

Bits About 'Em

—By Eileen Crotty

A wedding of interest to many on the campus took place this month at St. Dunstan's Church in Fredericton when the Rev. Dr. Charles Boyd united in marriage Doris Webb and Jerome Doyle. Jerome graduated from U.N.B. last year in Forest Engineering.

Clifford Hoyt '41 is in Fredericton on furlough. Cliff is a Pilot Officer in the R.C.A.F. and leaves shortly for Manitoba where he is stationed.

Capt. Ernest Vandine '36 and Lieut. Les. Hoar '40 were in Fredericton on Founder's Day. Both are former editors of The Brunswickan.

Art McDermott '43 who has been working in Montreal since his graduation, is now in Saint John with the New Brunswick Telephone Company.

Lieut. Jack Veness '45 is stationed in England with the North Nova Scotia Highlanders.

Herbie Loane, President of the Class of '43, was in Fredericton last week. Herbie has received his discharge from the R.C.A.F. because of ill-health and plans to work with the Bell Telephone Company in Montreal.

Among the students who went to Saint John last weekend were: Frances Harrison '44, Leslie Stevens '44, John Weyman '47, John Gandy '47, Ken Fendwick '47, C. J. McMillan '47, Bob Daye '46, Carl Ross '46, Jack Miller '46 and Otis Logue '46.

ROUGE ET NOIR

—Scoop by "Snoop"

ROSES: To Edith MacFarlane for being such an eye pleaser at the Founder's Day Ceremony.

To the President: "You're an awfully nice guy and we hate to see you go." We wish you every success in your new position.

To Jerry Lockhart for keeping immaculately phrased English. But, the basket in sight so efficiently and so often.

To Doc Fleming who has been keeping the ball rolling with ready wit and wide grins.

THORNS: To Bill Martin for denying the local females the thrilling pleasure of his company.

To the students who couldn't afford to support the I.S.S. dance, but turned out "en masse" to the free one.

Gossy Corner

Brent Hooper chucking Shirley Kinney under the chin. He may not howl like a wolf but that's all.

Front row Seniors whistling at scenes and positions on the stage. We thought Mickey would fall off his chair. Beulah!

Couples looking sweet and happy: Bob Forbes and Freshette MacKenzie; Don Holyoke and Doreen Miller; Sailor Boy and Grace Love; Johnny Weyman and Anna Sewell; Bud Smithers and Mary Lawson; Mickey Mackay and Beulah Bate-man.

Couples looking too sweet and too happy: Jerry Lockhart and Eileen Crotty; Eric Bell and Marie Graham; Gordie the Sailor and Kay Bell; Francis Atkinson and Edith MacFarlane.

At the Brunswickan Dinner Dance there were many parched throats due to the absence of the usual punch. We saw only one demi-john of the stuff all evening but it was too well guarded by an Ottawa Forester.

Ted Owens left himself open for a slander charge in an allusion to Eric Bell. True as it was, you can't prove it Ted. Eric was as pleased as could be. Errol Bell!

Ed McCourt got into hot water when he inadvertently cast aspersions at his spouse's cooking and company. He dug himself out with

Upon returning to the dance Joyce and Marie coyly stated that they had been bowling. A likely story.

We suspect a budding romance between Reffy D. and our Ed-in-chief. We may be wrong but we couldn't blame either of them.

Colin Ramsay looked awfully lonely Tues. nite. We wondered for a while, but later reports said Mary was ill. Hurry back Mary, or Colin will lose weight.

Quotes

Ted Owens: The punch will be plain. There ain't none to be had.

The Hockey Team: Great stuff there a la Boogie Young.

Jim Fettes: Fifty cents for the return of my lovely Hamburg.

Dick Sainsbury: In Ontario we

Blake O'Brien: On the Nort' Shore we

John Gandy: In Saint John we

Pete Johnson: In Montreal we

Locals: But in Fredericton we do things our way, so nuts to you!

Co-eds Swing Memorial

Climaxing a week of dating only too willing dancing parties evening. For why, says you?—Yessir, to-night's the night (fortunate meaning those blessed with an invitation by some luscious co-ed) will be shown just how the co-eds can put on a dance that will be a real shin-warmer. Lessons will be given to any males desirous of learning just how, at a later date. But, chums, before giving with the sweet and hot, there is a double header basketball game for your entertainment at ye olde Lady Beaverbrook Gymnasium, featuring our age old rivals, Mount A. More, children, more, both girls and boys will play Mount A. Jitties and dittos. Can't say the co-eds don't know how to dish out the amusement.

Back to the dance—3.30 is the time for the first mellow notes to roll around the Memorial Rafter, the tones emanating from the sweet pipes of District Depot No. 7 Orchestra. Blanche Law, our very efficient chairman, ably assisted by Eileen Crotty, Betty Dougherty, Edith MacFarlane and Doreen Miller will be on hand to see that everything meets your pleasure. Chaperones Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Turner and Professor and Mrs. Argue will be there to see that you mind your P's and Q's.

See ya all there, kids at this stupendous occasion.

Co-eds Stuff Faculty

Members of the Senate, the Faculty, and others were entertained at a delightful luncheon arranged under the auspices of the Ladies' Society. Fran McLean headed a committee composed of Ellen McLaggan and Jackie Pickard for the Freshettes, Marye Forbes from the Sophettes, Mavis DeLong and Betty Dougherty for the Junior class, and Eileen Crotty for the Seniors. The buffet table, centered with spring flowers, was laid in the Reading Room, and all the profits, agreed that they were stuffed to the gills by two-thirty.

This luncheon differed from previous ones in the absence of any noise of falling debris in the regions of the kitchen(?) Altogether ten chickens, three quarts of pickles, two gallons of coffee, and various other small items, mixed with broken crockery, were consumed. Per usual all the co-eds cooperated to make it a grand success.

Symposium

In an interview with John McNair, it was learned that the Arts, Science and Pre-Meds are again holding the symposium. Apparently the only thing that has been settled so far is the date—it will be held on the Saturday before Easter. More plans are going to be made at a later date and it is expected that the details will be available in the near future.
