!)

Saddle shoes, bare legs, and blowing curls galore.

It seems on this campus cause no dates.

Fun, wit and dancing are not what U.N.B. men adore, They date a gal as her fashion I.Q. rates!

O.K., so the whole thing is lousy, but, on bended knees I implore you, Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors, lets get a little life on this campus. Let's get together and have some fun!

Phooey on you all—

SNOOP.
