ROUGE ET NOIR

: Scoop by "Snoop" :

College seems to be getting deader and deader, no polecats on the prowl, no nuttin. It's just Holy(sm)oke. Kinney or Kinney not get date with her. Shirley he can try.

Tims says that when he grows up he's going to be a burlap salesman or H.H.M.

Brother and sister appeared at the co-ed dance. Johnny and Eleanor even look alike.

"The breeze in the trees seems to whisper Louise" and HOW!!

When Edith is Bond(ed) she gets vicious. She even tore the arm off the chesterfield with which to hit him.

Prof. Habeeb: "If 50 kg. of earth fell over a cliff the result would be the same as if 1 kg. went over, isn't it? For example, if 50 cows fell over that cliff, the result would be the same as if 1 cow fell over, wouldn't it?"

Prof. Tims: "Yeah, milk shake!"
Love and kisses,
SNOOP.

McGill Senate

publication. The Senate presented several clear-cut demands to the Student Council; insisting that publication of the paper in any form, chaste or otherwise, be suspended until the names of all those responsible for collecting, editing, printing and supervising the issue be submitted for disciplinary action by the Senate. It was requested that the Students' Society make full investigation into the matter, advise the Senate of its findings, and recommend appropriate disciplinary action. When these details had been satisfactorily settled, publication should not be commenced until guarantee of non-recurrence be offered by the Students' Society; and controls set up to effectively prevent any such possibility.

While agreeing with this plan of action, to the extent of placing the blame for the issue on the heads of those students who produced it, and demanding proper control over the paper to avert repetition of the affair; the students have declared a vote of confidence in the regular staff of the Daily and in the Students' Society, demanded resumption of daily publication and protested the "Senate's arbitrary action".

The outcome of the fracas is as yet uncertain in these quarters; no word has come of definite punitive action by the McGill Senate or of student riots, but it is that in the absence of the banned Daily numerous "underground" sheets are serving the campus.

Reactions of the other Canadian university publications and of the public daily press have been varied. In general, Canadian Press stories reporting the issue have labelled it "obscene", and an editorial in last Friday's Varsity (Toronto) stated: "its instigators deserve very little support from any students who are decently averse to pornography". With the exception of Queen's Journal, other C.U.P. members have refrained from comment on the matter. Taking a similar stand, the Brunswickan will maintain that action or inaction at McGill over the issue is an intimate concern of Mc-

TOAST

Here's to the ships of our navy,
Here's to the ladies of our land.
May the former be well rigged.
And the latter be well manned.

An old colonel came into town the other day and, entering a restaurant, ordered a steak. The waiter brought it to him rare, very rare. The colonel demanded it be taken back and cooked.

"It's already cooked," the waiter snapped.

"Cooked hell," retorted the colonel. "I've seen cows hurt worse than that and they got well."

A husband lay dying. Calling his young wife to his bedside, he said: "My dear, I'm not long for this world. Johnny my foreman knows all about the business, and he is a good man. After I am gone wait a decent length of time and then marry him. You will have nothing more to worry about."

To which the young wife replied: "You just rest your mind precious; John and I have settled that for some time."

Gill students alone, and not subject to the meddling interference of outside editorial opinion.

Expressed opinion of most individuals on this campus who have been privileged to view the Commerce Daily have been that the jokes printed were in most cases reprints from other college papers; and that some of the stories printed, while apparently innocent in appearance, might be construed by those who so wished, in a questionable manner.

Have You Heard?

BY EILEEN WRIGHT

Among the friends who attended the wedding of Mary C. MacLean '42 and Lieut. Mal Rogers '40 last Saturday at her home in Campbellton, was Jean Ramsay '42 who is at present teaching in Rimouski, Quebec.

Joe Richards ex '45 who is now a member of the R.C.A.F. will be home on a "forty-eight" this weekend.

Barbara and Margaret White '43 left Saturday for Moncton, from where they will go to Rockcliffe for their basic training in the R.C.A.F. (W.D.) Before leaving they were presented gifts by the Ladies' Society "up the hill".

Friends of Betty Dunfield '43 will be sorry to hear that she has been called to her home in Saint John because of the serious illness of her mother.

Students at U.N.B. are glad to see that Dr. A. G. Bailey has returned to the campus to resume his regular duties, after having been absent for about six weeks.

Professor A. S. West is at present a patient in Victoria Public Hospital, following a major operation. The report is his condition is favorable.

The keeper of the Celestial Gate asked from within who the first applicant might be.

"It's me!" a voice made reply, and St. Peter bade him come in.

Another knock. Another question. "Who's there?" Another answer, "It's me!"

"Come in!" said the guardian angel.

Then another sharp rap. "Who's there?" asked St. Peter.

"It is I!" a voice replied.

"Another one of those darn school teachers!" grumbled the Keeper.
