Hello Chilluns! Ah came down fum the no'th country just to attend your Sadie Hawkins Dance. Ah come down early—thought mebbe ah could ketch myself a pardner—ah even took a bath for the big occasion—now somebody's gotta ask me! Thought ah wouldn't shave 'til ah got myself asked, cuz a feller can't be too rash, you know. So ah arrives here early and what do ah find—every available man has got himself hooked up with some dame—only the old hairless Joes are left. Why ah wasn't in town more'n six hours and ah got sorta half-asked. I'm still workin' on it! So mebbe ah'll see you'se all next Friday night effen ah can just wangle that date. And don't forget, ah promised Grandma that I'd bring back some news. Grandma loves news!

What happened to the budding Fredericton-Montreal romance last Friday night? Surely you are not going to let a Fredericton man get the upper hand, are you Pete?

And the Forester's M. C. blossomed out! Where have you been keeping yourself L. B.—and incidentally, where have you been keeping her?

Oh, the naughty stags! Look out son, you might get your ears bitten off!

Who were the two coeds who asked their current men to the Sadie Hawkins Dance and got turned down flat? Too bad, boys, I hear they are looking in greener fields!

Mm, the Senior Foresters don't waste time. Nice going Bob, she's cute!

Babsie, stop flirting with that young man, you may get yourself into deep water.

You have a sterling character Ed Walter but do you have to slice a bit off it to wind around a girl's arm?

If "WHO" passed Freshman Math he must have cribbed.

The tag day was a success. Now please stop yapping, Bobbie!

What's the matter Paul? Did you try to kick the top off that bottle?

So the freshmen are old enough to form an opinion! My, my! A good one, too.

Listen mugs! Keep out of my stamping grounds! If there is going to be any crabbing done around here, Snoop will be the one to do it! This place sounds like a C.C.F. meeting.

Threateningly,

SNOOP.
