COMMITTEE LAYS PLANS

Intent on repeating their first success—the Encaenia dance—the Social Committee has made extensive preparations for the Freshman Reception, to be held this evening in the Memorial Hall. Chairman Jim Fettes has announced that plans will soon be made for the two other events—the Fall Formal and the Con—which the Social Committee sponsors.

The purpose of the Reception this evening is to permit the Freshmen to meet the student body, thus enabling them to become acquainted with the college organizations, the leaders of which will speak during the evening. It is hoped that President MacKenzie will be present to address the students. In addition a variety of skits will be put on, and the evening will end with a dance to canned music.

A few sets of Drawing Instruments, also some slide rules at $5.50

: Scoop by "Snoop" :

Well, well, welcome back all you dear goony people. This is your snooping, scooping reporter right here on the back page again — a-itchin for dirt and believe me there's plenty of it! Have you ever seen SUCH Freshmen — I haven't either and those haircuts don't help. As for the Freshettes — there ARE possibilities!

Collich night life (the only life!) started off with a h— of a mix-up and lots of last year's amours at the Brunswickan Dance.

"I'm Still Wearing Last Year's Love" sang a chorus including Mavour & Fettes, Evans & Law, Bell & Whittingham, Springer & Fairley — nicely sung, children — nicely sung.

* * * *

Pretty Boy, where did you get that dame? Fer the luvva Pete who won't it be next?

* * * *

Wolfin' in uniform and out of uniform are two different things, eh Smut? The Rat Race sees you comin' so it's the "Y" for you!

* * * *

Medicine Football, and now it's basketball — Pages and Pages in Betty's life. Careful gal — remember your past!!!

* * * *

Law-son you certainly don't waste time. Montreal teaches its sons the technique, eh Johnston?

* * * *

He may be only a Freshman — and she a Freshette (cute too!) — but what's that about her ankles Bill?

* * * *

The "Y" dance Saturday night certainly was the joint to be at! Oh these Junior gals! Nice too — weren't they? And Freshmen at that!

Formals this year present two acute problems. First—it is difficult to get transportation. The Committee has brought this point before the cc-eds, and they have all agreed that rather than turn the dances to informals, they would be willing to lift their skirts and walk to the ball room. It is difficult to obtain good music. However, every effort will be made to get decent orchestras.

The same number of formals as in other years is being planned. No new dances or new decoration themes will be introduced, and the budget will be kept as low as possible.

The Duchess has picked up the threads of her summer romance and all goes well—oh these Freshmen!

* * * *

This oughta hold ya 'til next week, kids. In the meantime watch yourselves cause I see all, hear all, know all and tell all. See you at the Freshman Reception, and just in case you might be looking for me — I'll be sitting in the corner smoking a cigarette and wearing one of those smart new haircuts.

WHY WORRY?

"I wonder why folks worry. There are only two reasons for worry!

"Either you are successful or you are not successful. If you are successful there are only two things to worry about. You are either going to get well or you are going to die; if you are going to get well there is nothing to worry about; if you are going to die there are only two things to worry about. You are either going to heaven or you are not going to heaven; and if you darn busy shaking hands with old are going to heaven there is nothing to worry about; if you are going to the other place you'll be so friends you won't have time to worry, so why worry?"

NEW TUCK SHOP

Upon arrival on the campus this fall, the old students were agreeably surprised on first entering the tuck shop. Here they found practically a new establishment. Since last spring the old shop has undergone a complete change. On the sad death of Mr. Bailey, the management was taken over by Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Page. Since then the old shop has been enlarged, painted and improved generally.

Here, as all over the country nowadays, the only difficulty seems to be in getting enough to sell. Said Mr. Page, "This is one place where you can sell all you can get." To see what he means just take a walk in on some Monday morning yourself, but c'est la guerre.

Mr. and Mrs. Page have been very kind and considerate at all times, especially in the late PM's when the Residence upper classmen go on an insatiable buying spree much to the disgust of the frosh.
