(Continued from page two) this in mind he will be concentrating on physical training for the first few practices, working in the different boxing angles regarding stance and punching, as the weeks pass by.

Greatly missed this year will be Bobbie McLaughlin, who really made a name for himself and his club during his four years at U.N.B. Bob can be very justly classed as one of the finest amateur boxers ever to be produced in the Maritimes. Another loss sustained by the team this year was the enlistment of Pat Claire in the army. He was to have captained the team this year and showed great promise in the welter bracket.

However, to counteract these losses, U.N.B. has inherited another mighty fine slugger who goes by the name Brent Hooper. Brent is a familiar character around the gym, having fought here on two occasions for Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown. Two years ago he tangled with Boog Young, and on that trip won a close decision. The previous year he had lost a decision to Bob McLaughlin on the same floor. This year we will be looking for big things from Brent who will be fighting under the Red and Black.

Another promising two man act is that towering combination from Montreal, Martin and Sainsbury. Both lads will be fighting light heavy and from all appearances, last Sunday was not their first siesta with a punching bag. Other newcomers this year included "Waltie" Watling, a slugger from the Miramichi, plus two or three familiar faces in the form of "Pretty-boy" MacDonald, By Nevin and Johnny Hough. These boys all displayed plenty of talent for newcomers.

In passing it would be well to remember that the college has far from lost last year's gang. Charlie Bunker, another pride and joy of this college, will be around. Charlie was the lad who hung the beating on Robinson, the 1942 Maritime champ, last spring. Other killers of the ring world who will be around this year are that walking keg of T.N.T., "Klisch" Napke, "Flea" Belyea, "Basher" Finnegan and "Do" Dohane.

The situation for this year looks very bright and we all wish Mr. Laskey and Jim Dosne all kinds of success and sincerely hope that they will continue to have large turnouts in the future, from which they will be able to mould another team this year, capable of carrying the Varsity colours to victory in all classes represented in competition.

The total time devoted to U.A.T.C. training during the university session is 125 hours, and pay will be allotted for this amount at the end of March. However, deductions from pay and other penalties will be imposed if airmen miss parades without proper excuse. For administrative purposes the squadron will be divided into three flights. Those who have passed the first year examinations and are physically fit for air crew will be permitted to wear white flashes.

CREED

My creed is this:
Happiness is the only good
The place to be happy is here
The time to be happy is now
The way to be happy is to make others so.

Stuff 'N Things

It was nothing of a surprise, upper-classmen at a football practise last week to see the President of this university coming down to watch the boys work out. However, freshman rugby candidates looked upon his appearance as something out of the ordinary. Apparently they were of the opinion that he was too taken up with other affairs to bother about watching them practising football. But they have yet to learn that this is a common occurrence and is only one of the many outstanding characteristics that make up this marvelous personality.

Busy and all as Dr. MacKenzie is, he never forgets his students. His presence at the practise is merely one of several ways in which he has endeared himself to us. The visits are not planned particularly but the President in his own inimitable manner keeps in constant touch with students and their activities. His approach during C.O.T.C. lectures and drills, or at any other extra-curricular periods, is not heralded by a fanfare, as would befit a man of his position, but rather "like one of the boys", the President appears unobtrusive and unassuming, watching his boys at work and play.

Instances of this sort are all the more wonderful when we consider the scope of Dr. MacKenzie's work—work that takes him to the nation's capital almost monthly and to several other important centres periodically; work that calls upon all the resources of a brilliant mind; work that is time-consuming, tedious, but vital; work that brings him in contact with the Dominion's best educated and most learned; work that marks our President as a man of outstanding ability and a figure of national importance; . . . this is Dr. N. A. M. MacKenzie, M.M. and Bar, B.A., LL.B., LL.D., K.C.

Historical sidelight—The room now occupied by the Brunswickan office, on the second floor of the Arts Building, was once the residence of C. W. Hall, proprietor of Hall's Book Store, Queen St. Mr. Hall, '84, boarded in this room, which is No. 13, while attending U.N.B.

CAPITALISM

Capitalism did not arise because capitalists stole the land or the workmen's tools, but because it was more efficient than feudalism. It will perish because it is not merely less efficient than socialism, but actually self-destructive.

—J. B. S. Haldane

When talking to us, Bruce said "I'm awfully sorry I'm leaving." Referring to "the place, the guys and the gals", he wished them all "the best of luck in the future." We too, and all those who have known Bruce Miller or who have heard about his exploits, may say that we are as sorry to see him leave as he is to go. Let us hope that he will return to U.N.B. some day, and until he does — au revoir Bruce. Good luck and speedy recovery!

S. R. C. Urges

This state of affairs can't go on, freshmen! You all want a voice in the running of activities on the campus, and the only way to make yourselves heard is to be at the meetings and to assert your demands.

So come on class of '47, as your safety lies only in numbers, let's see if you can't make yourselves noticeable at the next meeting. You all know the time—Friday, just after fourth period, in economics classroom—See you there!

Glee Club

Old traditions they say, soon become pretty boring to the jaded appetites of the crowd but we were all witnesses Friday night to a tradition that is certainly quite long standing but which seemed to be just as sprightly, just as entertaining as in its youngest days. This was the redoubtable Dr. Toole's version of "Yickem! Yackem! Ya!" and "Oh Roger Rum" lively bits of melodic nonsense and very ably rendered.

Not so incidentally, it is only under the very capable baton of Dr. Toole that the Glee Club has been able to carry on and flourish as it has done.

Now, any of you males that fancy yourselves as bathtub nightingales should certainly consider joining the Glee Club—there's lots of room and need for more voices.

NEWMAN CLUB

Sunday evening after Church service, the Newman Club of U.N.B. met at St. Dunstan's Rectory to put the finishing touch to plans for holding meetings on the first and third Sundays of each month and for carrying out activities during the winter. The speaker of the evening was Reverend Dr. Boyd, who addressed the members on the life of Cardinal Newman.

After recitation of the Club prayers, the freshmen were welcomed by the president who gave a brief history of the club. Then the new members were asked to introduce themselves and the constitution was read for their benefit.
