HOCKEY SQUAD PLAYS AT MT. A TO-NIGHT

Cagers Score Shaky Win Over Ack-Acks

Mitton Out

A dubious band of the faithful filed out of the Beaverbrook Gym last Friday evening after witnessing a ragged exhibition of basketball in which their starry favorites had gained a sour 25-15 victory over a rough, fast "Ack-Ack" quintet from St. John.

With few exceptions, notably Gerry Lockhart, Ted Owens and Cec Garland, the collegians could not seem to do anything right offensively, with their usually dead-shot forwards missing a score of easy close-up chances and their fast breaks nullified by wild passing. The winners sorely missed the ailing Ed Mitton on guard but especially on the attack, where big Ed's specialty of sinking rebounds would have added ten points to their margin. As it was, the Hillmen had little chance to redeem the numerous first chances they missed, with the lanky Ack-Ack guard pair, McIntyre and Biarsky, collaring all rebounds and roughing them up thoroughly.

Centre Gerry Lockhart saved his team from probable defeat by scoring ten points, eight of them in a fighting second-half display. Garland, at right forward, was credited with only 4 counters but played his best all-round game of the season to date. Owens was a standout on the tight U.N.B. defence, the only department of the game in which the Hillmen were up to par.

The Ack-Acks lacked coordination in their attack and were forced to resort to long-distance shooting almost exclusively. They played alert defensive ball at all times however, and gave a brilliant performance at left guard.

The game opened rough and loosely played, with numerous penalties called by Referee Hashey but few of the free throws were capitalized on. The Red and Black five led by the fantastic score of 7-6 as they walked off at the half.

At one point in the second half the Ack-Acks had deadlocked the count 13-13 but the Hillmen eased the tension in the final quarter when they launched on a mild scoring splurge, led by Lockhart, and put a ten point margin between themselves and the servicemen.

Lineups:
U.N.B.: Rogers 2, McClintock 1, Lockhart 10, Stothart 4, Garland 4, Owens 4, Smith, Baxter, Breneol.

Ack-Acks:
Winburg 4, Crosby, Henshoran, Cameron, Crick, Stark-er 5, McIntyre 3, Biarsky 3.

hockey circles—that is our belief when watching U.N.B.'s dynamite trio, Anderson, Marquis and McAllister. We have heard a lot about Mt. A.'s great puck squad this year and of their power line of Dryden, Tracey and Matthews, however we do not hesitate in the least to call the coming game in the Red and Black's favor. Brains, speed and fight make a great combination and that is what Andy, Arnie and Marky have an abundance.

One of the trickiest lines we have ever watched in these Eastern provinces the boys sure showed their stuff over the weekend, playing as a unit with the local Training Centre against Saint John's powerful Beavers the Red and Black punch line outscored the Beavers first string trio three goals to two. Since then they have sparked the varsity to two lopsided victories over the Training Centre who boast of such well known players as Walter Bulter and Johnny Kilburn. "Buts" who centered the Beavers famous Razzle-Dazzle line for the past three seasons unhesitatingly called our punch line one of the smartest he has seen.

The presence of Markey & Co. lead us to believe that Friday night will see the boys trim Mt. Allison for the third straight time in men's varsity sports this year. We also believe, fantastic as it may seem to Mt. A. students that one week from his Friday will see their favorite Mounties again take a back seat when Howie Ryan's power packed Varsity basketball machine rolls into Sackville town.

Last Friday night a large crowd witnessed the Saint John Ack-Acks in a fair display of rough basketball hold the Varsity cagers to 25 points. This is the lowest total amassed by the Red and Black in the past two years. The angels in their snow-white suits played a fighting brand of ball but were only a skeleton of the team that has won 20 out of the 21 games in the past two seasons. That one loss—in Mt. A. last year is what the hoopsters will be out to avenge in just one short week after a couple more tune-up games.

Upset of the Week: Coeds defeat P.N.S. 20-4. Upset of the Year: If Coed cage team beat either Saint John "Y" or come close to beating the Allisonians.

Interclass Hockey will end this Sunday with the league leadership going to the Sophomores regardless whether they win or lose to the hard fighting Juniors. Minus the services of Stothart, Spicer and Adams the Sophs clinched first place Tuesday night with their 4-3 victory over the Seniors who incidentally had "Turk" MacNab in their nets. This is the first year the class of '43 lost the league. Last year all teams ended in a first place tie. As yet it hasn't been decided whether there will be any playoffs or not. The "Mighty" Sophs now feel that their dubbing in basketball has been revenged.

Tuesday evening also saw the climbing Juniors defeat a fast declining Freshman team. The Freshmen looked very good at the beginning of the season but have fallen off miserably since then. It is now doubtful if they will ever be able to take the Seniors on Sunday.

No Return Game At U. N. B.

U.N.B.'s varsity hockey squad entrained for Mt. A. yesterday where they will meet the Mounties in a "sudden-death game for the unofficial N.B. Intercollegiate Title.

The Red and Black, in three tune-up games this week preparatory to the classic struggle at Mt. A., have run roughshod over local opposition from the R.C.A.F., District Depot and Training Centre.

Coach "Shorty" Clark, in an interview with the Brunswickan this week, expressed satisfaction at the showing made by his charges to date and looks for a win in the coming battle with Mt. A.

Captain Arnie McAllister also expressed confidence in the outcome at Mt. A., but admitted the possibility that the smaller Sackville rink may hamper the U.N.B. passing attack. Both he and Coach Clark regret Mt. A.'s refusal to play a return game at Fredericton.

INTERCLASH

The interclass stalwarts swung into action again Tuesday night after a week's idleness. In the first tilt, the league-leading Sophs edged the cellar-dwelling Seniors in a 4-3
