ROUGE ET NOIR

: Scoop by "Snoop" :

"Snoop Box" is now beginning to pay kids. This week you helped a lot, so next week should even be better. There'll be lots of snoopins' after the Ball to-night.

Reports have been circulating that Scoop is planning to get married before joining the R.C.A.F. I wonder! Would it be Margery? Reason perhaps: So he can draw double pay to meet his bowling expenses.

(B)ett(y) must be a marvellous conversationalist to keep him engaged 2 to 3 hours every evening—competing with home interests, perhaps?

Who is Kay Bell's Pen Pal in Peterborough, Ontario?

Where's Elmer (1)?—Oh, he's with Elmer (2) a-headin' due North to Devon.

But who was the nice doll in church Sunday with "Red" Tracy on Sunday night?

Are you sure you are pag(e)ing the (w)right one, Buzzy?

We know a sophomore forester who got another letter from Nova Scotia.

Who is (ron)ning after Terry now?

Love and kisses,
SNOOP.

Interclass

thriller, while in the second the rejuvenated Juniors trounced the fading Freshmen 6-2, to go into a second place tie with the losers in the standings.

All four teams now have only one game left to play and the Sophs, with a 3-point lead, are sure of finishing on top. Playoffs for the Interclass Championship, if held, will be among the first three teams, the winner of the second—third series to meet the Sophs in a "sudden-death" for the title and the crests that go with it.

Sophomores 4—Seniors 3

Both teams took the ice with strong netminding, Nels McNab going in for the Seniors and Dave Whittingham for the Sophs. These boys have been pushing Tony Pelletier hard for the varsity goal-tending job.

Danny MacMillan put the Seniors one up in the initial stanza when he drove How's passout past Whittingham from a scramble in front of the Sophomore cage. Connie Mulherin, tied it up with a neat effort three minutes later, stealing the puck from Landry and McLaughlin at the Senior blueline and streaking in alone to beat McNab.

The second period saw the Sophs take command of the play and keep McNab hopping to prevent heavy scoring. MacRae and Pellegrino combined on a smart play at the five-minute mark, with Tony finishing it off to give the Sophs a one-goal lead. Adams jumped the margin to two just before the close of the period when he batted in Grimmer's rebound from a ganging attack.

The Seniors surged back strongly in the final period to tie it up, Bruce Thompson getting both goals, with Landry setting up the first and McLaughlin helping in the second. Both teams fought desperately for the tie-breaker, and the Sophs got the break when Mulherin scored a fluke goal that trickled in off McNab's skate. This misfortune took the spark from the Seniors and the Sophs easily protected their lead in the closing minutes.

Juniors 6—Freshmen 2

This stunning triumph for the Juniors was largely accounted for by Dave Whittingham's sensational work in the nets. The fast Freshman forwards kept firing the whole game at a spot-a-minute rate but Dave kept coolly turning them aside in one of the fanciest goal-keeping exhibitions seen on College Rink this season.

Forbes opened the scoring for the Juniors when he deflected a goal-mouth pass from Ramsey into the net. Cyr tied it up after Dohaney had carried through and Whittingham had stopped four successive spots from close in.

Junior standby Jim Dosne connected early in the second on passes from Boulton and Ramsey to put his team one up, but Anderson squared the count again near the end of the session on a fine effort that gave Whittingham no chance.

The '44ers sent out their strongest lineup to start the third and were paid off with a goal in the first minute when big Bev Boulton beat Robinson after combining with Ramsey on a fast rush. The Freshmen

Have You Heard?

BY EILEEN WRIGHT

Captain David Dickson ex '42 has spent the last couple of weeks in Fredericton, on leave before his return overseas. Dave arrived back in Canada in August, and took a course at Kingston, Ontario. He is soon to return to England to continue his duties over there.

Lieut. Ken Salmon '41 has been back in Saint John, N. B., the past few weeks. Since graduating Ken has spent a year with the Canadian Navy in the Far East. He returned to Canada last Spring, and has been stationed in Canada since then. Last summer Ken married Nancy Patterson, also of Saint John.

put on the pressure but could not dent Whittingham's armor. At the nine-minute mark Dosne and Miller got a clean break and Jimmy made no mistake, beating Robinson a short shot. Before the Frosh could recover the Juniors did it again, this time with Boulton leading the rush and Ramsey flicking it home. The Freshmen tried frantically to get back in the game in the final five minutes, but "Seven-up" Forbes added insult to injury when he rammed another one home in the last minute with Ramsey assisting.

In a game preceding the feature attraction the Junior Varsity came from behind in the last quarter to beat F.H.S., 21-15. Ced McDiarmid personally took charge of the collegians' scoring, ringing up 19 points in a brilliant performance. Brother Bob was a standout for the strong High School squad with points.
