

M. & D.

Anne Sansom

times when words are express an emotion and be found which fully expression desired. There so when actions are re-a situation and they her lacking or insuf-is was the case in the ne Royal Visit to the npus.

e fervently hoped that couple did not leave us mpression that we were d, or merely gaping, nters who peered with . They who are greeted by cheering crowds hey go, it is hoped, will strue our long periods which were not caused or disinterest, but by a reath capturing admir-there in the cold wait- hem, I believe, we all o cheer and cheer loudly passed by us. When ve saw the future Queen untry and her consort no longer as inanimate n paper, but in person, of their reality, their and all of what they and are, struck home so that our voices froze in

ued on Page 6, Col. 1)

OMISSION

ll due congratulations to who edited the Forestry kan for an otherwise job, I should like to ortunity to point out a ve omission. I say omit-use after numerous peru-an find no comment

the benefit of the stu- the university who didn't e trip to the swamps,— great victory of the Eng- by team over the Moun-

a champion is beaten pers usually carry the re- headlines, yet when the nued on Page 6, Col. 3)

the

Fall Formal

EDOS

OW DRESS SHIRTS

AL BOWS

OW COLLARS

ESS JEWELERY

ACK HOSE

ESS BRACES

ACK HOMBURG HATS

Everything
Correct Dresswise
Comes from

WALKER'S MEN'S SHOP

First Store On York

FOR A

Quick Lunch

Visit Our

Luncheonette

Fountain

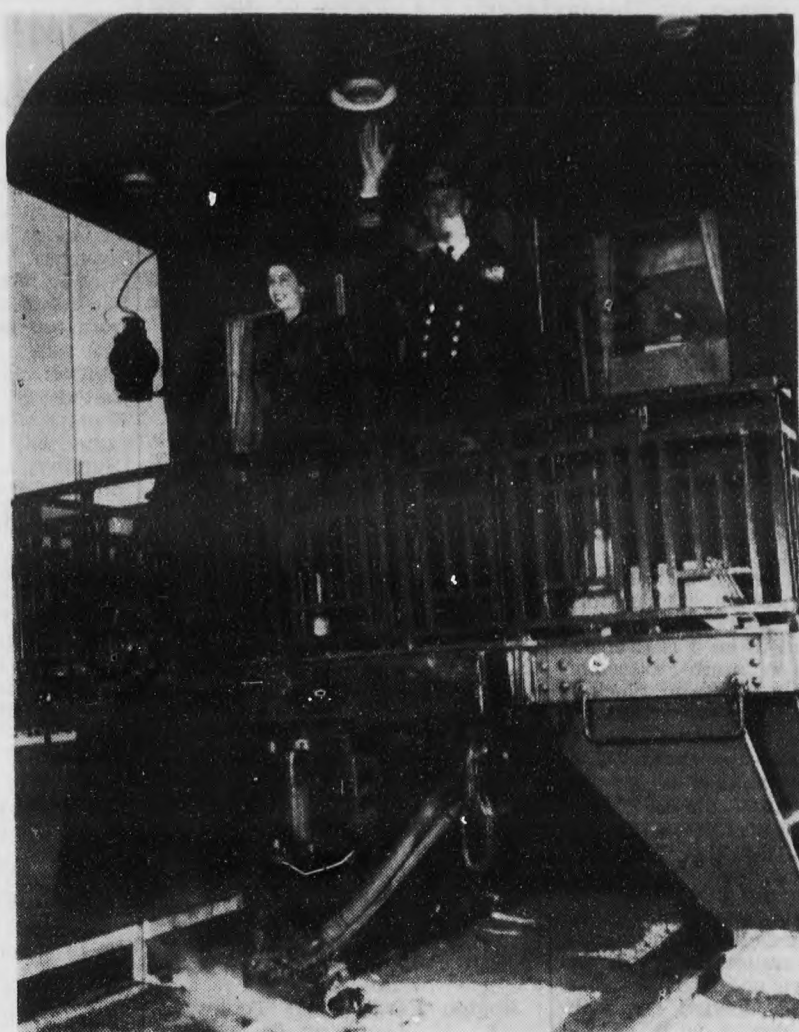

Kenneth Staples

Drug Company

UNB Meets a Prince and Princess

Upon leaving the Library the Princess and Prince stop to talk with two UNB students.
Gleaner Staff Photo

Shown above is the Royal Couple waving goodbye as their train leaves the Fredericton station.
Photo by Henderson

Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Trueman as they inspect the new Library wing.
Photo by Henderson

Escorted by Dr. Trueman, the Princess walks among the assembled students. At the right is a member of Scotland Yard who accompanied the Princess. Photo by "Herbie"

The Duke of Edinburgh shown entering the Library with Mrs. Trueman.
Gleaner Staff Photo

The Duke of Edinburgh shown surrounded by co-eds to the disadvantage of our photographer.
Photo by "Herbie"

STUDENTS !

Drop in and see the fine selection of
TOOKE DRESS SHIRTS
ABBEY TIES
HOLEPROOF HOSE
Ideal Christmas Gifts

HARRY LANG

496 Queen St.

For Dad & Lad

Dial 7031

Subscriptions to any or all
national or local periodicals
and magazines

Official Fredericton Agent

Harold Mowatt

Paraplegic Vet

64 Carleton St. - Phone 6637

THE LETTER SHOP

Fredericton's Little Print
Shop

A typing and duplicating service designed to lower the cost of printing for clubs, organizations and societies.

Typing — Stencils Run Off — Bulletins Printed

Dial 6637

64 Carleton Street