MARITIME DEBATING CHAMPS

L. to R.— John Hildebrand, Ron Stevenson, Julian Guntensperger, Harold Stafford, Edward Fanjoy, Hugh Whalen

Monday afternoon UNB clinched the Maritime Debating Crown by overcoming King's College at Fredericton, by the unanimous vote of the judges.

John Hildebrand and Ron Stevenson had the honor of completing UNB's undefeated string in the Maritime Intercollegiate Debating League as they successfully upheld the affirmative of "Resolved that Canada should extend de jure recognition to the Jewish state of Israel." They presented a clear and well-planned case contending that Canada should recognize Israel for moral, social and economic reasons, and declared that the whole future of the United Nations hinged on the solution of the Palestine question. The negative team put out a strong opposition, questioning the moral right of the Jews to Palestine and pointing out that the Arab world would be alienated from the western world.

The judges were Donald Cochran, M.L.A., Selby Locke and D. A. MacDiarmid. The decision of the judges was based on the UNB team's superior plan and rebuttals.

On the Friday previous the team of Harold Stafford and Julian Guntensperger defeated St. Mary's College at Halifax 2-1. The UNB team had the affirmative here also on the resolution "Resolved that a
