of the Glee Club is also included in the programme.

Dr. Brebner is a well known author and book reviewer who was born and educated in Toronto. He graduated from the University of Toronto and continued his studies at Columbia University. During the First World War he served with the Medical Corps and the R.C.A. and rose from the rank of private to a Lieutenant.

The portrait of Dr. Harrison was painted by Charles MacGregor A.R.C.A., O.S.A., of Toronto and eminent Canadian portrait painter who has done many fine canvasses in the Maritimes.

Post-War Forestry

expansion of the forestry extension service.

The general plan for forestry in New Brunswick calls on government to provide research, education, general inventories, leadership in development, roads to make the forests accessible and control of use. In effect the brief says that, if government will do this, industry will undertake to manage and utilize the forests efficiently.

This brief is only a beginning. Detailed plans have yet to be made and organization set up to start the work. The public have yet to be convinced this is a wise and reasonable course of action. We have an opportunity before us which may not soon come again if we let it escape. This opportunity is most important to the generation which will put the plans into operation and see them through.

The question of whether students should be charged admission to basketball games if some of the larger American colleges were brought in was discussed, but nothing was decided definitely.

Just what part did you play in the basement fracas Friday night, Mick. Was it that that drove you to the Y and Old Gaiety Sat. night?

Fletcher was the object of a city wide search Saturday morning. We wonder if he is home yet?
