

Have You Heard?

BY EILEEN WRIGHT

An impromptu subscription bridge party was held at the home of Anne Coveney '45 on Charlotte St., Thursday night and a number of the students were present. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by Anne, assisted by a few of the Sophettes. The party was held to raise money to send a party of U.N.B. supporters to Mt. A. for the football game Saturday.

Mrs. Gordon Clogg (nee Polly Brown '39) is home for a few weeks' visit with her mother. She has with her, her daughter, Margaret Jean, who was born in August in Moncton, where Mrs. Clogg is residing.

Clarence (Chubby) Clarke ex '45 has joined a branch of the United States Navy, and is now in training.

The coeds were present at an enjoyable alumnae tea last Saturday afternoon between five and six o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. G. Chestnut, Waterloo Row. The girls were received by Mrs. Chestnut, and by the President of the Alumnae, Mrs. B. Maxwell. Mrs. J. E. Page and Mrs. R. B. VanDine presided over the tea cups. Those who assisted in serving were Miss Patricia Morrison, Miss Alathier Warren, Miss Dorothy MacBride, Mrs. Lawrence Hashey, Mrs. Royce Anderson, Miss S. Crocker.

A new class of about sixty R.C.A. F. men have arrived on the campus to take the Radio Technicians Course. We are happy to welcome them all, and hope their stay here will be a successful one. This class is the last group of airmen to be trained here in Radio Technology.

Friends of Gordon Simpson and Ed Reid as well as ardent football fans, will be glad to hear that the broken bones of both the players are progressing favorably. Gordie broke a bone in his leg in the game with the Pennfield Airmen a couple of weeks ago, and Ed broke his arm last Saturday in the game against Mt. Allison.

October is the eighth month, as the name implies, of the Roman year.

Last weekend was sure on the beam—looks as if this one will be a swinger too. What with Mt. A. taking all our men and half our women, I think we should have had a holiday and started a trek to Sackville. Last week we sure cooked with gas—What a parade, what a game, what a dance. Therein lies the tale.

Victory Bonds are on everybody's minds but Connie's. It is much more exciting to dance with a Bathurst Bond.

I Seedyed you coming out of that little room. Even though it was a blackout waltz, you were supposed to dance it.

Joyce's past seems to be catching up on her in English lectures.

Kay's "at home" developed into a cozy little bridge party—and on Sunday night, too.—Belle of the ball—Buzz Kerr.

Mix with a little music, pour in the night, stir well, and you have a terrific mixture, or should I say mix-up—Terry minus Bud, Martin with no Marion, Dave with no Patsy, Polly and no Joe, and Sandy with no dialect!

Even Lyman caught the excitement of last Saturday, and started out on a little social life.

A rosy sky at sunset, whether clear or cloudy, presages fair weather.

The first English Parliament took place on the 12th of December, 1264.

Maynard believes in practising for this 3 to 1 ration at Sackville. Twice this week I caught him with two girls out at once, and both times they were both coeds. Bravo!

Science Banquet ended at Holiday Inn—for details see Marion and Mary.

Question: Why did a Young Sophomore President spend last Saturday night at a hotel? Softer beds, or do they provide free ice-packs for big heads?

That's all for this week, chillens, but remember the Sadie Hawkins dance is coming so get your bids in early.
